Section 6. A new section of KRS chapter 95 is created to read as follows:

Any member may, at his option, retire on a service retirement annuity upon or after completing at least 20 years of total service. Upon fulfillment of these terms, it is mandatory that the board shall grant the retirement annuity upon receipt of the application of said member.

Section 7. A new section of KRS Chapter 95 is created to read as follows:

Each member shall be subject to compulsory retirement according to the rules of the government in which he is employed, provided, however, that any member able to perform his assigned duties shall not be precluded from serving at least 20 years.

Section 8. A new section of KRS Chapter 95 is created to read as follows:

The rate of retirement annuity shall be two and one-half percent of average salary, as defined in subsection (13) of Section 1 of this Act, for each year of total service up to and including thirty years, subject to a maximum of seventy-five percent of average salary. Fractional periods of service shall be considered in the calculation of such annuities according to the aforesaid rate. Provided, however, that no retiree, or his surviving widow, whether he retired before or after June 16, 1972, under this section shall receive a pension of less than $100 a month and when social security benefits are increased the minimum shall be increased by a like amount, provided that the increase shall not exceed five percent. Within six months after the performance of the actuarial study required by subsection (6) of Section 21 of this Act, the rate of retirement annuity of each annuitant who becomes an annuitant after the effective date hereof shall be increased by an amount determined by the said study to reflect so much of the increase in the cost of living of such annuitant from the beginning of his annuity as may be supported on an actuarially sound basis by the fund, so long as the same is published, such studies shall rely on the "All Items Index" of the United States Department of Labor's Consumer Price Indexes, but no increase in the cost of living shall be assumed to exceed two percent over the base index year in any year of the fund.

Section 9. A new section of KRS Chapter 95 is created to read as follows:

(1) Upon death of a member due to occupational causes, regardless of length of service, his surviving widow shall be entitled immediately upon cessation of salary to an annuity equal to sixty percent of the member's last rate of salary. This annuity shall be payable until she dies or remarries. In addition, if minor children, under age eighteen, survive the member, the widow shall receive on account of each child, ten percent of the member's last rate of salary until each child attains age eighteen, or, in the case of a child regularly engaged in full time educational activities the age of twenty-three. The combined payments to a widow and minor children shall not exceed seventy-five percent of his final rate of salary.

(2) If a widow does not survive the member, or if she remarries, and minor children under age eighteen or between the ages of eighteen and twenty-three who are regularly engaged in educational activities exist, each child shall be entitled to an annuity equal to fifteen percent of the member's last rate of salary until each child attains age eighteen, or, in the case of a child regularly engaged in full time educational activities the age of twenty-three, provided that the combined payments to such children shall not exceed fifty percent of the member's last rate of salary.

(3) If neither a widow nor minor children, eligible for benefits survive the member, each dependent parent shall be entitled to an annuity equal to twenty-five percent of the member's last rate of salary, or fifty percent to both parents.

Section 10. A new section of KRS Chapter 95 is created to read as follows:

(1) Upon death of a member occurring while in service, arising from any cause other than in the performance of duty, provided the member has had at least five years of total service, his widow shall receive an annuity equal to one and one-half percent of average salary for each year of total service, credited to the member, but not less than fifteen percent of average salary, subject to the following conditions:

(a) The widow had been married to the member at least six months prior to his death;

(b) The widow's annuity will terminate in any event when the widow remarries. The annuity of each child or children shall continue until each child attains age eighteen, or, in the case of a child regularly engaged in full time educational activities the age of twenty-three.

(2) If the widow has minor children under age 18, or in the case of a child regularly engaged in full time educational activities the age of 23, the annuity to the widow shall be increased one-half on account of the first child and one-fourth on account of each additional such child, subject to a maximum combined payment to the widow and children of sixty percent of the final rate of salary.

(3) These benefits shall also be payable upon death of the member while on retirement, provided marriage was in effect for at least six months before retirement.

Section 11. A new section of KRS Chapter 95 is created to read as follows:

In the event a total and permanent occupational disability occurs, the member shall receive an annuity equal to seventy-five percent of his last rate of salary. This benefit shall begin at such time as his salary may cease, and shall be paid during his entire lifetime. Upon his death, his eligible widow and minor children, if any, shall receive the benefits as provided under Section 9 of this Act.

Section 12. A new section of KRS Chapter 95 is created to read as follows:

(1) Upon total and permanent disability of a member as the result of any cause other than occupational disability, if a member shall have rendered at least five years of total service, he shall be entitled to a disability retirement annuity. The amount of such annuity shall be equal to two and one-half percent of the average salary, as defined in subsection (13) of Section 1 of this Act, for each full year of total service, subject to a minimum payment of twenty-five percent of such average salary and a maximum payment of seventy-five percent of average salary. Payment of this annuity shall be made during disability of the member. Upon death of the member, if an eligible widow or minor children survive, such survivors shall be entitled to the regular annuities provided under Section 10 of this Act.

(2) Any annuity for non-occupational disability shall begin to accrue upon the expiration of ninety days following the commencement of disability provided that if the member is receiving salary for sick leave for a period of more than ninety days, payment shall accrue from the date such salary ceases. If written application for such annuity shall not have been filed with the board prior to the expiration of ninety days from date of disability, the annuity shall begin to accrue from the date the application shall be filed but not prior to the expiration of ninety days from the date of disability, nor in any event prior to the time when salary payments to the employee shall have ceased.

Section 13. A new section of KRS Chapter 95 is created to read as follows:

For the purpose of this Act, a member shall be considered totally and permanently disabled after the board has received written certification by at least two licensed and practicing physicians selected by the board that the member is totally and likely to be permanently disabled for the further performance of the duties of any assigned position in the service of the department. If upon consideration of the report of such physicians and such other evidence as shall have been presented to it by the member or others interested therein, the board finds the member to be totally and permanently disabled, it shall grant him a disability retirement annuity upon written certification that the member has been separated from the service of the government because of total disability of such nature as to reasonably prevent further service for the employer, and as a consequence is not entitled to compensation from the government.

Section 14. A new section of KRS Chapter 95 is created to read as follows:

(1) Upon death of a member, occurring while in active service, if no widow's annuity or children's annuities are payable, the designated beneficiary of the member or his estate shall be entitled to a death benefit equal to the total contributions made by the member, without interest, or three hundred dollars, whichever is greater.

(2) Upon death of a retired member, if no widow's annuity or children's annuities shall be due and payable, a death benefit shall be paid to the designated beneficiary or estate of the member, equal to the excess, if any, of the total contributions made by the member to this fund to the date of retirement, without interest, over the total annuity payments received by the member. The minimum payment in such case shall be three hundred dollars. If a widow's annuity or children's annuities are payable after the death of the retired member, the amount of such death benefit, if any, shall be determined upon termination of annuity payments to all survivors of the member, whether such termination occurs by death, remarriage or other cause.

Section 15. A new section of KRS Chapter 95 is created to read as follows:

(1) Upon withdrawal from service prior to retirement, a member shall be entitled to receive a refund of the amount of contributions made by the member after the date of establishment, without interest.

(2) Any member receiving a refund of contributions shall thereby ipso facto forfeit, waive, and relinquish all accrued rights and benefits in the system, including all credited and creditable service. The board may, in its discretion, regardless of cause, withhold payment of a refund for a period not to exceed six months after receipt of an application from a member.

(3) Any member who has received a refund shall be considered a new member upon subsequent re-employment if such person qualifies for membership under the provisions hereof. After the completion of at least five years of continuous membership service following his latest re-employment, such member shall have the right to make a repayment to the system of the amount or amounts previously received as refund, including six percent interest from the dates of refund to the date of repayment. Upon the restoration of such refunds, as herein provided, such member shall have reinstated to his account all credited service represented by the refunds of which repayment has been made. Repayment of refunds by any member shall include all refunds received by a member prior to the date of his last withdrawal from service and shall be made in a single sum.

(4) Any member who has received, or who is entitled to receive, a refund, but who within six months of becoming entitled to receive such refund, qualifies for membership under the provisions of a fund in effect in another government, or city of the second class, adopted pursuant to law, shall have the option of paying his refund into such other fund, in which event he shall be deemed a member of such other fund and his account therein shall be credited with all contributions and service under his original fund.

Section 16. A new section of KRS Chapter 95 is created to read as follows:

Each active member shall contribute a sum equal to eight percent of current salary. The Director of Finance of the government is hereby authorized to deduct such amount from the salary of each active member in semi-monthly installments. This contribution shall be made as a deduction from salary, notwithstanding that the salary paid in cash to such member may be reduced thereby below the established statutory rate.

Every member of the fund shall be deemed to consent and agree to the deduction from salary as herein provided, and shall receipt for his full salary, and payment to such member of salary less such deduction shall constitute a full and complete discharge and acquittance of all claims and demand whatsoever for the services rendered by such member during the period covered by such payment, except as to the benefits herein provided.

Section 17. A new section of KRS Chapter 95 is created to read as follows:

The government shall make current contributions to the fund on an actuarially funded basis, toward the annuities and benefits herein provided. These contributions shall be equal to the sum of the following:

(1) An annual amount resulting from the application of a rate percent of salaries of active members, representing the present value of the actuarial reserve requirements for membership service, for service retirement annuity, disability retirement annuity, and annuities to widows and children, and the one-year term premium for the government's liability for death benefits, after applying the contributions by the active members. Such rate percent shall be fixed by the board every five years, within six months after the actuarial study required by subsection (6) of Section 21 of this Act, (actuarial survey of the fund) and shall be in effect for a period of at least five years. For the first five fiscal years of operation of the fund, the government's rate of contribution shall be at least twelve percent of the salaries of the active members participating in the fund.

(2) An amount resulting from the application of a rate percent of the salaries of active members which will provide each year regular interest on the remaining liability for prior service.

(3) In addition to other remedies provided by law, any member of the fund or any annuitant may obtain in the circuit court of any county in which the government is located an injunction or mandamus requiring the government to comply herewith; and the members of any legislative body failing to act shall be personally liable for any funds not paid to the fund as required hereby, which remedy shall be available to any member of the fund or to any annuitant.

Section 18. A new section of KRS Chapter 95 is created to read as follows:

(1) The responsibility for the proper operation of the fund and the direction of its policies shall be vested in a Board of Trustees of nine members, consisting of the Mayor, the Director of Finance, the Director of Personnel, the chiefs of the police and fire department, and two active members of each department, who shall be elected by ballot by the active members of the respective departments and shall serve for alternating terms of two years under rules adopted by the board. One of the active members representing each department shall be elected on even numbered years; and the other active member representing such department shall be elected on odd numbered years. In the event of a vacancy of an elected member, the pension board shall fill the vacancy by appointment until the next regular election.

(2) It is the intention of this Act that the one elected member from each department on the pension boards of funds serving immediately prior to the adoption of the urban county form of government shall retain their office for one year, and that the other elected member from each department shall be elected for a two year term.

Section 19. A new section of KRS Chapter 95 is created to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the foregoing provisions, there shall be held on the first Wednesday after the first Tuesday of September of each year an election among the active members for trustee of the fund.

(2) On or before August 10 preceding, nominations for candidates in the election shall be filed with the chief of the police department and the chief of the fire department. The nominations shall be in writing and shall be signed by not less than twenty-five percent of the members. Within five days after the close of nominations, the chiefs of the respective departments shall certify in writing to all districts and bureaus of the departments the names of those placed in nomination.

(3) On the first Wednesday after the first Tuesday in September beginning at the hour of 12 noon on Wednesday and continuing thereafter for a forty-eight hour period, an election shall be held under the supervision of the commanding officers of the districts and bureaus. Each member shall vote at the district or bureau of which he is a member, except those members who are not assigned to a specific district or bureau, who shall vote at the office of the Chief of Police or Chief of the Fire Department, as the case may be. At the close of voting, the commanding officer of each district or bureau, shall in the presence of the nominees or their duly authorized agents, open the ballot box and count the votes. He shall then make a certificate of the count and send the certificate with the ballots in a sealed envelope to the Mayor, who shall, on the following Wednesday, open all the certificates so received and after counting all the returns, certify the result to the board. On the third Wednesday after the first Tuesday in September the candidate or candidates receiving the most votes shall assume office.

Section 20. A new section of KRS Chapter 95 is created to read as follows:

In addition to other duties provided in this Act, the board shall:

(1) Establish and maintain an office in the facilities provided by the government for the meetings of the board and the keeping of the books, accounts, and records of the fund; hold regular meetings monthly, and such special meetings as may be deemed necessary; and keep a full record of all of its proceedings, which shall be open to inspection by the public;

(2) Provide for the installation of a system of accounts and records that will give full effect to the requirements of this Act; adopt all necessary actuarial tables to be used in the operation of the fund; and provide for the compilation of such statistical and financial data as may be required for actuarial valuations, periodic surveys, and calculations;

(3) Obtain such information from the participating members and the government as shall be necessary for the proper operation of the fund;

(4) Consider and pass upon all applications for annuities, benefits, refunds and other payments, and authorize the expenditure for such purposes, in accordance with the provisions hereof. The board shall have authority to promulgate such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, necessary for the proper determination of all claims before it;

(5) Accept any gift, grant, or bequest of any money or property of any kind, for the purposes designated by the grantor if such purposes are specified as providing cash benefits to some or all of the members or annuitants of the fund; if no such purposes are designated, the same shall be credited to the account representing income from investments; and

Any such annuity, benefit, or refund shall not answer for debts contracted by the person receiving the same, and it is the intention of this section that they shall not be attached or affected by any judicial proceeding.

Section 28. A new section of KRS Chapter 95 is created to read as follows:

Any service retirement annuity, disability retirement annuity, or any other annuity provided herein shall be payable in equal monthly installments as life annuities, and shall not be increased, decreased, revoked, or repealed, except for error, or except where specifically otherwise provided. The cost of providing death benefits for members in receipt of retirement annuities shall not be construed as a reduction in the life annuity payable to the member. The first payment of an annuity shall be made for the fraction of a month elapsing until the end of the first month; and the last payment shall be made as of the end of the month in which death occurs.

(2) The petition shall state fully the grounds upon which a review is sought, assign all errors relied on and be verified by the petitioner who shall furnish a copy to the board at the time of the filing of the same. Summons shall be issued directing the board to answer within twenty days and directing the board to send the original record to the circuit clerk certifying that such record is the entire original record of the rehearing which shall be filed by the clerk of the circuit court and such record shall then become and be considered by the circuit court on the review. The appeal provided for herein shall not be considered effective unless the person making the appeal has paid to the board one-half of the cost of the transcript of the record of the rehearing within the period provided for making the appeal.

(3) No new nor additional evidence may be introduced in the circuit court except as to fraud or misconduct of some person engaged in the administration of this Act, and affecting the order, decision or determination appealed from, but the court shall otherwise hear the cause upon the record as certified by the board and shall dispose of the cause in summary manner, its review being limited to determining whether or not:

If upon appeal as herein provided, the order, decision or determination of the board is reversed the party perfecting the appeal shall be refunded by the board his portion of the costs paid for the transcript of the record made on the rehearing.

(4) The board and each interested party may appear before the circuit court. The court shall enter judgment affirming, modifying or setting aside the order, decision or determination appealed from, or in its discretion remand the cause to the board for further proceedings in conformity with the direction of the court. The court may, before judgment and upon a sufficient showing of fact, remand the cause to the Board.

HB 125, AN ACT relating to rental agreements.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

This Act shall be known and may be cited as the "Uniform Residential Landlord and Tenant Act."

Section 2. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) This Act shall be liberally construed and applied to promote its underlying purposes and policies.

(2) Underlying purposes and policies of this Act are:

(a) The legislature hereby finds that a significant proportion of the rental housing in this state is substandard in structure, equipment, sanitation, and maintenance; that the condition of this housing has had and will continue to have, unless corrected, a deleterious effect on the residents of this housing; that poorly maintained and over-crowded housing contributes to the development and spread of disease, crime, infant mortality, juvenile delinquency, broken homes, and other physical, social, and psychological problems, and constitutes a menace to the health, safety, morals and welfare of the residents of this state; that these conditions have necessitated excessive and disproportionate expenditures of public funds for crime prevention and punishment, for public health and safety, and for other public services and facilities, and have impaired the efficient and economic provisions of government services by municipalities and the state. The legislature further finds that these conditions result in part from the often unequal bargaining power of landlords and tenants as well as from an ill-suited common law of landlord and tenant in which leases are interpreted as grants of the right of possession rather than mutual and dependent covenants; that this common law, which evolved in an agricultural setting, is inappropriate when applied to modern residential property; that in order to facilitate fair and equitable arrangements, to foster the development of housing which will meet the minimum standards of the present day, and to promote the health, safety, morals, and welfare of the people, it is necessary and appropriate that the state specify certain minimum rights and remedies, obligations and prohibitions, for landlords and tenants of certain kinds of residential property.

(b) To encourage landlords and tenants to maintain and improve the quality of housing; and

(c) To make uniform the law with respect to the subject of this Act among those states which enact it.

Section 3. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

Unless displaced by the provisions of this Act, the principles of law and equity, including the law relating to capacity to contract, mutuality of obligations, principal and agent, real property, public health, safety and fire prevention, estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, duress, coercion, mistake, bankruptcy, or other validating or invalidating cause supplement its provisions.

Section 4. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

This Act being a general act intended as a unified coverage of its subject matter, no part of it is to be construed as impliedly repealed by subsequent legislation if that construction can reasonably be avoided.

Section 5. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) The remedies provided by this Act shall be so administered that an aggrieved party may recover appropriate damages. The aggrieved party has a duty to mitigate damages.

(2) Any right or obligation declared by this Act is enforceable by action unless the provision declaring it specifies a different and limited effect.

Section 6. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

A claim or right arising under this Act or on a rental agreement, if disputed in good faith, may be settled by agreement.

Section 7. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

This Act applies to, regulates, and determines rights, obligations and remedies under a rental agreement, wherever made, for a dwelling unit located within this state.

Section 8. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

Unless created to avoid the application of this Act, the following arrangements are not governed by this Act:

(1) Residence at an institution, public or private, if incidental to detention or the provision of medical, geriatric, educational counseling, religious, or similar service.

(2) Occupancy under a contract of sale of a dwelling unit or the property of which it is a part, if the occupant is the purchaser or a person who succeeds to his interest.

(3) Occupancy by a member of a fraternal or social organization in the portion of a structure operated for the benefit of the organization.

(4) Transient occupancy in a hotel, or motel, or lodgings subject to state transient lodgings or room occupancy excise tax act.

(5) Occupancy by an employee of a landlord whose right to occupancy is conditional upon employment in and about the premises.

(6) Occupancy by an owner of a condominium unit or a holder of a proprietary lease in a cooperative.

(7) Occupancy under a rental agreement covering premises used by the occupant primarily for agricultural purposes.

Section 9. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) The county courts of this state may exercise jurisdiction over any landlord with respect to any conduct in this state governed by this Act or with respect to any claim arising from a transaction subject to this Act. In addition to any other method provided by rule or by statute, personal jurisdiction over a landlord may be acquired in a civil action or proceeding instituted in the court by the service of process in the manner provided by this section.

(2) If a landlord is not a resident of this state or is a corporation not authorized to do business in this state and engages in any conduct in this state governed by this Act, or engages in a transaction subject to this Act, he may designate an agent upon whom service of process may be made in this state. The agent shall be a resident of this state or a corporation authorized to do business in this state. The designation shall be in writing and filed with the Secretary of State. If no designation is made and filed or if process cannot be served in this state upon the designated agent, process may be served upon the Secretary of State, but service upon him is not effective unless the plaintiff or petitioner forthwith mails a copy of the process and pleading by registered or certified mail to the defendant or respondent at his last reasonably ascertainable address. An affidavit of compliance with this section shall be filed with the clerk of the court on or before the return day of the process, if any, or within any further time the court allows.

Section 10. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

Subject to additional definitions contained in subsequent Articles of this Act which apply to specific Articles or Parts thereof, and unless the context otherwise requires, in this Act

(1) "Action" includes recoupment, counterclaim, set-off suit in equity, and any other proceeding in which rights are determined, including an action for possession.

(2) "Building and housing codes" include any law, ordinance, or governmental regulation concerning fitness for habitation, or the construction, maintenance, operation, occupancy, use, or appearance of any premises or dwelling unit.

(3) "Dwelling unit" means a structure or the part of a structure that is used as a home, residence, or sleeping place by one person who maintains a household or by two or more persons who maintain a common household.

(4) "Good faith" means honesty in fact in the conduct of the transaction concerned.

Section 23. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(f) the tenant has notice of it at the time he enters into the rental agreement, or when it is adopted.

(2) A landlord may enter the dwelling unit without consent of the tenant in case of emergency.

(3) A landlord shall not abuse the right of access or use it to harass the tenant. Except in case of emergency or unless it is impracticable to do so, the landlord shall give the tenant at least two days' notice of his intent to enter and may enter only at reasonable times.

(4) A landlord has no other right of access except:

(a) pursuant to court order;

(b) as permitted by Sections 34 and 35(2) of this Act; or

(c) unless the tenant has abandoned or surrendered the premises.

Section 25. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

Section 26. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in this Act, if there is a material noncompliance by the landlord with the rental agreement or a noncompliance with Section 20 of this Act materially affecting health and safety, the tenant may deliver a written notice to the landlord specifying the acts and omissions constituting the breach and that the rental agreement will terminate upon a date not less than thirty days after receipt of the notice if the breach is not remedied in fourteen days, and the rental agreement shall terminate as provided in the notice subject to the following:

(a) If the breach is remediable by repairs, the payment of damages or otherwise and the landlord adequately remedies the breach before the date specified in the notice, the rental agreement shall not terminate by reason of the breach.

(b) If substantially the same act or omission which constituted a prior noncompliance covered by subsection (1) of which notice was given recurs within six months, the tenant may terminate the rental agreement upon at least fourteen days written notice specifying the breach and the date of termination of the rental agreement.

(c) The tenant may not terminate for a condition caused by the deliberate or negligent act or omission of the tenant, a member of his family, or other person on the premises with his consent.

(2) Except as provided in this Act, the tenant may recover damages and obtain injunctive relief for any noncompliance by the landlord with the rental agreement of Section 20 of this Act. If the landlord's noncompliance is willful the tenant may recover reasonable attorney's fees.

(3) The remedy provided in subsection (2) is in addition to any right of the tenant arising under Section 26(1) of this Act.

(4) If the rental agreement is terminated, the landlord shall return all prepaid rent.

Section 27. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) If the landlord fails to deliver possession of the dwelling unit to the tenant as provided in Section 19 of this Act, rent abates until possession is delivered and the tenant may:

(a) terminate the rental agreement upon at least five days' written notice to the landlord and upon termination the landlord shall return all prepaid rent and damage fee; or

(b) demand performance of the rental agreement by the landlord and, if the tenant elects, maintain an action for possession of the dwelling unit against the landlord or any person wrongfully in possession and recover the damages sustained by him.

(2) If a person's failure to deliver possession is willful and not in good faith, an aggrieved person may recover from that person an amount not more than three months' periodic rent of threefold the actual damages sustained, whichever is greater, and reasonable attorney's fees.

Section 28. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) If the landlord willfully and materially fails to comply with the rental agreement or fails to comply with Section 20 of this Act and such noncompliance materially affects health and safety and the reasonable cost of compliance is less than $100, or an amount equal to one-half of the monthly rent, whichever amount is greater, the tenant may recover damages for the breach under Section 26(2) of this Act or may notify the landlord of his intention to correct the condition at the landlord's expense. If the landlord fails to comply within fourteen days after being notified by the tenant in writing or as promptly as conditions require in case of emergency, the tenant may cause the work to be done in a workmanlike manner and, after submitting to the landlord an itemized statement, deduct from his rent the actual and reasonable cost or the fair and reasonable value of the work, not exceeding the amount specified in this subsection.

(2) A tenant may not repair at the landlord's expense if the condition was caused by the deliberate or negligent act or omission of the tenant, a member of his family, or other person on the premises with his consent.

Section 29. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) If, contrary to the rental agreement of Section 20 of this Act, the landlord willfully or negligently fails to supply heat, running water, hot water, electric, gas, or other essential service, the tenant may give written notice to the landlord specifying the breach and may:

(a) procure reasonable amounts of heat, hot water, running water, electric, gas, and the essential service during the period of the landlord's noncompliance and deduct their actual and reasonable cost from the rent;

(b) recover damages based upon the diminution in the fair rental value of the dwelling unit; or

(c) procure reasonable substitute housing during the period of the landlord's noncompliance, in which case the tenant is excused from paying rent for the period of the landlord's noncompliance.

(2) In addition to a remedy provided in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) the tenant may recover reasonable attorney's fees.

(3) If the tenant proceeds under this section, he may not proceed under Section 26 or Section 28 of this Act as to that breach.

(4) Rights of the tenant under this section do not arise until he has given notice to the landlord or if the condition was caused by the deliberate or negligent act or omission of the tenant, a member of his family, or other person on the premises with his consent.

Section 30. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) In an action for possession based upon nonpayment of the rent or in an action for rent when the tenant is in possession, the tenant may counterclaim for any amount he may recover under the rental agreement of this Act. In that event the court from time to time may order the tenant to pay into court all or part of the rent accrued and thereafter accruing, and shall determine the amount due to each party. The party to whom a net amount is owed shall be paid first from the money paid into court, and the balance by the other party. If no rent remains due after application of this section, judgment shall be entered for the tenant in the action for possession. If the defense or counterclaim by the tenant is without merit and is not raised in good faith, the landlord may recover reasonable attorney's fees.

(2) In an action for rent when the tenant is not in possession, he may counterclaim as provided in subsection (1) but is not required to pay any rent into court.

Section 31. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) If the dwelling unit or premises are damaged or destroyed by fire or casualty to an extent that enjoyment of the dwelling unit is substantially impaired, the tenant may:

(a) immediately vacate the premises and notify the landlord in writing within fourteen days thereafter of his intention to terminate the rental agreement, in which case the rental agreement terminates as of the date of vacating; or

(b) if continued occupancy is lawful, vacate any part of the dwelling unit rendered unusable by the fire or casualty, in which case the tenant's liability for rent is reduced in proportion to the diminution in the fair rental value of the dwelling unit.

(2) If the rental agreement is terminated under provision of this section the landlord shall return all the unused portion of the prepaid rent. Accounting for rent in the event of termination or apportionment shall be made as of the date of the casualty.

Section 32. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

If a landlord unlawfully removes or excludes the tenant from the premises or willfully diminishes services to the tenant by interrupting or causing the interruption of heat, running water, hot water, electric, gas, or other essential service, the tenant may recover possession or terminate the rental agreement and, in either case, recover an amount not more than three months periodic rent or threefold the actual damages sustained by him, whichever is greater, and a reasonable attorney's fee. If the rental agreement is terminated, the landlord shall return all prepaid rent.

Section 33. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in this Act, if there is a material noncompliance by the tenant with the rental agreement or a material noncompliance with Section 22 or 23 of this Act, the landlord may deliver a written notice to the tenant specifying the acts and omissions constituting the breach and that the rental agreement will terminate upon a date not less than fourteen days after receipt of the notice. If the breach is not remedied in fifteen days, the rental agreement shall terminate as provided in the notice subject to the following. If the breach is remediable by repairs or the payment of damages or otherwise and the tenant adequately remedies the breach before the date specified in the notice, the rental agreement shall not terminate. If substantially the same act or omission which constituted a prior noncompliance of which notice was given recurs within six months, the landlord may terminate the rental agreement upon at least fourteen days' written notice specifying the breach and the date of termination of the rental agreement.

(2) If rent is unpaid when due and the tenant fails to pay rent within seven days after written notice by the landlord of nonpayment and his intention to terminate the rental agreement if the rent is not paid within that period, the landlord may terminate the rental agreement.

(3) Except as provided in this Act, the landlord may recover damages and obtain injunctive relief for any noncompliance by the tenant with the rental agreement or Section 22 or 23 of this Act. If the tenant's noncompliance is willful the landlord may recover reasonable attorney's fees.

Section 34. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

If there is noncompliance by the tenant with Section 22 or 23 materially affecting health and safety that can be remedied by repair, replacement of a damaged item or cleaning, and the tenant fails to comply as promptly as conditions require in case of emergency or within fourteen days after written notice by the landlord specifying the breach and requesting that the tenant remedy it within that period of time, the landlord may enter the dwelling unit and cause the work to be done in a workmanlike manner and submit the itemized bill for the actual and reasonable cost or the fair and reasonable value thereof as rent on the next date periodic rent is due, or if the rental agreement has terminated, for immediate payment.

Section 35. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) If the rental agreement requires the tenant to give notice to the landlord of an anticipated extended absence in excess of seven days as required in Section 25 of this Act and the tenant willfully fails to do so, the landlord may recover actual damages from the tenant.

(2) During any absence of the tenant in excess of seven days, the landlord may enter the dwelling unit at times reasonably necessary.

(3) If the tenant abandons the dwelling unit, the landlord shall make reasonable efforts to rent it at a fair rental. If the landlord rents the dwelling unit for a term beginning before the expiration of the rental agreement, it terminates as of the date of the new tenancy. If the landlord fails to use reasonable efforts to rent the dwelling unit at a fair rental or if the landlord accepts the abandonment as a surrender, the rental agreement is deemed to be terminated by the landlord as of the date the landlord has notice of the abandonment. If the tenancy is from month-to-month or week-to-week, the term of the rental agreement for this purpose is deemed to be a month or a week, as the case may be.

Acceptance of rent with knowledge of a default by the tenant or acceptance of performance by him that varies from the terms of the rental agreement constitutes a waiver of the landlord's right to terminate the rental agreement for that breach, unless otherwise agreed after the breach has occurred.

Section 37. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) A lien or security interest on behalf of the landlord in the tenant's household goods is not enforceable unless perfected before the effective date of this Act.

(2) Distraint for rent is abolished.

Section 38. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

If the rental agreement is terminated, the landlord may have a claim for possession and for rent and a separate claim for actual damages for breach of the rental agreement and reasonable attorney's fees as provided in Section 33(3) of this Act.

Section 39. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

A landlord may not recover or take possession of the dwelling unit by action or otherwise, including willful diminution of services to the tenant by interrupting or causing the interruption of heat, electric, running water, hot water, gas, or other essential service to the tenant, except in case of abandonment, surrender, or as permitted in this Act.

Section 40. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) The landlord or the tenant may terminate a week-to-week tenancy by a written notice given to the other at least seven days before the termination date specified in the notice.

(2) The landlord or the tenant may terminate a month-to-month tenancy by a written notice given to the other at least thirty days before the periodic rental date specified in the notice.

(3) If the tenant remains in possession without the landlord's consent after expiration of the term of the rental agreement or its termination, the landlord may bring an action for possession and if the tenant's holdover is willful and not in good faith the landlord may also recover an amount not more than three months' periodic rent or threefold the actual damages sustained by him, whichever is greater, and reasonable attorney's fees. If the landlord consents to the tenant's continued occupancy, Section 14(3) of this Act applies.

(1) If the tenant refuses to allow lawful access, the landlord may obtain injunctive relief to compel access, or terminate the rental agreement. In either case the landlord may recover actual damages and reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) If the landlord makes an unlawful entry or a lawful entry in an unreasonable manner or makes repeated demands for entry otherwise lawful but which have the effect of unreasonably harassing the tenant, the tenant may obtain injunctive relief to prevent the reoccurrence of the conduct or terminate the rental agreement. In either case the tenant may recover actual damages not less than an amount equal to one month's rent and reasonable attorney's fees.

Section 42. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in this section, a landlord may not retaliate by increasing rent or decreasing services or by bringing or threatening to bring an action for possession after:

(a) the tenant has complained to a governmental agency charged with responsibility for enforcement of a building or housing code of a violation applicable to the premises materially affecting health and safety;

(b) the tenant has complained to the landlord of a violation under Section 20 of this Act;

(c) the tenant has organized or become a member of a tenant's union or similar organization.

(2) If the landlord acts in violation of subsection (1) of this section, the tenant is entitled to the remedies provided in Section 32 of this Act and has a defense in any retaliatory action against him for possession. In an action by or against the tenant, evidence of a complaint within one year before the alleged act of retaliation creates a presumption that the landlord's conduct was in retaliation. The presumption does not arise if the tenant made the complaint after notice of a proposed rent increase or diminution of services. "Presumption" means that the trier of fact must find the existence of the fact presumed unless and until evidence is introduced which would support a finding of its nonexistence.

(3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2) of this section, a landlord may bring an action for possession if:

(a) the violation of the applicable building or housing code was caused primarily by lack of reasonable care by the tenant or other person in his household or upon the premises with his consent;

(b) the tenant is in default in rent; or

(c) compliance with the applicable building or housing code requires alteration, remodeling, or demolition which would effectively deprive the tenant of use of the dwelling unit.

(4) The maintenance of an action under subsection (3) of this section does not release the landlord from liability under Section 26(2) of this Act.

Section 43. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

Transactions entered into before the effective date of this Act, and not extended or renewed on and after that date, and the rights, duties, and interests flowing from them remain valid and may be terminated, completed, consummated, or enforced as required or permitted by any statute or other law amended or repealed by this Act as though the repeal or amendment had not occurred.

Section 44. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

This Act shall become effective on September 1, 1974. It applies to rental agreements entered into or extended or renewed on and after that date.

Section 45. KRS 383.140 and 383.150 are repealed.

The Committee Substitute for HB 125 is, as follows:

(1) This Act shall be liberally construed and applied to promote its underlying purposes and policies.

(2) Underlying purposes and policies of this Act are:

(a) The legislature hereby finds that a significant proportion of the rental housing in this state is substandard in structure, equipment, sanitation, and maintenance; that the condition of this housing has had and will continue to have, unless corrected, a deleterious effect on the residents of this housing; that poorly maintained and over-crowded housing contributes to the development and spread of disease, crime, infant mortality, juvenile delinquency, broken homes, and other physical, social, and psychological problems, and constitutes a menace to the health, safety, morals and welfare of the residents of this state; that these conditions have necessitated excessive and disproportionate expenditures of public funds for crime prevention and punishment, for public health and safety, and for other public services and facilities, and have impaired the efficient and economic provisions of government services by municipalities and the state. The legislature further finds that these conditions result in part from the often unequal bargaining power of landlords and tenants as well as from an ill-suited common law of landlord and tenant in which leases are interpreted as grants of the right of possession rather than mutual and dependent covenants; that this common law, which evolved in an agricultural setting, is inappropriate when applied to modern residential property; that in order to facilitate fair and equitable arrangements, to foster the development of housing which will meet the minimum standards of the present day, and to promote the health, safety, morals, and welfare of the people, it is necessary and appropriate that the state specify certain minimum rights and remedies, obligations and prohibitions, for landlords and tenants of certain kinds of residential property.

- (b) To encourage landlords and tenants to maintain and improve the quality of housing; and
- (c) To make uniform the law with respect to the subject of this Act among those states which enact it.

Section 3. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

Unless displaced by the provisions of this Act, the principles of law and equity, including the law relating to capacity to contract, mutuality of obligations, principal and agent, real property, public health, safety and fire prevention, estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, duress, coercion, mistake, bankruptcy, or other validating or invalidating cause supplement its provisions.

Section 4. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

This Act being a general act intended as a unified coverage of its subject matter, no part of it is to be construed as impliedly repealed by subsequent legislation if that construction can reasonably be avoided.

Section 5. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) The remedies provided by this Act shall be so administered that an aggrieved party may recover appropriate damages. The aggrieved party has a duty to mitigate damages.

(2) If a landlord is not a resident of this state or is a corporation not authorized to do business in this state and engages in any conduct in this state governed by this Act, or engages in a transaction subject to this Act, he may designate an agent upon whom service of process may be made in this state. The agent shall be a resident of this state or a corporation authorized to do business in this state. The designation shall be in writing and filed with the Secretary of State. If no designation is made and filed or if process cannot be served in this state upon the designated agent, process may be served upon the Secretary of State, but service upon him is not effective unless the plaintiff or petitioner forthwith mails a copy of the process and pleading by registered or certified mail to the defendant or respondent at his last reasonably ascertainable address. (b) it is reasonably related to the purpose for which it is adopted;

(c) it applies to all tenants in the premises in a fair manner;

(d) it is sufficiently explicit in its prohibition, direction, or limitation of the tenant's conduct to fairly inform him of what he must or must not do to comply;

(e) it is not for the purpose of evading the obligations of the landlord; and

(f) the tenant has notice of it at the time he enters into the rental agreement, or when it is adopted.

(2) If a rule or regulation is adopted after the tenant enters into the rental agreement that works a substantial modification of his bargain it is not valid unless the tenant consents to it in writing.

Section 24. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(2) A landlord may enter the dwelling unit without consent of the tenant in case of emergency.

(3) A landlord shall not abuse the right of access or use it to harass the tenant. Except in case of emergency or unless it is impracticable to do so, the landlord shall give the tenant at least two days' notice of his intent to enter and may enter only at reasonable times.

(4) A landlord has no other right of access except:

(a) pursuant to court order;

the rental agreement will terminate upon a date not less than thirty days after receipt of the notice if the breach is not remedied in fourteen days, and the rental agreement shall terminate as provided in the notice subject to the following:

(a) If the breach is remediable by repairs, the payment of damages or otherwise and the landlord adequately remedies the breach before the date specified in the notice, the rental agreement shall not terminate by reason of the breach.

(b) If substantially the same act or omission which constituted a prior noncompliance covered by subsection (1) of which notice was given recurs within six months, the tenant may terminate the rental agreement upon at least fourteen days written notice specifying the breach and the date of termination of the rental agreement.

Section 27. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) If the landlord fails to deliver possession of the dwelling unit to the tenant as provided in Section 19 of this Act, rent abates until possession is delivered and the tenant may:

(a) terminate the rental agreement upon at least five days' written notice to the landlord and upon termination the landlord shall return all prepaid rent and damage fee; or

(b) demand performance of the rental agreement by the landlord and, if the tenant elects, maintain an action for possession of the dwelling unit against the landlord or any person wrongfully in possession and recover the damages sustained by him.

(2) If a person's failure to deliver possession is willful and not in good faith, an aggrieved person may recover from that person an amount not more than three months' periodic rent of threefold the actual damages sustained, whichever is greater, and reasonable attorney's fees.

Section 28. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) If the landlord willfully and materially fails to comply with the rental agreement or fails to comply with Section 20 of this Act and such noncompliance materially affects health and safety and the reasonable cost of compliance is less than $100, or an amount equal to one-half of the monthly rent, whichever amount is greater, the tenant may notify the landlord of his intention to correct the condition at the landlord's expense. If the landlord willfully fails to comply within fourteen days after being notified by the tenant in writing or as promptly as conditions require in case of emergency, the tenant may cause the work to be done in a workmanlike manner and, after submitting to the landlord an itemized statement for the work actually done and for which the tenant has paid in full, deduct from his rent the actual and reasonable cost or the fair and reasonable value of the work, not exceeding the amount specified in this subsection.

(2) A tenant may not repair at the landlord's expense if the condition was caused by the deliberate or negligent act or omission of the tenant, a member of his family, or other person on the premises with his consent.

Section 29. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) If, contrary to the rental agreement of Section 20 of this Act, the landlord willfully fails to supply heat, running water, hot water, electric, gas, or other essential service, the tenant may give written notice to the landlord specifying the breach and may:

(a) procure reasonable amounts of heat, hot water, running water, electric, gas, and the essential service during the period of the landlord's noncompliance and deduct their actual and reasonable cost from the rent;

(b) recover damages based upon the diminution in the fair rental value of the dwelling unit; or

(c) procure reasonable substitute housing during the period of the landlord's noncompliance, in which case the tenant is excused from paying rent for the period of the landlord's noncompliance.

(2) In addition to a remedy provided in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) the tenant may recover reasonable attorney's fees.

(3) If the tenant proceeds under this section, he may not proceed under Section 26 or Section 28 of this Act as to that breach.

(4) Rights of the tenant under this section do not arise until he has given notice to the landlord or if the condition was caused by the deliberate or negligent act or omission of the tenant, a member of his family, or other person on the premises with his consent.

agreement of this Act. In that event the court from time to time may order the tenant to pay into court all or part of the rent accrued and thereafter accruing, and shall determine the amount due to each party. The party to whom a net amount is owed shall be paid first from the money paid into court, and the balance by the other party. If no rent remains due after application of this section, judgment shall be entered for the tenant in the action for possession. If the defense or counterclaim by the tenant is without merit and is not raised in good faith, the landlord may recover reasonable attorney's fees.

(2) In an action for rent when the tenant is not in possession, he may counterclaim as provided in subsection (1) but is not required to pay any rent into court.

Section 31. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) If the dwelling unit or premises are damaged or destroyed by fire or casualty or so injured by the elements, act of God, or other cause to an extent that enjoyment of the dwelling unit is substantially impaired, the tenant may:

(a) immediately vacate the premises and notify the landlord in writing within fourteen days thereafter of his intention to terminate the rental agreement, in which case the rental agreement terminates as of the date of vacating; or

(b) if continued occupancy is lawful, vacate any part of the dwelling unit rendered unusable by the fire or casualty, in which case the tenant's liability for rent is reduced in proportion to the diminution in the fair rental value of the dwelling unit.

(2) If the rental agreement is terminated under provision of this section the landlord shall return all the unused portion of the prepaid rent. Accounting for rent in the event of termination or apportionment shall be made as of the date of the casualty.

Section 32. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

If a landlord unlawfully removes or excludes the tenant from the premises or willfully diminishes services to the tenant by interrupting or causing the interruption of heat, running water, hot water, electric, gas, or other essential service, the tenant may recover possession or terminate the rental agreement and, in either case, recover an amount not more than three months periodic rent and a reasonable attorney's fee. If the rental agreement is terminated, the landlord shall return all prepaid rent.

Section 33. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in this Act, if there is a material noncompliance by the tenant with the rental agreement or a material noncompliance with Section 22 or 23 of this Act, the landlord may deliver a written notice to the tenant specifying the acts and omissions constituting the breach and that the rental agreement will terminate upon a date not less than fourteen days after receipt of the notice. If the breach is not remedied in fifteen days, the rental agreement shall terminate as provided in the notice subject to the following. If the breach is remediable by repairs or the payment of damages or otherwise and the tenant adequately remedies the breach before the date specified in the notice, the rental agreement shall not terminate. If substantially the same act or omission which constituted a prior noncompliance of which notice was given recurs within six months, the landlord may terminate the rental agreement upon at least fourteen days' written notice specifying the breach and the date of termination of the rental agreement.

(2) If rent is unpaid when due and the tenant fails to pay rent within seven days after written notice by the landlord of nonpayment and his intention to terminate the rental agreement if the rent is not paid within that period, the landlord may terminate the rental agreement.

(3) Except as provided in this Act, the landlord may recover damages and obtain injunctive relief for any noncompliance by the tenant with the rental agreement or Section 22 or 23 of this Act. If the tenant's noncompliance is willful the landlord may recover actual damages and reasonable attorney's fees.

Section 34. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

If there is noncompliance by the tenant with Section 22 or 23 materially affecting health and safety that can be remedied by repair, replacement of a damaged item or cleaning, and the tenant fails to comply as promptly as conditions require in case of emergency or within fourteen days after written notice by the landlord specifying the breach and requesting that the tenant remedy it within that period of time, the landlord may enter the dwelling unit and cause the work to be done in a workmanlike manner and submit the itemized bill for the actual and reasonable cost or the fair and reasonable value thereof as rent on the next date periodic rent is due, or if the rental agreement has terminated, for immediate payment.

Section 35. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) If the rental agreement requires the tenant to give notice to the landlord of an anticipated extended absence in excess of seven days as required in Section 25 of this Act and the tenant willfully fails to do so, the landlord may recover actual damages from the tenant.

(2) During any absence of the tenant in excess of seven days, the landlord may enter the dwelling unit at times reasonably necessary.

(3) If the tenant abandons the dwelling unit, the landlord shall make reasonable efforts to rent it at a fair rental. If the landlord rents the dwelling unit for a term beginning before the expiration of the rental agreement, it terminates as of the date of the new tenancy. If the landlord fails to use reasonable efforts to rent the dwelling unit at a fair rental or if the landlord accepts the abandonment as a surrender, the rental agreement is deemed to be terminated by the landlord as of the date the landlord has notice of the abandonment. If the tenancy is from month-to-month or week-to-week, the term of the rental agreement for this purpose is deemed to be a month or a week, as the case may be.

Section 36. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

Acceptance of rent with knowledge of a default by the tenant or acceptance of performance by him that varies from the terms of the rental agreement constitutes a waiver of the landlord's right to terminate the rental agreement for that breach, unless otherwise agreed after the breach has occurred.

Section 37. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) A lien or security interest on behalf of the landlord in the tenant's household goods is not enforceable unless perfected before the effective date of this Act.

(2) Distraint for rent is abolished.

Section 38. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

If the rental agreement is terminated, the landlord may have a claim for possession and for rent and a separate claim for actual damages for breach of the rental agreement and reasonable attorney's fees as provided in Section 33(3) of this Act.

Section 39. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

A landlord may not recover or take possession of the dwelling unit by action or otherwise, including willful diminution of services to the tenant by interrupting or causing the interruption of heat, electric, running water, hot water, gas, or other essential service to the tenant, except in case of abandonment, surrender, or as permitted in this Act.

Section 40. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) The landlord or the tenant may terminate a week-to-week tenancy by a written notice given to the other at least seven days before the termination date specified in the notice.

(2) The landlord or the tenant may terminate a month-to-month tenancy by a written notice given to the other at least thirty days before the periodic rental date specified in the notice.

(3) The landlord or the tenant may terminate a tenancy begun upon the termination of a written lease by written notice given to the other at least ten (10) days before the termination date specified in the notice, except that if the tenant fails to pay rent within ten days after the day it becomes due, the landlord may terminate the tenancy at any time without notice.

(4) If the tenant remains in possession without the landlord's consent after expiration of the term of the rental agreement or its termination, the landlord may bring an action for possession and if the tenant's holdover is willful and not in good faith the landlord may also recover an amount not more than three months' periodic rent or threefold the actual damages sustained by him, whichever is greater, and reasonable attorney's fees. If the landlord consents to the tenant's continued occupancy, Section 14(3) of this Act applies.

(1) If the tenant refuses to allow lawful access, the landlord may obtain injunctive relief to compel access, or terminate the rental agreement. In either case the landlord may recover actual damages and reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) If the landlord makes an unlawful entry or a lawful entry in an unreasonable manner or makes repeated demands for entry otherwise lawful but which have the effect of unreasonably harassing the tenant, the tenant may obtain injunctive relief to prevent the reoccurrence of the conduct or terminate the rental agreement. In either case the tenant may recover actual damages and reasonable attorney's fees.

Section 42. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in this section, a landlord may not retaliate by increasing rent or decreasing services or by bringing or threatening to bring an action for possession after:

(a) the tenant has complained to a governmental agency charged with responsibility for enforcement of a building or housing code of a violation applicable to the premises materially affecting health and safety;

(b) the tenant has complained to the landlord of a violation under Section 20 of this Act;

(c) the tenant has organized or become a member of a tenant's union or similar organization.

(2) If the landlord acts in violation of subsection (1) of this section, the tenant is entitled to the remedies provided in Section 32 of this Act and has a defense in any retaliatory action against him for possession. In an action by or against the tenant, evidence of a complaint within one year before the alleged act of retaliation creates a presumption that the landlord's conduct was in retaliation. The presumption does not arise if the tenant made the complaint after notice of a proposed rent increase or diminution of services. "Presumption" means that the trier of fact must find the existence of the fact presumed unless and until evidence is introduced which would support a finding of its nonexistence.

(3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2) of this section, a landlord may bring an action for possession if:

(a) the violation of the applicable building or housing code was caused primarily by lack of reasonable care by the tenant or other person in his household or upon the premises with his consent;

(b) the tenant is in default in rent; or

(c) compliance with the applicable building or housing code requires alteration, remodeling, or demolition which would effectively deprive the tenant of use of the dwelling unit.

(4) The maintenance of an action under subsection (3) of this section does not release the landlord from liability under Section 26(2) of this Act.

Section 43. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

Transactions entered into before the effective date of this Act, and not extended or renewed on and after that date, and the rights, duties, and interests flowing from them remain valid and may be terminated, completed, consummated, or enforced as required or permitted by any statute or other law amended or repealed by this Act as though the repeal or amendment had not occurred.

Section 44. A new section of KRS Chapter 383 is created to read as follows:

This Act shall become effective on September 1, 1974. It applies to rental agreements entered into or extended or renewed on and after that date.

Section 45. KRS 383.140 and 383.150 are repealed.

HB 395, AN ACT relating to commissioners of water districts.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 74.020 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A water district shall be administered by a board of commissioners which shall control and manage the affairs of the district. The term of each commissioner is four (4) years, except as provided in this section:

(a) If a district lies wholly within a single county, or operates as a single county district as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection, the board of commissioners shall consist of three (3) residents of the district, or of any incorporated or unincorporated area served by the district in the county in which the district was originally established, who shall be appointed by the county judge with the approval of the fiscal court. Initial appointments shall be for terms of two (2), three (3) and four (4) years, as designated by the court. Commissioners serving under appointments June 16, 1966 shall continue to serve until the end of their respective terms.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection, if a district formed in a single county extends its area to include territory in an adjacent county as provided by KRS 74.115, the board of commissioners shall be appointed by the county judges with the approval of the fiscal courts of the concerned counties as follows: in two (2) county districts, three (3) members from the original district and two (2) members from the extended portion of the district; for extensions into three (3) or more counties, the respective county judges with the approval of the fiscal courts, shall appoint, in addition to the existing membership of the commission, two (2) members from the original one-county district and two (2) members from the newly extended portion of the district. Orders establishing the extension shall provide for the staggering of initial terms in an equitable manner.

(c) If a single county district administered as provided in paragraph (a) hereof shall acquire an existing water or gas distribution system serving an area which extends beyond the boundaries of the district into another county, it may operate the distribution system so acquired, provided the area served outside the county shall be deemed to be a minor portion of the total area served by the district, and provided the fiscal court of the county containing such minor portion of the total area shall have agreed to the acquisition of the distribution system. If less than twenty-five per cent (25%) of the total assets of the distribution system are located within the county outside of the boundaries of the district, it will be conclusively presumed that said district comes within the terms of this subsection.

(2) Vacancies shall be filled by the same appointing authority which is empowered to make the original appointment. Vacancies resulting from cause other than expiration of the term shall be filled for the unexpired term only.

(3) The commission shall elect a chairman, secretary and treasurer. Each commissioner shall execute a bond, approved by the county court, conditioned on the faithful performance of the duties of his position.

(4) Each commissioner shall receive an annual salary of not more than thirty-six hundred dollars ($3600), which shall be paid out of the water district fund. In the case of single-county districts, which shall be deemed to include districts described in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section, the salary shall be fixed by the county judge with the approval of the fiscal court; in multi-county districts it shall be fixed by the agreement between the county judges with the approval of their fiscal courts. In fixing and approving the salary of the commissioners, the county judge and the fiscal court shall take into consideration the financial condition of the district and its ability to meet its obligations as they mature.

Section 4. KRS 83.350 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The commission shall annually submit to the local governing body or bodies which established it a request for funds for the operation of the commission for the ensuing year. The local governing body or bodies shall include the commission in the annual budget and shall provide funds for the operation of the commission by imposing a transient room tax, not to exceed three per cent (3%) of the rent for every occupancy of a suite, room or rooms, charged by all persons, companies, corporations or other like or similar persons, groups or organizations doing business as motor courts, motels, hotels, inns or like or similar accommodations businesses. Provision shall be made for the collection of the tax and the enforcement of the tax measure enacted.

(2) A portion of the money collected from the imposition of this tax, as determined by the tax levying body, may be used to finance the cost of acquisition, construction, operation and maintenance of facilities useful in the attraction and promotion of tourist and convention business and shall include athletic stadiums. The payment of the bonds, together with the interest thereon, may be secured by a pledge of and a first lien on all of the receipts and revenue derived, or to be derived, from the rental or operation of the property involved. No bond issued under the authority of this section, and no obligation to pay interest thereon, shall constitute an indebtedness of the county or city. All bonds sold under the authority of this section shall be subject to competitive bidding as provided by law, and shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed that established for bonds issued for public projects under KRS chapter 58.

(5) A commission established pursuant to subsection (3) of Section 1 of this act is authorized and empowered to issue revenue bonds in its own name, payable solely from its income and revenue, in accordance with procedures established in KRS Chapter 58 for revenue bonds for public projects, as defined in said chapter. The payment of the bonds, together with the interest thereon, may be secured by a pledge of and a first lien on all of the receipts and revenue derived, or to be derived, from the rental or operation of the property involved. No bond issued under the authority of this section, and no obligation to pay interest thereon, shall constitute an indebtedness of the county. All bonds sold under the authority of this section shall be subject to competitive bidding as provided by law, and shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed that established for bonds issued for public projects under KRS Chapter 58.

WHEREAS, the Legislature finds and declares that public agencies in this Commonwealth exist to aid in the conduct of the public's business; and

WHEREAS, the people of this Commonwealth do not yield their sovereignty to the agencies which serve them; the people, in delegating authority, do not give their public servants the right to decide what is good for the public to know and what is not good for them to know; the people insist on remaining informed so they may retain control over the instruments they have created;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. A new section of KRS Chapter 61 is created to read as follows:

As used in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Meeting" means all gatherings of every kind, regardless of where the meeting is held, and whether formal or informal, regular or special;

(2) "Public agency" means any state legislative, executive, administrative or advisory board, commission, committee, department, education institution or other state agency which is created by or pursuant to statute or executive order, other than the courts; any county, city, school district, special purpose district boards, bureaus, public commissions, councils, divisions, offices or other municipal corporation or political subdivision of the state; any committee, ad hoc committee, subcommittee, subagency or advisory body of a public agency which is created by or pursuant to statute, executive order, local ordinance or resolution or other legislative act, including but not limited to planning commissions, library or park boards and other boards, commissions and agencies;

All meetings of a quorum of the members of any public agency at which any public business is discussed or at which any action is taken by such agency, are declared to be public meetings, open to the public at all times, except for the following:

(1) Deliberations for decisions of the Kentucky Parole Board which involve individual prisoners.

(2) Deliberations on the future acquisition of real property by the government, but only when publicity would be likely to affect the value of a specific piece of property to be acquired for public use.

(3) Discussions of proposed or pending litigation against or on behalf of the governmental unit, but only when the public agency's legal counsel is present.

(4) Grand and petit jury sessions.

(5) Collective bargaining negotiations.

(6) Discussions of the appointment, discipline or dismissal of an individual employee of government, or student, without restricting that employee's or student's right to a public hearing if requested, provided that this exception is designed to protect the reputation of individual persons and shall not be interpreted to permit discussion of general personnel matters in secret.

(7) Meetings which federal or state law specifically require to be conducted in privacy.

(8) Meetings which the Constitution provides shall be held in secret.

Section 3. A new section of KRS Chapter 61 is created to read as follows:

Prior to the convening of any closed session authorized by Section 2 of this Act except those involving grand and petit jury sessions, public notice shall be given of the general nature of the business to be discussed in closed session and the reason for the closed session. Closed sessions only may be held after a motion is made and carried by a majority, roll-call vote in open, public session. No final action may be taken at a closed session. Said notice of a special meeting must be delivered personally or by mail at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the time of such meeting as specified in the notice. If time does not permit giving twenty-four (24) hour notice, then notice that is reasonable under existing circumstances and is calculated to inform the public shall be given to the news media and the public.

(2) The notice provided for in subsection (1) of this section is not required in the event that a special meeting is called to deal with an emergency involving injury or damage to personal property or the likelihood of such injury or damage, when the time requirements of such notice of such special meeting would make such notice impractical and increase the likelihood of injury or damage.

(3) With the exception of special meetings called pursuant to subsection (2) of this section no special meeting shall be held except in full compliance with provisions of subsection (1) of this section.

Section 6. A new section of KRS Chapter 61 is created to read as follows:

All agencies shall permit news media coverage, including but not limited to recording and broadcasting.

Section 9. A new section of KRS Chapter 61 is created to read as follows:

The circuit courts of this state shall have jurisdiction to enforce the purposes of these sections, 2 through 8 of this Act, by injunction or other appropriate order upon application by any citizen of this state.

Section 10. A new section of KRS Chapter 61 is created to read as follows:

Any person who attends a meeting of any public agency covered by this Act of which he is a member, not held in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be punished by a fine of not more than $100, or by imprisonment in jail for not more than 30 days, or both.

Section 11. A new section of KRS Chapter 61 is created to read as follows:

This Act shall not be construed as repealing any of the laws of the Commonwealth relating to meetings but shall be held and construed as ancillary and supplemental thereto.

(4) Each state agency shall consult with the commissioner in prescribing standards or regulations respecting noise. If at any time the commissioner has reason to believe that a standard or regulation, or any proposed standard or regulation, of any agency respecting noise does not protect the public health and welfare to the extent he believes to be required and feasible, he may request such agency to review and report to him on the advisability of revising such standard or regulation to provide such protection. Such agency shall complete the requested review and report to the commissioner within such time as the commissioner specifies, but such time specified may not be less than sixty days from the date the request was made.

Section 5. A new section of KRS Chapter 224 is created to read as follows:

In determining the degree of noise reduction achievable through the application of the best available technology, the commissioner shall take into consideration technology which may be available at the time the regulation becomes effective.

(b) The department may adopt rules and regulations to carry out this Act.

Section 6. A new section of KRS Chapter 224 is created to read as follows:

In order to implement the purposes of this Act, the commissioner may:

(12) Investigate complaints, institute and conduct surveys and testing programs, conduct general ambient noise sampling programs, make observations of conditions which may or do cause or affect noise pollution, make tests or other determinations of noise sources, and assess the degree of abatement required.

Section 7. A new section of KRS Chapter 224 is created to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner shall certify any product:

(a) Which has been certified by the Administrator of the United States Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to section 15 of the Noise Control Act of 1972 as a low-noise-emission product or which the commissioner determines emits noise in amounts significantly below the levels specified in noise emission standards issued pursuant to federal law or this Act, and

(b) Which he determines is suitable for use as a substitute for a type of product at that time in use by agencies of the state government.

(2) Certification under this section shall be effective for a period of one year from the date of issuance.

(3) Products certified pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be acquired by purchase or lease by the state government for use by the state government in lieu of other products if the Director of Purchases determines that such certified products have procurement costs which are no more than 125 percentum of the retail price of the least expensive type of product for which they are certified substitutes. In making purchasing selections between competing eligible certified products, the procuring agency shall give priority to any class or model which does not require extensive periodic maintenance to retain its low noise qualities or which does not involve operating costs significantly in excess of those products for which it is a certified substitute. The term "retail price" means the maximum statutory price applicable to any type of product; or in any case where there is no applicable maximum statutory price, the most recent procurement price paid for any type of product.

If at any time he finds that the noise emission levels exceed the levels on which certification was based, the commissioner shall give the supplier of such product written notice of this finding and give the supplier an opportunity to make necessary repairs, adjustments or replacements. If no such repairs, adjustments, or replacements are made within a period to be set by the commissioner, he may order the supplier to show cause why the product involved should be eligible for recertification.

(5) The commissioner shall promulgate the procedures required to implement this section.

Section 8. A new section of KRS Chapter 224 is created to read as follows:

The commissioner may grant individual variances beyond the limitations prescribed in this Act or in any regulation promulgated pursuant to this Act, whenever it is found, upon presentation by the petitioner of adequate proof, that compliance with any provision of this Act, any regulation promulgated under it or an order of the commissioner would impose an arbitrary or unreasonable hardship. In granting or denying a variance, the commissioner shall file and publish a written opinion stating the facts and reasons leading to his decision.

Section 9. A new section of KRS Chapter 224 is created to read as follows:

(1) In granting a variance the commissioner may impose such conditions as the policy of this Act requires. If the hardship complained of consists solely of the need for a reasonable delay in which to correct a violation of this Act or of the regulations promulgated under it, the commissioner may condition the grant of such variance upon the posting of sufficient performance bond or other security to assure the correction of such violation within the time prescribed.

(2) Any variance granted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be granted for such period of time, not exceeding one year, as shall be specified by the commissioner at the time of the grant of such variance, and upon the condition that the person who receives such variance shall make such periodic progress reports as the commissioner shall specify. The department shall promptly investigate such petition and shall consider the views of persons who might be adversely affected by the grant of a variance. If the commissioner, in his discretion, concludes that a hearing would be advisable, or if any person files a written objection to the grant of such variance within 30 days of the notice provided herein, a hearing shall be held as provided in KRS 224.083. Appeals may be taken from all orders of the department as provided in KRS 224.085.

Amendments thereto may be made in the same manner, or on the initiative of the board. The rules shall provide:

- (1) For the preparation, maintenance and revision of a position classification plan for all positions in the classified service, based upon similarity of duties performed and responsibilities assumed, so that the same qualifications may reasonably be required for and the same schedule of pay may be equitably applied to all positions in the same class. The commissioner shall be free to use any investigation of education and experience and any test of capacity, knowledge, manual skill, character, personal traits, or physical fitness which in his judgment serves the need to discover the relative fitness of applicants;

(4) For the granting of appropriate preference in original entrance examinations to qualified persons who have been members of the armed forces of the United States in time of war, and who were honorably discharged. Such preference shall be in the form of points added to the final passing grades of such persons on original entrance examinations, Provided That they otherwise qualify and are entitled to appear on the list of those eligible for appointment. (9) For a period of probation not to exceed one (1) year before appointment or promotion may be made complete, and during which period a probationer may be discharged or reduced in class or rank, or replaced on the eligible list. The appointing authority shall, within thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of an employee's probationary period, notify the commissioner in writing whether the probationary employee is recommended for permanent status. Only if the appointing authority certifies to the satisfactory nature of the probationary employee's services, shall permanent status be conferred;

(10) For emergency employment for not more than thirty (30) days with or without examination, with the consent of the commissioner;

(11) For provisional employment without competitive examination when there is no appropriate eligible list available. No such provisional employment shall continue longer than six (6) months, nor shall successive provisional appointment be allowed, except during the first year after July 1, 1960 in order to avoid stoppage of orderly conduct of the business of the commonwealth;

(17) For discharge or reduction in rank or grade only for cause, after the person to be discharged or reduced has been presented with the reasons for such discharge or reduction stated in writing, and has been allowed a reasonable time to reply thereto in writing, or, upon request, to appear personally with counsel and reply to the head of the department or his deputy. The statement of reasons and the reply shall be filed as a public record with the commissioner;

No such officer or employee shall be reimbursed by the commonwealth at any time for any sum paid to such person on account of such services.

At the recanvass, each political party represented on the board may appoint a representative there to be its governing body, and also each candidate to be voted for may be present either in person or by a representative or both.

The board may file an answer, or such other pleadings as it considers appropriate, and the court shall, after considering the transcript of the record and the board's order and any arguments of counsel, enter judgment. No new or additional evidence shall be introduced in the circuit court. In the event the action of the board is not sustained the court shall, upon request of the board, remand the case to the board for further proceedings. Any party aggrieved by the final judgment, order or decree rendered in the case may appeal therefrom to the Court of Appeals of Kentucky in the time, method and manner provided in the Declaratory Judgment Act and the Court of Appeals shall docket and advance the appeal as provided in said Act.

(5) Any notice, that is required to be given to a licensee by the board, or by its secretary or hearing officer, which is given by forwarding same by registered United States mail, postage prepaid, to the licensee at his last known address as it appears in the files of the board shall be sufficient.

HB 96, AN ACT providing for the Kentucky Trails System.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. A new section of KRS Chapter 148 is created to read as follows:

This Act may be cited as the "Kentucky Trails System Act."

Section 2. A new section of KRS Chapter 148 is created to read as follows:

(1) In order to provide for the ever-increasing outdoor recreation needs of an expanding population and in order to promote public access to, travel within, and enjoyment and appreciation of the outdoor, natural and remote areas of the state, trails should be established in natural, scenic areas of the state, and in and near urban areas.

(2) The purpose of this Act is to provide the means for attaining these objectives by instituting a state system of scenic and recreation trails and by prescribing the methods and standards by which trails may be added to the system.

Section 3. A new section of KRS Chapter 148 is created to read as follows:

Except as otherwise required by the context, the following terms when used in this Act shall be construed respectively to mean:

(1) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of the Department of Parks.

(2) "Department" means the Department of Parks.

(3) "System" means the "Kentucky Trails System" as established in this Act and including all trails and trail segments, together with their rights-of-way.

(4) "Scenic easement" means a perpetual easement in land which is held for the benefit of the people of Kentucky, is specifically enforceable by its holder or beneficiary, and limits or obligates the holder of the servient estate, his heirs, and assigns with respect to their use and management of land and activities conducted thereon, the object of such limitations and obligations being the maintenance or enhancement of the natural beauty of the land in question or of areas affected by it.

(5) "Political subdivision" means any county, incorporated city, or other political subdivision of the state.

Section 4. A new section of KRS Chapter 148 is created to read as follows:

The state system of trails shall be composed of:

(1) State scenic trails, which will be extended trails so located as to provide maximum potential for the appreciation of natural areas and for the conservation and enjoyment of the significant scenic, historic, natural, ecological, geological, and cultural qualities of the areas through which such trails pass. Each of these trails will be limited exclusively to foot use, except that the use of horses or non-motorized bicycles may also be permitted on segments of scenic trails where deemed appropriate by the department. Because of their extended length, the state scenic trails shall be supplemented by support facilities but only on that part of a trail which is in a state park, recreation area, or wildlife management area. Such support facilities may include, where deemed necessary and feasible, primitive shelters, fireplaces, safe water supply, and other related public-use facilities. These facilities shall comply with the state's health standards. No open wood fires shall be permitted on state scenic trails except in areas with support facilities specifically designated for such purpose.

(2) State recreation trails, which will provide a variety of outdoor recreation uses in or reasonably accessible to urban areas. These trails may be of the following types: foot, horse, or non-motorized bicycles.

(3) Connecting or side trails, which will provide additional points of public access to state recreation trails, state scenic trails, or which will provide connections between such trails. They shall be of the nature of the trails they serve.

Section 5. A new section of KRS Chapter 148 is created to read as follows:

Criteria for establishing the different classes of trails named in Section 4 shall be as follows:

(1) State scenic trails shall traverse mostly scenic and natural areas and shall be of sufficient length that they cannot be travelled in one day or less. Scenic trails shall be narrow paths causing the minimum disturbance to the natural environment and shall be restricted to foot travel with all other modes of locomotion prohibited, except as set forth in subsection 4(1) and Section 13.

(2) Horse and bicycle trails shall have a surface and overhead clearance appropriate for their designated mode of locomotion. Motorized vehicles of any kind shall be barred from foot, horse, and bicycle trails, except as set forth in Section 13.

Section 6. A new section of KRS Chapter 148 is created to read as follows:

The following trails shall be included as the initial component of the Kentucky Trails System, as state scenic trails:

(1) Daniel Boone Trail - from Cumberland Gap through Bell, Knox, Laurel, Rockcastle, and Madison Counties to Boonesboro;

(2) Warriors Path Trail - branching off of the Daniel Boone Trail at or near Flat Lick in Knox County and continuing northward through Clay, Jackson, Estill, and Powell Counties to Indian Fields in Clark County; and

(3) Long Trail - from the state line in McCreary County in the vicinity of Tennessee's Pickett State Park northeastward through Whitley, Laurel, Jackson, Lee, Powell, Menifee, and Rowan Counties to a point in Daniel Boone National Forest north of Morehead.

Section 7. A new section of KRS Chapter 148 is created to read as follows:

(1) State scenic trails shall be authorized and designated only by an act of the General Assembly.
 (2) The department may establish and designate state recreation trails on lands administered by the department and on lands under the jurisdiction of a state department, political subdivision, or private lands providing:

(a) Such trails are reasonably accessible to urban areas;
 (b) Such trails meet the criteria established in this Act and supplementary criteria as may be prescribed by the department; and
 (c) Fee simple, scenic easements, or other rights are obtained from private landowners through which a state recreation trail may pass. The department may establish and designate state recreation trails on lands under the jurisdiction of a federal agency, when in the opinion of the federal agency and the commissioner such lands may be so developed under the provisions of federal law and the provisions of subsections (a) and (b) of this Section.

(3) As provided in this Section, trails within park, forest, recreation areas, state natural areas, or any other public area may be established and designated state recreation trails by the department.

(4) Connecting or side trails within park, forest, recreation areas, or natural areas may be established, designated, and marked as components of a state recreation or state scenic trail.

Section 8. A new section of KRS Chapter 148 is created to read as follows:

The commissioner shall study and from time to time submit to the Governor and to the General Assembly proposals for additions to the state scenic trails system, as well as reports on state recreation trails that have been designated by the department, regarding rights-of-way that have been established and on the program for implementing this Act. Each proposal shall include a short statement on the significance of the various trails to the system.

Section 9. A new section of KRS Chapter 148 is created to read as follows:

The process of locating routes of trails in the system shall be as follows:

(1) For state scenic trails, the department shall select a route. The selected route shall be compatible with the preservation and enhancement of the environment it traverses. Reasonable effort shall be made to minimize any adverse effects upon adjacent landowners and users. Notice of the selected route shall be published by the department in a newspaper of general circulation in the area in which the trail is located, together with appropriate maps and descriptions. Such publication shall be prior to the recommendation by the department to the General Assembly.

(2) For state recreation trails and for connecting or side trails, the department shall select the route; provided, however, that when a route shall traverse land within the jurisdiction of a governmental unit or political subdivision, the department shall consult with such unit or such subdivision prior to its final determination for the location of the route.

(3) In selecting routes and implementing this Act, the department is encouraged to confer with the recognized and established organizations primarily interested in trail development, conservation, and outdoor recreation. Furthermore, the General Assembly encourages citizen participation in trail acquisition, construction, development, and maintenance where such activities will not conflict with the purpose of this Act.

(4) In the selection of the route for any trail, when the trail reaches an area of crop or fenced pasture land, the trail shall be so located as not to interfere in the growing of crops, or with the livestock, or pasture land and such trail may then follow existing farm roads. The owner of such farm lands may enter a written agreement with the department to grant permission for the crossing of such crop or pasture land.

Section 10. A new section of KRS Chapter 148 is created to read as follows:

All state agencies shall inform the commissioner of any proceedings, studies, or other activities which may affect any component of the system.

Section 11. A new section of KRS Chapter 148 is created to read as follows:

(1) The department shall review all formal declarations of railroad right-of-way abandonments by the Interstate Commerce Commission for possible inclusion in the state trails system. The commissioner shall, within 3 years after the route of a trail or trail segment included in the system has been located, determine the boundaries of the right-of-way to be associated with that trail. Such boundaries shall be established in such a manner that they protect the scenic value of the trail.

(2) The commissioner is authorized to develop effective procedures to assure that, wherever practicable, utility rights-of-way or similar properties having value for trail purposes may be made available for such use. Other departments of state government having jurisdiction, control over, or information concerning the use, abandonment, or disposition of rights-of-way and similar properties that may be suitable for trail purposes shall cooperate with the commissioner in the transfer of these rights for trail use.

(3) The fiscal court of any county shall notify the commissioner at least 3 months in advance of the date on which a county road is to be declared discontinued in accordance with KRS 178.070. The commissioner shall consider the suitability of the road or segments of the road for inclusion in the state system of trails, and, if it is found to be suitable, he is empowered to reserve a right-of-way for scenic trail or recreational trail use.

Section 12. A new section of KRS Chapter 148 is created to read as follows:

Within the exterior boundaries of the right-of-way, the commissioner may acquire, on behalf of the state, lands in fee title, or interest in land in the form of scenic easements, or cooperative agreements. Acquisition of land or of interest therein may be by gift, purchase with donated funds, funds appropriated by the General Assembly, proceeds from the sale of bonds, exchange, assumption of property tax payments, or otherwise. Acquisition of land or interest therein shall be accomplished with all possible speed. In acquiring real property or the property interest therein, as defined in this Section, the power of eminent domain shall not be utilized to acquire a fee simple or lesser interests to more than 25 acres in any 1 mile of trail length. Such power shall not be used to acquire crop or fenced pasture land when such acquisition will interfere with the growing of crops, or with the livestock, or pasture land on the remaining property of the farm owner.

Section 13. A new section of KRS Chapter 148 is created to read as follows:

Within the exterior boundaries of the right-of-way, the natural vegetation shall be kept undisturbed except for any clearing required for construction of the trail, occasional vistas, or trail-use facilities described in Section 16. The department shall make every effort to avoid any use of the right-of-way that is incompatible with the purposes for which the trails were established. Development and management of each segment of the state trails system shall be designed to harmonize with and complement any established multiple-use plans for that specific area in order to insure continual maximum benefits from the land. Other uses along the trail which will not substantially interfere with the nature and purposes of the trail may be permitted by the department; provided, however, no hunting of wild game shall be permitted on or along any section of the system except as authorized by the department; and provided, further, that the owner of real property adjacent to any part of the system may hunt with or without the department's authorization on that portion of the system which is adjacent to his property.

Section 14. A new section of KRS Chapter 148 is created to read as follows:

The use of motorized vehicles by the general public within the right-of-way of any state scenic or recreation trail shall be prohibited and nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorizing the use of motorized vehicles in these rights-of-way; provided, that the department shall establish regulations which shall authorize the use of motorized vehicles when such vehicles are required to meet emergencies where life or health is at risk, or to enable present or adjacent landowners or land users to have access to their lands or timber rights where no reasonable alternative method of access exists or could be constructed. Prosecution for violation of this section may be initiated by a peace officer who witnessed an offense in violation of this Section or by any private citizen who witnessed any violation of this Section who is willing to make the initial charge and testify for the state.

Section 15. A new section of KRS Chapter 148 is created to read as follows:

Any component of the system that is a part of any state park, recreation area, wildlife management area, or similar area shall be subject to the provisions of this Act and the Acts under which the other areas are administered, and in the case of conflict between the provisions of these Acts the more restrictive provisions shall apply.

Section 16. A new section of KRS Chapter 148 is created to read as follows:

The department, in consultation with appropriate governmental agencies, and public and private organizations, shall establish a uniform marker for trails contained in the system. An additional appropriate symbol characterizing specific trails may be included on the marker. The markers shall be placed at all access points, together with signs indicating the modes of locomotion that are prohibited for the trail; provided, that where the trail constitutes a portion of a national scenic trail, use of the national scenic trail uniform marker shall be considered sufficient. The route of the trail and the boundaries of the right-of-way shall be marked with paint or other simple means.

Section 17. A new section of KRS Chapter 148 is created to read as follows:

The Kentucky Trails System shall be administered by the department according to the policies and criteria set forth in this Act. The department shall have the responsibility for maintaining the trails and building bridges, campsites, shelters, and related public-use facilities where required.

HB 314, AN ACT relating to establishment of a system of insurance and compensation irrespective of fault for victims of motor vehicle accidents, setting forth the basis for recovery and the elements thereof, and establishing an assigned claims plan to protect injured victims against uninsured losses.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

The declaration of legislative policy of this act is as follows:

The toll of about 20,000,000 motor vehicle accidents nationally and comparable experience in Kentucky upon the interests of victims, the public, policy-holders and others require that improvements in the reparations provided for herein be adopted to effect the following purposes:

(1) To require owners, registrants and operators of motor vehicles in the Commonwealth to procure insurance covering basic reparation benefits and legal liability arising out of ownership, operation or use of such motor vehicles;

(2) To provide prompt payment to victims of motor vehicle accidents without regard to whose negligence caused the accident in order to eliminate the inequities which fault-determination has created;

(3) To encourage prompt medical treatment and rehabilitation of the motor vehicle accident victim by providing for prompt payment of needed medical care and rehabilitation;

(4) To permit more liberal wage loss and medical benefits by allowing claims for intangible loss only when their determination is reasonable and appropriate;

(5) To reduce the need to resort to bargaining and litigation through a system which can pay victims of motor vehicle accidents without the delay, expense, aggravation, inconvenience, inequities and uncertainties of the liability system;

(6) To help guarantee the continued availability of motor vehicle insurance at reasonable prices by a more efficient, economical and equitable system of motor vehicle accident reparations;

(7) To create an insurance system which can more adequately be regulated; and

(8) To correct the inadequacies of the present reparation system, recognizing that it was devised and our present Constitution adopted prior to the development of the internal combustion motor vehicle.

Section 2. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

As used in this act:

(1) "Added reparation benefits" mean benefits provided by optional added reparation insurance.

(2) "Basic reparation benefits" mean benefits providing reimbursement for net loss suffered through injury arising out of the operation, maintenance or use of a motor vehicle, subject, where applicable, to the limits, deductibles, exclusions, disqualifications and other conditions provided in this act. The maximum amount of basic reparation benefits payable for all economic loss resulting from injury and injury to person to any one person as the result of one accident shall be $10,000, regardless of the number of persons entitled to such benefits or the number of providers of security obligated to pay such benefits. Basic reparation benefits consist of one or more of the elements defined as "loss."

(3) "Basic reparation insured" means:

(a) A person identified by name as an insured in a contract of basic reparation insurance complying with this act; and

The term includes a total charge not in excess of $1,000 per person for expenses in any way related to funeral, cremation, and burial. It does not include that portion of a charge for a room in a hospital, clinic, convalescent or nursing home, or any other institution engaged in providing nursing care and related services, in excess of a reasonable and customary charge for semi-private accommodations, unless intensive care is medically required. Medical expense shall include all healing arts professions licensed by the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

(b) "Work loss" means loss of income from work the injured person would have performed if he had not been injured, and expenses reasonably incurred by him in obtaining services in lieu of those he would have performed for income, reduced by any income from substitute work actually performed by him or by income he would have earned in available appropriate substitute work he was capable of performing but unreasonably failed to undertake.

(c) "Replacement services loss" means expenses reasonably incurred in obtaining ordinary and necessary services in lieu of those the injured person would have performed, not for income but for the benefit of himself or his family, if he had not been injured.

(d) "Survivor's economic loss" means loss after decedent's death of contributions of things of economic value to his survivors, not including services they would have received from the decedent if he had not suffered the fatal injury, less expenses of the survivors avoided by reason of decedent's death.

(e) "Survivor's replacement services loss" means expenses reasonably incurred by survivors after decedent's death in obtaining ordinary and necessary services in lieu of those the decedent would have performed for their benefit if he had not suffered the fatal injury, less expenses of the survivors avoided by reason of the decedent's death and not subtracted in calculating survivor's economic loss.

(6) "Use of a motor vehicle" means any utilization of the motor vehicle as a vehicle including occupying, entering into and alighting from it. It does not include (i) conduct within the course of a business of repairing, servicing, or otherwise maintaining motor vehicles unless the conduct occurs off the business premises, or (ii) conduct in the course of loading and unloading the vehicle unless the conduct occurs while occupying, entering into, or alighting from it.

(7) "Motor vehicle" means:

(8) "Public roadway" means a way open to the use of the public for purposes of motor vehicle travel.

(9) "Net loss" means loss less benefits or advantages, from sources other than basic and added reparation insurance, required to be subtracted from loss in calculating net loss.

(10) "Noneconomic detriment" means pain, suffering, inconvenience, physical impairment, and other nonpecuniary damages recoverable under the tort law of this Commonwealth. The term does not include punitive or exemplary damages.

(11) "Owner" means a person, other than a lienholder or secured party, who owns or has title to a motor vehicle or is entitled to the use and possession of a motor vehicle subject to a security interest held by another person. The term does not include a lessee under a lease not intended as security.

(12) "Reparation obligor" means an insurer, self-insurer, or obligated government providing basic or added reparation benefits under this act.

(13) "Survivor" means a person identified in KRS 411.130 as one entitled to receive benefits by reason of the death of another person.

(14) A "User" means a person who is a basic reparation insured or would be a basic reparation insured if such person had not rejected the limitations upon his tort rights as provided in Section 6 (4).

(15) "Maintaining a motor vehicle" means having legal custody, possession or responsibility for a motor vehicle by one other than an owner or operator.

Section 3. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) If the accident causing injury occurs in this Commonwealth every person suffering loss from injury arising out of maintenance or use of a motor vehicle has a right to basic reparation benefits, unless he has rejected the limitation upon his tort rights as provided in Section 6 (4).

(2) If the accident causing injury occurs outside this Commonwealth but within the United States, its territories and possessions, or Canada, the following persons and their survivors suffering loss from injury arising out of maintenance or use of a motor vehicle have a right to basic reparation benefits:

(a) Basic reparation insureds; and

(b) The driver and other occupants of a secured vehicle who have not rejected the limitation upon their tort rights, other than (i) a vehicle which is regularly used in the course of the business of transporting persons or property and which is one of five or more vehicles under common ownership, or (ii) a vehicle owned by an obligated government other than this Commonwealth, its political subdivisions, municipal corporations, or public agencies.

Section 4. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) Basic reparation benefits shall be paid without regard to fault.

(2) Basic reparation obligors and the assigned claims plan shall pay basic reparation benefits, under the terms and conditions stated in this act, for loss from injury arising out of maintenance or use of a motor vehicle. This obligation exists without regard to immunity from liability or suit which might otherwise be applicable.

Section 5. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) The basic reparation insurance applicable to bodily injury to which this act applies is the security covering the vehicle occupied by the injured person at the time of the accident or, if the injured person is a pedestrian, the security covering the vehicle which struck such pedestrian. If the reparation obligor providing such insurance fails to make payment for loss within thirty days after receipt of reasonable proof of the fact and the amount of loss sustained, the injured person shall be entitled to payment under any contract of basic reparation insurance under which he is a basic reparation insured and the insurer making such payments shall be entitled to full reimbursement from the reparation obligor providing the security covering the vehicle.

(2) If there is no security covering the vehicle, any contract of basic reparation insurance under which the injured person is a basic reparation insured shall apply.

(3) No person shall recover basic reparation benefits from more than one reparation obligor as a result of the same accident.

Section 6. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) Any person who registers, operates, maintains or uses a motor vehicle on the public roadways of this Commonwealth shall, as a condition of such registration, operation, maintenance or use of such motor vehicle and use of the public roadways, be deemed to have accepted the provisions of this act, and in particular those provisions which are contained in this section.

(2) Tort liability with respect to accidents occurring in this Commonwealth and arising from the ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle is abolished except as to:

(a) Liability of the owner of a motor vehicle involved in an accident if security covering the vehicle was not provided at the time of the accident;

(b) Liability of a person in the business of manufacturing, repairing, servicing, or otherwise maintaining motor vehicles arising from a defect in a motor vehicle caused or not corrected by an act or omission in the manufacturing, repairing, servicing, or otherwise maintaining of a vehicle in the course of his business;

(c) Liability of a person for intentionally caused injury to a person;

(d) Liability of a person for damage to property;

(e) Damages for any work loss, replacement services loss, survivor's economic loss, and survivor's replacement services loss, not recoverable as basic reparation benefits by reason of the monetary limitations contained in this act;

(f) Damages for noneconomic detriment if the accident causes death, significant permanent injury, serious permanent disfigurement, or more than three months of complete inability of the injured person to work in an occupation, or if the injured person incurs medical expenses having a reasonable value in excess of $1,250. "Complete inability of an injured person to work in a occupation" means inability to perform, on even a part-time basis, even some of the duties required by his occupation or, if unemployed at the time of injury, by any occupation for which the injured person was qualified. "Reasonable value" means the average cost of specific types of services included under medical expenses, as defined in this act, in the Commonwealth of Kentucky as determined from statistical data compiled by the commissioner of insurance and published not less than once each year; and

(g) Injury to a person who is not an owner, operator, maintainer or user of a motor vehicle within subsection (1) of this section. However, any person who presents a claim for and receives payments from any basic reparation obligor shall be deemed to have elected to limit his tort rights as provided for all other persons by this section.

(3) For purposes of this section and the provisions on reparation obligor's rights of reimbursement, subrogation, and indemnity, a person does not intentionally cause harm merely because his act or failure to act is intentional or done with his realization that it creates a grave risk of harm.

(4) Any person may refuse to consent to the limitations of his tort rights and liabilities as contained in this section. Such rejection must be in writing in a form to be prescribed by the department of transportation and must have been executed at a time prior to any motor vehicle accident for which such rejection is to apply. Rejection by a person who is under legal disability shall be made on behalf of such person by his legal guardian or his natural parent. The failure of such guardian or a natural parent of a person under legal disability to file a rejection, within six months from the date that this act would otherwise become applicable to such person, shall be deemed to be an affirmative acceptance of all provisions of this act.

(5) Any rejection must be filed with the department of transportation and shall be for a period of five years from the date of its execution unless revoked in writing. A copy of such rejection or revocation must be filed with each insurance company providing an automobile policy under which the individual is a named insured as defined in the policy at least thirty days prior to the effective date of the rejection or revocation.

(6) Every insurance company when issuing an automobile policy to a resident of this Commonwealth must inform the buyer in writing in a form to be prescribed by the insurance commissioner of his right to reject the limitations of his tort rights and liabilities under this act.

(7) Any rejection shall result in the full retention by the individual of his tort rights and his tort liabilities. Any person injured by a motor vehicle operator who has such rejection on file may collect his full damages, including nonpecuniary damages, or, if such injured person has not rejected his own tort limitations, he may also collect basic reparation benefits from the appropriate security on the vehicle as established under Section 5. If such provider of security is other than the one providing security for the operator who has rejected the limitations, such provider shall be subrogated to the rights of the injured person to the extent of reparation benefits paid against the owner and operator or the vehicle.

(8) No person who has rejected the tort limitations under this section, except as provided in subsection (9), may collect basic reparation benefits.

(9) Any owner or operator of a motorcycle, as defined in Kentucky Revised Statutes, may file a rejection as described in subsections (4) and (5), which will apply solely to the ownership and operation of a motorcycle but will not apply to injury resulting from the ownership, operation or use of any other type of motor vehicle.

Section 7. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) "Secured person" means the owner, operator or occupant of a secured motor vehicle, and any other person or organization legally responsible for the acts or omissions of such owner, operator or occupant.

(2) A reparation obligor which has paid or may become obligated to pay basic reparation benefits shall be subrogated to the extent of its obligations to all of the rights of the person suffering the injury against any person or organization other than a secured person.

(3) A reparation obligor shall have the right to recover basic reparation benefits paid to or for the benefit of a person suffering the injury from the reparation obligor of a secured person as provided in this subsection. The reparation obligor shall elect to assert its claim (i) by joining as a party in an action that may be commenced by the person suffering the injury, or (ii) to reimbursement, pursuant to Section 30, sixty days after said claim has been presented to the reparation obligor of secured persons. The right to recover basic reparation benefits paid under (ii) shall be limited to those instances established as applicable by the Kentucky Insurance Arbitration Association as provided in Section 30.

(4) A release by the injured party does not release the rights of the reparation obligor under this section.

Section 8. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) "Security covering the vehicle" is the insurance or other security so provided. The vehicle for which the security is so provided is the "secured vehicle."

(2) "Basic reparation insurance" includes a contract, self-insurance, or other legal means under which the obligation to pay basic reparation benefits arises.

(3) This Commonwealth, its political subdivisions, municipal corporations, and public agencies shall continuously provide, pursuant to subsection (4), security for the payment of basic reparation benefits in accordance with this act for injury arising from maintenance or use of motor vehicles owned by those entities and operated with their permission.

(4) The United States and its public agencies and any other state, its political subdivisions, municipal corporation, and public agencies may provide, pursuant to subsection (6), security for the payment of basic reparation benefits in accordance with this act for injury arising from maintenance or use of motor vehicles owned by those entities and operated with their permission.

(5) Except for entities described in subsections (3) and (4), every owner of a motor vehicle registered in this Commonwealth or operated in this Commonwealth by him or with his permission, shall continuously provide with respect to the motor vehicle while it is either present or registered in this Commonwealth, and any other person may provide with respect to any motor vehicle, by a contract of insurance or by qualifying as a self-insurer, security for the payment of basic reparation benefits in accordance with this act and security for payment of tort liabilities, arising from maintenance or use of the motor vehicle.

(6) Security may be provided by a contract of insurance or by qualifying as a self-insurer or obligated government in compliance with this act.

(7) Self-insurance, subject to approval of the commissioner of insurance, is effected by filing with the commissioner in satisfactory form:

(a) A continuing undertaking by the owner or other appropriate person to pay tort liabilities or basic reparation benefits, or both, and to perform all other obligations imposed by this act;

(b) Evidence that appropriate provision exists for prompt and efficient administration of all claims, benefits, and obligations provided by this act; and

(c) Evidence that reliable financial arrangements, deposits, or commitments exist providing assurance, substantially equivalent to that afforded by a policy of insurance, complying with this act, for payment of tort liabilities, basic reparation benefits, and all other obligations imposed by this act.

(8) An entity described in subsection (3) or (4) may provide security by lawfully obligating itself to pay basic reparation benefits in accordance with this act; and

(9) A person providing security pursuant to subsection (7) is a "self-insurer." An entity described in subsections (3) or (4) that has provided security pursuant to subsection (6) is an "obligated government."

Section 9. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

An owner of a motor vehicle registered in this Commonwealth who ceases to maintain security as required by the provisions on security may not operate or permit operation of the vehicle in this Commonwealth until security has again been provided as required by this act.

Section 10. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) An insurance contract which purports to provide coverage for basic reparation benefits or is sold with representation that it provides security covering a motor vehicle has the legal effect of including all coverages required by this act.

(2) An insurer authorized to transact or transacting business in this Commonwealth shall file with the commissioner of insurance as a condition of its continued transaction of business within this Commonwealth a form approved by the commissioner of insurance declaring that in any contract of liability insurance for injury, wherever issued, covering the ownership, maintenance or use of a motor vehicle while the vehicle is in this Commonwealth shall be deemed to provide the basic reparation benefits coverage and minimum security for tort liabilities required by this act, except a contract which provides coverage only for liability in excess of required minimum tort liability coverage. Any non-admitted insurer may file such form.

(1) The requirement of security for payment of tort liabilities is fulfilled by providing:

(a) Liability coverage of not less than $10,000 for all damages arising out of bodily injury sustained by any one person as a result of any one accident, and not less than $20,000 for all damages arising out of bodily injury sustained as a result of any single accident caused by accident arising out of ownership, maintenance, use, loading, or unloading, of the secured vehicle;

(b) Liability coverage of not less than $5,000 for all damages arising out of damage to or destruction of property, including the loss of use thereof, as a result of any one accident arising out of ownership, maintenance, use, loading, or unloading, of the secured vehicle; and

(c) That the liability coverages apply to accidents during the contract period in a territorial area not less than the United States of America, its territories and possessions, and Canada.

(2) Subject to the provisions on approval of terms and forms, the requirement of security for payment of tort liabilities may be met by a contract the coverage of which is secondary or excess to other applicable valid and collectible liability insurance. To the extent the secondary or excess coverage applies to liability within the minimum security required by this act, it must be subject to conditions consistent with the system of required liability insurance established by this act.

Section 12. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) All benefits or advantages a person receives or is entitled to receive because of the injury from social security and workmen's compensation are subtracted in calculating net loss.

(2) If a benefit or advantage received to compensate for loss of income because of injury, whether from basic reparation benefits or from any source of benefits or advantages subtracted under subsection (1), is not taxable income, the income tax saving that is attributable to his loss of income because of injury is subtracted in calculating net loss. Subtraction may not exceed fifteen per cent (15%) of the loss of income and shall be in a lesser amount if the claimant furnishes to the insurer reasonable proof of a lower value of the income tax advantage.

Section 13. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

Basic reparation benefits payable for work loss, survivor's economic loss, replacement services loss, and survivor's replacement services loss arising from injury to one person and attributable to the calendar week during which the accident causing injury occurs and to each calendar week thereafter may not exceed $200, prorated for any lesser period. If the injured person's earnings or work are seasonal or irregular, the weekly limit shall be equitably adjusted or apportioned on an annual basis.

Section 14. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) On and after the effective date of this act, each reparation obligor of the owner of a vehicle required to be registered in this Commonwealth shall, upon the request of a reparation insured, be required to provide optional reparation benefits for economic loss in units of $10,000 per person subject to the lesser of:

(a) $40,000 in added reparation benefits, or

(b) The limit of security provided for liability to any one person in excess of the requirements of subsection (1)(a) of Section 11.

(2) Each basic reparation obligor shall be permitted to incorporate in added reparation benefits coverage such terms, conditions and exclusions as may be consistent with premiums charged. The amounts payable under optional reparation benefits may be duplicative of benefits received from collateral source benefits, or may provide for reasonable waiting periods, deductibles or coinsurance provision. The added reparation insurer shall be subrogated, subject to Sections 7 and 30, to the injured person's right of recovery against any responsible third party.

(3) If the injured person, or injured persons, is entitled to damages under Section 6 of this act from the liability insurer of a second person, a self-insurer or an obligated government, collection of such damages shall have priority over the rights of the subrogee for its reimbursement of added reparation benefits paid to or in behalf of such injured person or persons.

(4) Basic reparation insurers shall make available upon request deductibles in the amounts of $250, $500, and $1,000 from all basic reparation benefits otherwise payable, except that if two or more basic reparation insureds to whom the deductible is applicable under the contract of insurance are injured in the same accident, the aggregate amount of the deductible applicable to all of them shall not exceed the specified deductible, which amount where necessary shall be allocated equally among them. Any person who is a basic reparation insured under an insurance policy issued with no deductible or with a deductible of a lesser amount than that under which he receives basic reparation benefits payments, shall be entitled to be paid under such policy the difference between the benefits he is actually paid and the benefits which would have been paid had his benefits been payable under such policy.

Section 15. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

Terms and conditions of contracts and certificates or other evidence of insurance coverage sold or issued in this Commonwealth providing motor vehicle tort liability, basic reparation, and added reparation insurance coverages, and of forms used by insurers offering these coverages, are subject to approval and regulation by the commissioner of insurance. The commissioner shall approve only terms and conditions consistent with the purposes of this act and fair and equitable to all persons whose interests may be affected.

Section 16. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) A person entitled to basic reparation benefits because of injury covered by this act may obtain them through the assigned claims plan established pursuant to the provisions relating thereto and in accordance with the provisions on time for presenting claims under the assigned claims plan if:

(a) Basic reparation insurance is not applicable to the injury for a reason other than those specified in the provisions on converted vehicles and intentional injuries;

(b) Basic reparation insurance applicable to the injury cannot be identified;

(c) Basic reparation insurance applicable to the injury is inadequate to provide the contracted-for benefits because of financial inability of a reparation obligor to fulfill its obligations; or

(d) A claim for basic reparation benefits is rejected by a reparation obligor for a reason other than that the person is not entitled under this act to the basic reparation benefits claimed.

(2) If a claim qualifies for assignment under paragraphs (c) or (d) of subsection (1), the assigned claims bureau or any reparation obligor to whom the claim is assigned is subrogated to all rights of the claimant against any reparation obligor, its successor in interest or substitute, legally obligated to provide basic reparation benefits to the claimant, for basic reparation benefits provided by the assignee.

(3) Except in case of a claim assigned under subsection (1)(d), if a person receives basic reparation benefits through the assigned claims plan, all benefits or advantages he receives or is entitled to receive as a result of the injury, other than by way of succession at death, death benefits from life insurance, or in discharge of familial obligations of support, are subtracted in calculating net loss.

(4) A person who sustains injury while occupying a motor vehicle owned by such person and with respect to which security is required by the provisions on security and who fails to have such security in effect at the time of an accident in this Commonwealth causing such injury, shall not obtain through the assigned claims plan basic reparation benefits, including benefits otherwise due him as a survivor, unless such person's failure to have such security in effect at the time of such accident was solely occasioned by the failure of the liability insurer of such person to provide the basic reparation benefits required by this act.

Section 17. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) Reparation obligors providing basic reparation insurance in this Commonwealth may organize and maintain, subject to approval and regulation by the commissioner of insurance, an assigned claims bureau and an assigned claims plan and adopt rules for their operation and for assessment of costs on a fair and equitable basis consistent with this act. If they do not organize and continuously maintain an assigned claims bureau and an assigned claims plan in a manner considered by the commissioner of insurance to be consistent with this act, he shall organize and maintain an assigned claims bureau and an assigned claims plan. Each reparation obligor providing basic reparation insurance in this Commonwealth shall participate in the assigned claims bureau and the assigned claims plan. Costs incurred shall be allocated fairly and equitably among the reparation obligors.

(2) The assigned claims bureau shall promptly assign each claim and notify the claimant of the identity and address of the assignee of the claim. Claims shall be assigned so as to minimize inconvenience to claimants. The assignee thereafter has rights and obligations as if he had issued a policy of basic reparation insurance complying with this act applicable to the injury or, in case of financial inability of a reparation obligor to perform its obligations, as if the assignee had written the applicable basic reparation insurance, undertaken the self-insurance, or lawfully obligated itself to pay reparation benefits.

Section 18. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2), a person authorized to obtain basic reparation benefits through the assigned claims plan shall notify the bureau of his claim within the time that would have been allowed for commencing an action for those benefits if there had been identifiable coverage in effect and applicable to the claim.

(2) If timely action for basic reparation benefits is commenced against a reparation obligor who is unable to fulfill his obligations because of financial inability, a person authorized to obtain basic reparation benefits through the assigned claims plan shall notify the bureau of his claim within six months after discovery of the financial inability.

Section 19. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

A person who converts a motor vehicle is disqualified from basic or added reparation benefits, including benefits otherwise due him as a survivor, from any source other than an insurance contract under which the converter is a basic or added reparation insured, for injuries arising from maintenance or use of the converted vehicle. If the converter dies from the injuries, his survivors are not entitled to basic or added reparation benefits from any source other than an insurance contract under which the converter is a basic reparation insured. For the purpose of this section, a person is not a converter if he uses the motor vehicle in the good faith belief that he is legally entitled to do so.

Section 20. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

A person intentionally causing or attempting to cause injury to himself or another person is disqualified from basic or added reparation benefits for injury arising from his acts, including benefits otherwise due him as a survivor. If a person dies as a result of intentionally causing or attempting to cause injury to himself, his survivors are not entitled to basic or added reparation benefits for loss arising from his death. A person intentionally causes or attempts to cause injury if he acts or fails to act for the purpose of causing injury or with knowledge that injury is substantially certain to follow. A person does not intentionally cause or attempt to cause injury merely because his act or failure to act is intentional or done with his realization that it creates a grave risk of causing injury or if the act or omission causing the injury is for the purpose of averting bodily harm to himself or another person.

Section 21. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) Basic and added reparation benefits are payable monthly as loss accrues. Loss accrues not when injury occurs, but as work loss, replacement services loss, or medical expense is incurred. Benefits are overdue if not paid within thirty days after the reparation obligor receives reasonable proof of the fact and amount of loss realized, unless the reparation obligor elects to accumulate claims for periods not exceeding thirty-one days after the reparation obligor receives reasonable proof of the fact and amount of loss realized, and pays them within fifteen days after the period of accumulation. If reasonable proof is supplied as to only part of a claim, and the part totals $100 or more, the part is overdue if not paid within the time provided by this section. Medical expense benefits may be paid by the reparation obligor directly to persons supplying products, services, or accommodations to the claimant.

(2) Overdue payments bear interest at the rate of twelve per cent (12%) per annum, except that if delay was without reasonable foundation the rate of interest shall be eighteen per cent (18%) per annum.

(3) A claim for basic or added reparation benefits shall be paid without deduction for the benefits which are to be subtracted pursuant to the provisions on calculation of net loss if these benefits have not been paid to the claimant before the reparation benefits are overdue or the claim is paid. The reparation obligor is entitled to reimbursement from the person obligated to make the payments or from the claimant who actually receives the payments.

(4) A reparation obligor may bring an action to recover benefits which are not payable, but are in fact paid, because of an intentional misrepresentation of a material fact, upon which the reparation obligor relies, by the insured or by a person providing an item of medical expense. The action may be brought only against the person providing the item of medical expense, unless the insured has intentionally misrepresented the facts or knows of the misrepresentation. An insurer may offset amounts he is entitled to recover from the insured under this subsection against any basic or added reparation benefits otherwise due.

(5) A reparation obligor who rejects a claim for basic reparation benefits shall give to the claimant prompt written notice of the rejection, specifying the reason. If a claim is rejected for a reason other than that the person is not entitled to the basic reparation benefits claimed, the written notice shall inform the claimant that he may file his claim with the assigned claims bureau and shall give the name and address of the bureau.

Section 22. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) If overdue benefits are recovered in an action against the reparation obligor or paid by the reparation obligor after receipt of notice of the attorney's representation, a reasonable attorney's fee for advising and representing a claimant on a claim or in an action for basic or added reparation benefits may be awarded by the court if the denial or delay was without reasonable foundation. No part of the fee for representing the claimant in connection with these benefits is a charge against benefits otherwise due the claimant. All or part of the fee may be deducted from the benefits otherwise due the claimant if any significant part of his claim for benefits was fraudulent or so excessive as to have no reasonable foundation.

(2) In any action brought against the insured by the reparation obligor, the court may award the insured's attorney a reasonable attorney's fee for defending the action.

Section 23. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

A reparation obligor may be allowed a reasonable attorney's fee for defending a claim for benefits that is fraudulent or so excessive as to have no reasonable foundation. The fee may be treated as an offset to benefits due or which thereafter accrue. The reparation obligor may recover from the claimant any part of the fee not offset or otherwise paid.

(1) If no basic or added reparation benefits have been paid for loss arising otherwise than from death, an action therefor may be commenced not later than two (2) years after the injured person suffers the loss and either knows, or in the exercise of reasonable diligence should know, that the loss was caused by the accident, or not later than four years after the accident, whichever is earlier. If basic or added reparation benefits have been paid for loss arising otherwise than from death, an action for further benefits, other than survivor's benefits, by either the same or another claimant, may be commenced not later than two years after the last payment of benefits.

(2) If no basic or added reparation benefits have been paid to the decedent or his survivors, an action for survivor's benefits may be commenced not later than one year after the death or four years after the accident from which death results, whichever is earlier. If survivor's benefits have been paid to any survivor, an action for further survivor's benefits by either the same or another claimant may be commenced not later than two years after the last payment of benefits. If basic or added reparation benefits have been paid for loss suffered by an injured person before his death resulting from the injury, an action for survivor's benefits may be commenced not later than one year after the death or four years after the last payment of benefits, whichever is earlier.

(3) If timely action for basic reparation benefits is commenced against a reparation obligor and benefits are denied because of a determination that the reparation obligor's coverage is not applicable to the claimant under the provisions on priority of applicability of basic reparation security, an action against the applicable reparation obligor or the assigned claims bureau may be commenced not later than sixty days after the determination becomes final or the last date on which the action could otherwise have been commenced, whichever is later.

(4) Except as subsections (1), (2), or (3) prescribe a longer period, an action by a claimant on an assigned claim which has been timely presented may be commenced not later than sixty days after the claimant received written notice of rejection of the claim by the reparation obligor to which it was assigned.

(5) If a person entitled to basic or added reparation benefits is under legal disability when the right to bring an action for the benefits first accrues, the period of his disability is not a part of the time limited for commencement of the action.

Section 25. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

An assignment of or agreement to assign any right to benefits under this act for loss accruing in the future is unenforceable except as to benefits for:

(a) Work loss to secure payment of alimony, maintenance, or child support; or

(b) Medical expense to the extent the benefits are for the cost of products, services, or accommodations provided or to be provided by the assignee.

Section 26. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in this act, basic reparation benefits shall be paid without deduction or set-off.

Section 27. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) Basic or added reparation benefits for medical expense are exempt from garnishment, attachment, execution, and any other process or claim, except upon a claim of a creditor who has provided products, services, or accommodations.

(2) Basic reparation benefits other than those for medical expense are exempt from garnishment, attachment, execution, and any other process or claim to the extent that wages or earnings are exempt under any applicable law exempting wages or earnings from process or claims.

Section 28. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) If the mental or physical condition of a person is material to a claim for past or future basic or added reparation benefits, the reparation obligor may petition the circuit court for an order directing the person to submit to a mental or physical examination by a physician. Upon notice to the person to be examined and all persons having an interest, the court may make the order for good cause shown. The order shall specify the time, place, manner, conditions, scope of the examination, and the physician by whom it is to be made.

(2) If requested by the person examined, the reparation obligor causing a mental or physical examination to be made shall deliver to the person examined a copy of a detailed written report of the examining physician setting out his findings including results of all tests made, diagnoses, and conclusions, and reports of earlier examinations of the same condition. By requesting and obtaining a report of the examination ordered or by taking the deposition of the physician, the person examined waives any privilege he may have, in relation to the claim for basic or added reparation benefits, regarding the testimony of every other person who has examined or may thereafter examine him respecting the same condition. This subsection does not preclude discovery of a report of an examining physician, taking a deposition of the physician, or other discovery procedures in accordance with any rule of court or other provision of law. This subsection applies to examinations made by agreement of the person examined and the reparation obligor, unless the agreement provides otherwise.

(3) If any person refuses to comply with an order entered under this section the court may make any just order as to the refusal, but may not find a person in contempt for failure to submit to a mental or physical examination.

Section 29. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) Upon request of a basic or added reparation claimant or reparation obligor, information relevant to a claim for basic or added reparation benefits shall be disclosed as follows:

(a) An employer shall furnish a statement of the work record and earnings of an employee upon whose injury the claim is based. The statement shall cover the period specified by the claimant or reparation obligor making the request and may include a reasonable period before, and the entire period after, the injury.

(b) The claimant shall deliver to the reparation obligor a copy of every written report, previously or thereafter made, relevant to the claim, and available to him, concerning any medical treatment or examination of a person upon whose injury the claim is based and the names and addresses of physicians and medical care facilities rendering diagnoses or treatment in regard to the injury or to a relevant past injury, and the claimant shall authorize the reparation obligor to inspect and copy relevant records of physicians and of hospitals, clinics, and other medical facilities.

(c) A physician or hospital, clinic, or other medical facility furnishing examinations, services, or accommodations to an injured person in connection with a condition alleged to be connected with an injury upon which a claim is based, upon authorization of the claimant, shall furnish a written report of the history, condition, diagnoses, medical tests, treatment, and dates and cost of treatment of the injured person, and permit inspection and copying of all records and reports as to the history, condition, treatment, and dates and cost of treatment.

(2) Any person other than the claimant providing information under this section may charge the person requesting the information for the reasonable cost of providing it.

(3) In case of dispute as to the right of a claimant or reparation obligor to discover information required to be disclosed, the claimant or reparation obligor may petition the circuit court in the county in which the claimant resides for an order for discovery including the right to take written or oral depositions. Upon notice to all persons having an interest, the order may be made for good cause shown. It shall specify the time, place, manner, conditions, and scope of the discovery. To protect against annoyance, embarrassment, or oppression, the court may enter an order refusing discovery or specifying conditions of discovery and directing payment of costs and expenses of the proceeding, including reasonable attorney's fees.

Section 30. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) There is created a non-profit unincorporated legal entity to be known as the Kentucky Insurance Arbitration Association to provide a mechanism for the reimbursement, among reparation obligors of losses paid as basic or added reparation benefits, based on the law of torts without regard to subsections (1), (2) and (3) of Section 6 of this act.

(2) All basic reparation obligors shall be and remain members of the Association as a condition of their authority to transact business in this Commonwealth.

(3) The Association shall perform its functions under a plan of operation established and approved under subsection (5) and shall exercise its powers through a board of directors established under subsection (4) hereof.

(4) The board of directors of the Association shall consist of not less than three nor more than five persons serving terms as established in the plan of operation. They shall be selected by member insurers subject to the approval of the commissioner. If no members have been selected and approved prior to July 1, 1974, the commissioner shall appoint the initial members of the board. In approving selections to the board, the commissioner shall consider, among other things, whether all member insurers are fairly represented:

(a) Each member of the board shall designate two qualified experienced claimsmen from his company, either of whom upon approval by the commissioner, may serve as his alternate for the purpose of claims arbitration.

(5) The Association shall submit to the commissioner a plan of operation and any amendments thereto necessary, or suitable to assure the fair, reasonable and equitable administration of the Association. The plan shall become effective upon approval in writing by the commissioner:

(a) All reparation obligors shall comply with the provisions of the plan of operation;

(b) The plan of operation shall:

(i) Establish procedures whereby all the powers and duties of the Association will be performed;

(ii) Establish minimum requirements for the initial submission of a case for reimbursement or arbitration;

(iii) Establish minimum requirements beneath which reimbursements shall not be made in order that there be fair allocation of significant losses. The elimination of unnecessary costs in the reimbursement mechanism shall be provided for by the elimination of fault determination in the great majority of losses;

(iv) The mechanism shall encourage voluntary reimbursement procedures between reparation obligors so that resort to arbitration shall be as infrequent as possible;

(v) Fair allocation of loss between commercial and non-commercial motor vehicles may require different minimum requirements than when the loss is between two or more non-commercial vehicles;

(vi) Establish regular places and times for meetings;

(vii) Establish procedures for records to be maintained on all cases presented for arbitration and dispositions thereof;

(viii) Establish procedures for compensation to reparation obligors for travel related expense and the fair value of the time devoted by their employees as a director or alternate in performance of duties for the Association;

(ix) Establish procedures for adequately and equitably financing the cost of the Association among members; and

(x) Contain additional provisions necessary or proper for execution of the powers and duties of the Association.

(6) The Association shall be subject to examination and regulation by the commissioner:

(a) The board of directors shall submit to the commissioner, not later than March 30 of each year, a report on its activities for the preceeding calendar year;

(b) The board of directors shall promptly notify the commissioner whenever it appears that any member insurer has failed or refused to comply with an arbitration decision or has shown a protracted tendency to decline a significant number of meritorious claims presented to it prior to initiation of arbitration proceedings.

(7) The Association shall be exempt from payment of all fees, license and taxes levied by this Commonwealth or any of its subdivisions except taxes on real or personal property.

(8) There shall be no liability on the part of and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against any member insurer, the Association or its agents or employees, the board of directors, or the commissioner or his representative for any action taken by them in the performance of their powers and duties under this section.

Section 31. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

The commissioner of insurance may adopt rules to provide effective administration of this act which are consistent with the purposes of this act and fair and equitable to all persons whose interests may be affected.

Section 32. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

The Bureau of Vehicle Regulation may adopt rules to implement and provide effective administration of the provisions on evidence of security and termination of security.

Section 33. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) If the department of transportation determines that a person has violated the provisions of Section 11 of this act requiring that he provide security covering the vehicle, it shall revoke the license or permit of such person for a period of not more than six months; or if the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this Commonwealth, the department shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for a period of six months after the date of the alleged violation, subject to the review as hereinafter provided.

(2) Upon revoking the license, permit to drive, or non-resident operating privilege of any person, or upon determining that the issuance of a license or permit shall be denied to the person, the commissioner of the department of transportation shall immediately notify the person in writing by mailing the notice to the person by certified or registered mail to the last known residence address of the person, or, if the address is unknown, to the last known business address of the person. Within ten days after receiving the notice, the person may request a hearing before the commissioner. Request for a hearing does not suspend the order of revocation. The hearing shall be scheduled as early as practical within not to exceed twenty days after receipt of such request at a time and place designated by the commissioner. The notice of hearing shall be served in the same manner as the notice of revocation or denial of a license. For the purpose of the hearing, the commissioner may appoint an examiner who shall have to preside at the hearing. Upon the hearing the commissioner or his duly authorized agent may administer oaths and may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of relevant books and papers and may require a re-examination of the licensee. The scope of the hearing shall cover the issue of whether the person registered or knowingly operated or used upon the public streets, roads and highways of this Commonwealth any motor vehicle which was not then an insured vehicle as required in Section 11 of this act. All testimony at the hearing shall be recorded. The commissioner's ruling shall include a statement of the findings of fact, rulings of law and other matters pertinent to the question at issue. The commissioner within ten days after completion of the hearing shall order that the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance either be rescinded or sustained. The commissioner shall immediately notify the person of his ruling in writing by certified or registered mail.

(3) If the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance is sustained after the hearing, the person whose license, permit to drive, or nonresident operating privilege has been revoked, or to whom a license or permit is denied, under the provisions of this section, may file a petition in the circuit court of the county in which the person resides or in the circuit court of the county in which the alleged offense was committed, or in Franklin Circuit Court to review the final order of revocation or denial by the commissioner within twenty days after the final order has been issued. The appeal does not suspend the order of revocation or denial unless a stay thereof is allowed by the court pending a final judgment of the court finding against the person appealing. The period of revocation or denial is determined by taking into account the period of time during which the revocation or denial was effective before the stay was granted. The department of transportation shall file with its answer a copy of the commissioner's ruling and a transcript of evidence. The court's review is limited to whether the commissioner's ruling is supported by substantial evidence and whether his action is arbitrary or capricious. An appeal to the Court of Appeals does not suspend the order of revocation or denial unless a stay thereof is allowed by the court pending a final determination of the review. If a stay is allowed, and the final judgment of the court finds against the person appealing, the period of revocation or denial is determined by taking into account the period of time during which the revocation or denial was effective before the stay was granted.

(4) When it has been finally determined that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this Commonwealth has been revoked, the department shall give information in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which he has a license.

(5) A license which shall have been revoked shall be surrendered to and retained by the department. At the end of the period of revocation, the license may be returned to the licensee.

(6) Any person who fails to surrender a license which has been revoked in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be fined not less than $2 nor more than $500 or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both.

Section 34. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

Every insurer shall make available upon request to its insureds underinsured motorist coverage, whereby subject to the terms and conditions of such coverage the insurance company agrees to pay its own insured for such uncompensated damages as he may recover on account of injury due to a motor vehicle accident because the judgment recovered against the owner of the other vehicle exceeds the policy limits thereon, to the extent of the policy limits on the vehicle of the party recovering less the amount paid by the liability insurer of the party recovered against. His insurance company shall be subrogated to any amounts it so pays, and upon payment shall have an assignment of the judgment against the other party to the extent of the money it pays.

Section 35. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) The rates for bodily injury and property damage liability in the amounts specified in Section 11 of this act combined with the rates for uninsured motorists coverage in equal amounts and for basic reparation benefits coverage shall be reduced by each insurer by not less than fifteen per cent (15%) as of the effective date of this act from the rates in effect for each such insurer immediately prior to such date for bodily injury and property damage liability in the amounts specified in Section 11 of this act combined with the rates for uninsured motorists coverage and the rates charged for $1,000. per person medical expense coverage. Such reduced rates shall remain in effect for at least one year. There shall be no exception to the requirements of this section unless the commissioner shall find that the use of such reduced rates required as to any insurer will result in rates which are inadequate under Chapter 304 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply to any policy covering a motor vehicle for which a person who would otherwise be a basic reparation insured has rejected the limitations upon his tort rights and liabilities in accordance with the provisions of Section 6 (4).

(3) Such rates shall remain in effect for at least one year.

Section 36. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2), if any provisions of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held to be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid, the remainder of this act and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby, and it shall be conclusively presumed that the legislature would have enacted the remainder of this act without such invalid or unconstitutional provision.

(2) If the exemption from liability to pay damages in Section 6 is held to be unconstitutional or invalid as respects substantial numbers of persons or circumstances, it shall be conclusively presumed that the legislature would not have enacted the remainder of the act without such exemption and the entire act shall be held invalid; provided, however, any or all of the exceptions to the liability exemption are severable and the invalidity of any or all of the exemptions shall not impair the validity of the remainder of the act.

Section 38. This act shall become effective on March 15, 1975.

The Committee Substitute to HB 314 is as follows:

HB 314, AN ACT relating to establishment of a system of insurance and compensation irrespective of fault for victims of motor vehicle accidents, setting forth the basis for recovery and the elements thereof, and establishing an assigned claims plan to protect injured victims against uninsured losses.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

The declaration of legislative policy of this act is as follows:

The toll of about 20,000,000 motor vehicle accidents nationally and comparable experience in Kentucky upon the interests of victims, the public, policy-holders and others require that improvements in the reparations provided for herein be adopted to effect the following purposes:

- (1) To require owners, registrants and operators of motor vehicles in the Commonwealth to procure insurance covering basic reparation benefits and legal liability arising out of ownership, operation or use of such motor vehicles;
- (2) To provide prompt payment to victims of motor vehicle accidents without regard to whose negligence caused the accident in order to eliminate the inequities which fault-determination has created;
- (3) To encourage prompt medical treatment and rehabilitation of the motor vehicle accident victim by providing for prompt payment of needed medical care and rehabilitation;
- (4) To permit more liberal wage loss and medical benefits by allowing claims for intangible loss only when their determination is reasonable and appropriate;
- (5) To reduce the need to resort to bargaining and litigation through a system which can pay victims of motor vehicle accidents without the delay, expense, aggravation, inconvenience, inequities and uncertainties of the liability system;
- (6) To help guarantee the continued availability of motor vehicle insurance at reasonable prices by a more efficient, economical and equitable system of motor vehicle accident reparations;
- (7) To create an insurance system which can more adequately be regulated; and
- (8) To correct the inadequacies of the present reparation system, recognizing that it was devised and our present Constitution adopted prior to the development of the internal combustion motor vehicle.

Section 2. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

As used in this act:

- (1) "Added reparation benefits" mean benefits provided by optional added reparation insurance.
- (2) "Basic reparation benefits" mean benefits providing reimbursement for net loss suffered through injury arising out of the operation, maintenance or use of a motor vehicle, subject, where applicable, to the limits, deductibles, exclusions, disqualifications and other conditions provided in this act. The maximum amount of basic reparation benefits payable for all economic loss resulting from injury to any one person as the result of one accident shall be $10,000, regardless of the number of persons entitled to such benefits or the number of providers of security obligated to pay such benefits. Basic reparation benefits consist of one or more of the elements defined as "loss."
- (3) "Basic reparation insured" means:
 - (a) A person identified by name as an insured in a contract of basic reparation insurance complying with this act; and
 - (b) While residing in the same household with a named insured, the following persons not identified by name as an insured in any other contract of basic reparation insurance complying with this act: a spouse or other relative of a named insured; and a minor in the custody of a named insured or of a relative residing in the same household with the named insured if he usually makes his home in the same family unit, even though he temporarily lives elsewhere.
- (4) "Injury" and "injury to person" mean bodily harm, sickness, disease, or death.
- (5) "Loss" means accrued economic loss consisting only of medical expense, work loss, replacement services loss, and, if injury causes death, survivor's economic loss and survivor's replacement services loss. Noneconomic detriment is not loss. However, economic loss is loss although caused by pain and suffering or physical impairment.
 - (a) "Medical expense" means reasonable charges incurred for reasonably needed products, services, and accommodations, including those for medical care, physical rehabilitation, rehabilitative occupational training, and other remedial treatment and care. "Medical expense" may include non-medical remedial treatment rendered in accordance with a recognized religious method of healing. The term includes a total charge not in excess of $1,000 per person for expenses in any way related to funeral, cremation, and burial. It does not include that portion of a charge for a room in a hospital, clinic, convalescent or nursing home, or any other institution engaged in providing nursing care and related services, in excess of a reasonable and customary charge for semi-private accommodations, unless intensive care is medically required. Medical expense shall include all healing arts professions licensed by the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

(b) "Work loss" means loss of income from work the injured person would have performed if he had not been injured, and expenses reasonably incurred by him in obtaining services in lieu of those he would have performed for income, reduced by any income from substitute work actually performed by him or by income he would have earned in available appropriate substitute work he was capable of performing but unreasonably failed to undertake.

(c) "Replacement services loss" means expenses reasonably incurred in obtaining ordinary and necessary services in lieu of those the injured person would have performed, not for income but for the benefit of himself or his family, if he had not been injured.

(d) "Survivor's economic loss" means loss after decedent's death of contributions of things of economic value to his survivors, not including services they would have received from the decedent if he had not suffered the fatal injury, less expenses of the survivors avoided by reason of decedent's death.

(e) "Survivor's replacement services loss" means expenses reasonably incurred by survivors after decedent's death in obtaining ordinary and necessary services in lieu of those the decedent would have performed for their benefit if he had not suffered the fatal injury, less expenses of the survivors avoided by reason of the decedent's death and not subtracted in calculating survivor's economic loss.

(6) "Use of a motor vehicle" means any utilization of the motor vehicle as a vehicle including occupying, entering into and alighting from it. It does not include (i) conduct within the course of a business of repairing, servicing, or otherwise maintaining motor vehicles unless the conduct occurs off the business premises, or (ii) conduct in the course of loading and unloading the vehicle unless the conduct occurs while occupying, entering into, or alighting from it.

(7) "Motor vehicle" means:

(a) A vehicle of a kind required to be registered under KRS Chapter 186.

(8) "Public roadway" means a way open to the use of the public for purposes of motor vehicle travel.

(9) "Net loss" means loss less benefits or advantages, from sources other than basic and added reparation insurance, required to be subtracted from loss in calculating net loss.

(10) "Noneconomic detriment" means pain, suffering, inconvenience, physical impairment, and other nonpecuniary damages recoverable under the tort law of this Commonwealth. The term does not include punitive or exemplary damages.

(11) "Owner" means a person, other than a lienholder or secured party, who owns or has title to a motor vehicle or is entitled to the use and possession of a motor vehicle subject to a security interest held by another person. The term does not include a lessee under a lease not intended as security.

(12) "Reparation obligor" means an insurer, self-insurer, or obligated government providing basic or added reparation benefits under this act.

(13) "Survivor" means a person identified in KRS 411.130 as one entitled to receive benefits by reason of the death of another person.

(14) A "User" means a person who is a basic reparation insured or would be a basic reparation insured if such person had not rejected the limitations upon his tort rights as provided in Section 6 (4).

(15) "Maintaining a motor vehicle" means having legal custody, possession or responsibility for a motor vehicle by one other than an owner or operator.

(16) "Security" means any continuing undertaking complying with this act, for payment of tort liabilities, basic reparation benefits, and all other obligations imposed by this act.

Section 3. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) If the accident causing injury occurs in this Commonwealth every person suffering loss from injury arising out of maintenance or use of a motor vehicle has a right to basic reparation benefits, unless he has rejected the limitation upon his tort rights as provided in Section 6 (4).

(2) If the accident causing injury occurs outside this Commonwealth but within the United States, its territories and possessions, or Canada, the following persons and their survivors suffering loss from injury arising out of maintenance or use of a motor vehicle have a right to basic reparation benefits:

(a) Basic reparation insureds; and

(b) The driver and other occupants of a secured vehicle who have not rejected the limitation upon their tort rights, other than (i) a vehicle which is regularly used in the course of the business of transporting persons or property and which is one of five or more vehicles under common ownership, or (ii) a vehicle owned by an obligated government other than this Commonwealth, its political subdivisions, municipal corporations, or public agencies.

Section 4. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) Basic reparation benefits shall be paid without regard to fault.

(2) Basic reparation obligors and the assigned claims plan shall pay basic reparation benefits, under the terms and conditions stated in this act, for loss from injury arising out of maintenance or use of a motor vehicle. This obligation exists without regard to immunity from liability or suit which might otherwise be applicable.

Section 5. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) The basic reparation insurance applicable to bodily injury to which this act applies is the security covering the vehicle occupied by the injured person at the time of the accident or, if the injured person is a pedestrian, the security covering the vehicle which struck such pedestrian. If the reparation obligor providing such insurance fails to make payment for loss within thirty days after receipt of reasonable proof of the fact and the amount of loss sustained, the injured person shall be entitled to payment under any contract of basic reparation insurance under which he is a basic reparation insured and the insurer making such payments shall be entitled to full reimbursement from the reparation obligor providing the security covering the vehicle. A pedestrian, as used herein, means any person who is not an operator or user of a motor vehicle at the time his injury occurs.

(2) If there is no security covering the vehicle, any contract of basic reparation insurance under which the injured person is a basic reparation insured shall apply.

(3) No person shall recover basic reparation benefits from more than one reparation obligor as a result of the same accident, except as provided in Section 14 (4), nor in excess of $10,000 as the result of the same accident.

Section 6. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) Any person who registers, operates, maintains or uses a motor vehicle on the public roadways of this Commonwealth shall, as a condition of such registration, operation, maintenance or use of such motor vehicle and use of the public roadways, be deemed to have accepted the provisions of this act, and in particular those provisions which are contained in this section.

(2) Tort liability, except as provided in subsection (7) of this Section, with respect to accidents occurring in this Commonwealth and arising from the ownership, operation, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle is abolished except as to:

(a) Liability of the owner of a motor vehicle involved in an accident if security covering the vehicle was not provided at the time of the accident;

(b) Liability of a person in the business of manufacturing, repairing, servicing, or otherwise maintaining motor vehicles arising from a defect in a motor vehicle caused or not corrected by an act or omission in the manufacturing, repairing, servicing, or otherwise maintaining of a vehicle in the course of his business;

(c) Liability of a person for intentionally caused injury to a person;

(d) Liability of a person for damage to property;

(e) Damages for any work loss, replacement services loss, survivor's economic loss, and survivor's replacement services loss, not recoverable as basic reparation benefits by reason of the monetary limitations contained in this act;

(f) Damages for noneconomic detriment if the accident causes death, significant permanent injury, serious permanent disfigurement, or more than three months of complete inability of the injured person to work in an occupation, or if the injured person incurs medical expenses having a reasonable value in excess of $1,250. "Complete inability of an injured person to work in an occupation" means inability to perform, on even a part-time basis, even some of the duties required by his occupation or, if unemployed at the time of injury, by any occupation for which the injured person was qualified. "Reasonable value" means the average cost of specific types of services included under medical expenses, as defined in this act, in the Commonwealth of Kentucky as determined from statistical data compiled by the commissioner of insurance and published not less than once each year; and

(g) Injury to a person who is not an owner, operator, maintainer or user of a motor vehicle within subsection (1) of this section. However, any person who presents a claim for and receives payments from any basic reparation obligor shall be deemed to have elected to limit his tort rights as provided for all other persons by this section.

(h) In any action for damages resulting from tort liability under this section, the court shall appropriately instruct the jury to first find, as a prerequisite to any award, that as a direct and proximate result of the negligence of the defendant, plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount or of a character so as to meet one or more of the requirements of subsections (a) through (g) of this subsection.

(3) For purposes of this section and the provisions on reparation obligor's rights of reimbursement, subrogation, and indemnity, a person does not intentionally cause harm merely because his act or failure to act is intentional or done with his realization that it creates a grave risk of harm.

(4) Any person may refuse to consent to the limitations of his tort rights and liabilities as contained in this section. Such rejection must be in writing in a form to be prescribed by the department of transportation and must have been executed and filed with the department at a time prior to any motor vehicle accident for which such rejection is to apply. Rejection by a person who is under legal disability shall be made on behalf of such person by his legal guardian or his natural parent. The failure of such guardian or a natural parent of a person under legal disability to file a rejection, within six months from the date that this act would otherwise become applicable to such person, shall be deemed to be an affirmative acceptance of all provisions of this act.

(5) Any rejection must be filed with the department of transportation and shall be for a period of five years from the date of its execution unless revoked in writing. A copy of such rejection or revocation must be filed with each insurance company providing an automobile policy under which the individual is a named insured as defined in the policy.

(6) Every insurance company when issuing an automobile policy to a resident of this Commonwealth must inform the buyer in writing in a form to be prescribed by the insurance commissioner of his right to reject the limitations of his tort rights and liabilities under this act.

(7) Any rejection shall result in the full retention by the individual of his tort rights and his tort liabilities. Any person injured by a motor vehicle operator who has such rejection on file may claim his full damages, including nonpecuniary damages, or, if such injured person has not rejected his own tort limitations, he may also claim basic reparation benefits from the appropriate security on the vehicle as established under Section 5. If such provider of security is other than the one providing security for the operator who has rejected the limitations, such provider shall be subrogated to the rights of the injured person to the extent of reparation benefits paid against the owner and operator of the vehicle.

(8) No person who has rejected the tort limitations under this section, except as provided in subsection (9) of this section or subsection (5) of Section 14, may collect basic reparation benefits.

(9) Any owner or operator of a motorcycle, as defined in Kentucky Revised Statutes, may file a rejection as described in subsections (4) and (5), which will apply solely to the ownership and operation of a motorcycle but will not apply to injury resulting from the ownership, operation or use of any other type of motor vehicle.

Section 7. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) "Secured person" means the owner, operator or occupant of a secured motor vehicle, and any other person or organization legally responsible for the acts or omissions of such owner, operator or occupant.

(2) A reparation obligor which has paid or may become obligated to pay basic reparation benefits shall be subrogated to the extent of its obligations to all of the rights of the person suffering the injury against any person or organization other than a secured person.

(3) A reparation obligor shall have the right to recover basic reparation benefits paid to or for the benefit of a person suffering the injury from the reparation obligor of a secured person as provided in this subsection. The reparation obligor shall elect to assert its claim (i) by joining as a party in an action that may be commenced by the person suffering the injury, or (ii) to reimbursement, pursuant to Section 30, sixty days after said claim has been presented to the reparation obligor of secured persons. The right to recover basic reparation benefits paid under (ii) shall be limited to those instances established as applicable by the Kentucky Insurance Arbitration Association as provided in Section 30.

(4) A release by the injured party does not release the rights of the reparation obligor under this section.

Section 8. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) "Security covering the vehicle" is the insurance or other security so provided. The vehicle for which the security is so provided is the "secured vehicle."

(2) "Basic reparation insurance" includes a contract, self-insurance, or other legal means under which the obligation to pay basic reparation benefits arises.

(3) This Commonwealth, its political subdivisions, municipal corporations, and public agencies shall continuously provide, pursuant to subsection (4), security for the payment of basic reparation benefits in accordance with this act for injury arising from maintenance or use of motor vehicles owned by those entities and operated with their permission.

(4) The United States and its public agencies and any other state, its political subdivisions, municipal corporation, and public agencies may provide, pursuant to subsection (6), security for the payment of basic reparation benefits in accordance with this act for injury arising from maintenance or use of motor vehicles owned by those entities and operated with their permission.

(5) Except for entities described in subsections (3) and (4), every owner of a motor vehicle registered in this Commonwealth or operated in this Commonwealth by him or with his permission, shall continuously provide with respect to the motor vehicle while it is either present or registered in this Commonwealth, and any other person may provide with respect to any motor vehicle, by a contract of insurance or by qualifying as a self-insurer, security for the payment of basic reparation benefits in accordance with this act and security for payment of tort liabilities, arising from maintenance or use of the motor vehicle.

(6) Security may be provided by a contract of insurance or by qualifying as a self-insurer or obligated government in compliance with this act.

(7) Self-insurance, subject to approval of the commissioner of insurance, is effected by filing with the commissioner in satisfactory form:

(a) A continuing undertaking by the owner or other appropriate person to pay tort liabilities or basic reparation benefits, or both, and to perform all other obligations imposed by this act;

(b) Evidence that appropriate provision exists for prompt and efficient administration of all claims, benefits, and obligations provided by this act; and

(c) Evidence that reliable financial arrangements, deposits, or commitments exist providing assurance, substantially equivalent to that afforded by a policy of insurance, complying with this act, for payment of tort liabilities, basic reparation benefits, and all other obligations imposed by this act.

(8) An entity described in subsection (3) or (4) may provide security by lawfully obligating itself to pay basic reparation benefits in accordance with this act; and

(9) A person providing security pursuant to subsection (7) is a "self-insurer." An entity described in subsections (3) or (4) that has provided security pursuant to subsection (6) is an "obligated government."

Section 9. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

An owner of a motor vehicle registered in this Commonwealth who ceases to maintain security as required by the provisions on security may not operate or permit operation of the vehicle in this Commonwealth until security has again been provided as required by this act. All other owners shall provide such security while operating a motor vehicle in this Commonwealth.

Section 10. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) An insurance contract which purports to provide coverage for basic reparation benefits or is sold with representation that it provides security covering a motor vehicle has the legal effect of including all coverages required by this act.

(2) An insurer authorized to transact or transacting business in this Commonwealth shall file with the commissioner of insurance as a condition of its continued transaction of business within this Commonwealth a form approved by the commissioner of insurance declaring that in any contract of liability insurance for injury, wherever issued, covering the ownership, maintenance or use of a motor vehicle while the vehicle is in this Commonwealth shall be deemed to provide the basic reparation benefits coverage and minimum security for tort liabilities required by this act, except a contract which provides coverage only for liability in excess of required minimum tort liability coverage. Any non-admitted insurer may file such form.

Section 11. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) The requirement of security for payment of tort liabilities is fulfilled by providing:

(a) Liability coverage of not less than $10,000 for all damages arising out of bodily injury sustained by any one person as a result of any one accident, and not less than $20,000 for all damages arising out of bodily injury sustained as a result of any single accident caused by accident arising out of ownership, maintenance, use, loading, or unloading, of the secured vehicle;

(b) Liability coverage of not less than $5,000 for all damages arising out of damage to or destruction of property, including the loss of use thereof, as a result of any one accident arising out of ownership, maintenance, use, loading, or unloading, of the secured vehicle; and

(c) That the liability coverages apply to accidents during the contract period in a territorial area not less than the United States of America, its territories and possessions, and Canada.

(2) Subject to the provisions on approval of terms and forms, the requirement of security for payment of tort liabilities may be met by a contract the coverage of which is secondary or excess to other applicable valid and collectible liability insurance. To the extent the secondary or excess coverage applies to liability within the minimum security required by this act, it must be subject to conditions consistent with the system of required liability insurance established by this act.

Section 12. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) All benefits or advantages a person receives or is entitled to receive because of the injury from social security and workmen's compensation are subtracted in calculating net loss.

(2) If a benefit or advantage received to compensate for loss of income because of injury, whether from basic reparation benefits or from any source of benefits or advantages subtracted under subsection (1), is not taxable income, the income tax saving that is attributable to his loss of income because of injury is subtracted in calculating net loss. Subtraction may not exceed fifteen per cent (15%) of the loss of income and shall be in a lesser amount if the claimant furnishes to the insurer reasonable proof of a lower value of the income tax advantage.

Section 13. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

Basic reparation benefits payable for work loss, survivor's economic loss, replacement services loss, and survivor's replacement services loss arising from injury to one person and attributable to the calendar week during which the accident causing injury occurs and to each calendar week thereafter may not exceed $200, prorated for any lesser period. If the injured person's earnings or work are seasonal or irregular, the weekly limit shall be equitably adjusted or apportioned on an annual basis.

Section 14. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) On and after the effective date of this act, each reparation obligor of the owner of a vehicle required to be registered in this Commonwealth shall, upon the request of a reparation insured, be required to provide added reparation benefits for economic loss in units of $10,000 per person subject to the lesser of:

- (a) $40,000 in added reparation benefits, or
- (b) The limit of security provided for liability to any one person in excess of the requirements of subsection (1)(a) of Section 11.

(2) Each basic reparation obligor shall be permitted to incorporate in added reparation benefits coverage such terms, conditions and exclusions as may be consistent with premiums charged. The amounts payable under added reparation benefits may be duplicative of benefits received from collateral source benefits, or may provide for reasonable waiting periods, deductibles or coinsurance provision. The added reparation obligor shall be subrogated, subject to Sections 7 and 30, to the injured person's right of recovery against any responsible third party.

(3) If the injured person, or injured persons, is entitled to damages under Section 6 of this act from the liability insurer of a second person, a self-insurer or an obligated government, collection of such damages shall have priority over the rights of the subrogee for its reimbursement of added reparation benefits paid to or in behalf of such injured person or persons.

(4) Basic reparation insurers shall make available upon request deductibles in the amounts of $250, $500, and $1,000 from all basic reparation benefits otherwise payable, except that if two or more basic reparation insureds to whom the deductible is applicable under the contract of insurance are injured in the same accident, the aggregate amount of the deductible applicable to all of them shall not exceed the specified deductible, which amount where necessary shall be allocated equally among them. Any person who is a basic reparation insured under an insurance policy issued with no deductible or with a deductible of a lesser amount than that under which he receives basic reparation benefits payments, shall be entitled to be paid under such policy the difference between the benefits he is actually paid and the benefits which would have been paid had his benefits been payable under such policy.

(5) Reparation obligors shall make available upon request to those persons who have rejected their tort limitations, in accordance with Section 6 (4), basic reparation benefits coverage and added reparation benefits.

Section 15. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

Terms and conditions of contracts and certificates or other evidence of insurance coverage sold or issued in this Commonwealth providing motor vehicle tort liability, basic reparation, and added reparation insurance coverages, and of forms used by insurers offering these coverages, are subject to approval and regulation by the commissioner of insurance. The commissioner shall approve only terms and conditions consistent with the purposes of this act and fair and equitable to all persons whose interests may be affected.

Section 16. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) A person entitled to basic reparation benefits because of injury covered by this act may obtain them through the assigned claims plan established pursuant to the provisions relating thereto and in accordance with the provisions on time for presenting claims under the assigned claims plan if:

(a) Basic reparation insurance is not applicable to the injury for a reason other than those specified in the provisions on converted vehicles and intentional injuries;

(b) Basic reparation insurance applicable to the injury cannot be identified;

(c) Basic reparation insurance applicable to the injury is inadequate to provide the contracted for benefits because of financial inability of a reparation obligor to fulfill its obligations; or

(d) A claim for basic reparation benefits is rejected by a reparation obligor for a reason other than that the person is not entitled under this act to the basic reparation benefits claimed.

(2) If a claim qualifies for assignment under paragraphs (c) or (d) of subsection (1), the assigned claims bureau or any reparation obligor to whom the claim is assigned is subrogated to all rights of the claimant against any reparation obligor, its successor in interest or substitute, legally obligated to provide basic reparation benefits to the claimant, for basic reparation benefits provided by the assignee.

(3) Except in case of a claim assigned under subsection (1)(d), if a person receives basic reparation benefits through the assigned claims plan, all benefits or advantages he receives or is entitled to receive as a result of the injury, other than by way of succession at death, death benefits from life insurance, or in discharge of familial obligations of support, are subtracted in calculating net loss.

(4) A person who sustains injury while occupying a motor vehicle owned by such person and with respect to which security is required by the provisions on security and who fails to have such security in effect at the time of an accident in this Commonwealth causing such injury, shall not obtain through the assigned claims plan basic reparation benefits, including benefits otherwise due him as a survivor, unless such person's failure to have such security in effect at the time of such accident was solely occasioned by the failure of the reparation obligor of such person to provide the basic reparation benefits required by this act.

Section 17. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) Reparation obligors providing basic reparation insurance in this Commonwealth may organize and maintain, subject to approval and regulation by the commissioner of insurance, an assigned claims bureau and an assigned claims plan and adopt rules for their operation and for assessment of costs on a fair and equitable basis consistent with this act. If they do not organize and continuously maintain an assigned claims bureau and an assigned claims plan in a manner considered by the commissioner of insurance to be consistent with this act, he shall organize and maintain an assigned claims bureau and an assigned claims plan. Each reparation obligor providing basic reparation insurance in this Commonwealth shall participate in the assigned claims bureau and the assigned claims plan. Costs incurred shall be allocated fairly and equitably among the reparation obligors.

(2) The assigned claims bureau shall promptly assign each claim and notify the claimant of the identity and address of the assignee of the claim. Claims shall be assigned so as to minimize inconvenience to claimants. The assignee thereafter has rights and obligations as if he had issued a policy of basic reparation insurance complying with this act applicable to the injury or, in case of financial inability of a reparation obligor to perform its obligations, as if the assignee had written the applicable basic reparation insurance, undertaken the self-insurance, or lawfully obligated itself to pay reparation benefits.

Section 18. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2), a person authorized to obtain basic reparation benefits through the assigned claims plan shall notify the bureau of his claim within the time that would have been allowed for commencing an action for those benefits if there had been identifiable coverage in effect and applicable to the claim.

(2) If timely action for basic reparation benefits is commenced against a reparation obligor who is unable to fulfill his obligations because of financial inability, a person authorized to obtain basic reparation benefits through the assigned claims plan shall notify the bureau of his claim within six months after discovery of the financial inability.

Section 19. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

A person who converts a motor vehicle is disqualified from basic or added reparation benefits, including benefits otherwise due him as a survivor, from any source other than an insurance contract under which the converter is a basic or added reparation insured, for injuries arising from maintenance or use of the converted vehicle. If the converter dies from the injuries, his survivors are not entitled to basic or added reparation benefits from any source other than an insurance contract under which the converter is a basic reparation insured. For the purpose of this section, a person is not a converter if he uses the motor vehicle in the good faith belief that he is legally entitled to do so.

Section 20. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

A person intentionally causing or attempting to cause injury to himself or another person is disqualified from basic or added reparation benefits for injury arising from his acts, including benefits otherwise due him as a survivor. If a person dies as a result of intentionally causing or attempting to cause injury to himself, his survivors are not entitled to basic or added reparation benefits for loss arising from his death. A person intentionally causes or attempts to cause injury if he acts or fails to act for the purpose of causing injury or with knowledge that injury is substantially certain to follow. A person does not intentionally cause or attempt to cause injury merely because his act or failure to act is intentional or done with his realization that it creates a grave risk of causing injury or if the act or omission causing the injury is for the purpose of averting bodily harm to himself or another person.

Section 21. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) Basic and added reparation benefits are payable monthly as loss accrues. Loss accrues not when injury occurs, but as work loss, replacement services loss, or medical expense is incurred. Benefits are overdue if not paid within thirty days after the reparation obligor receives reasonable proof of the fact and amount of loss realized, unless the reparation obligor elects to accumulate claims for periods not exceeding thirty-one days after the reparation obligor receives reasonable proof of the fact and amount of loss realized, and pays them within fifteen days after the period of accumulation. If reasonable proof is supplied as to only part of a claim, and the part totals $100 or more, the part is overdue if not paid within the time provided by this section. Medical expense benefits may be paid by the reparation obligor directly to persons supplying products, services, or accommodations to the claimant.

(2) Overdue payments bear interest at the rate of twelve per cent (12%) per annum, except that if delay was without reasonable foundation the rate of interest shall be eighteen per cent (18%) per annum.

(3) A claim for basic or added reparation benefits shall be paid without deduction for the benefits which are to be subtracted pursuant to the provisions on calculation of net loss if these benefits have not been paid to the claimant before the reparation benefits are overdue or the claim is paid. The reparation obligor is entitled to reimbursement from the person obligated to make the payments or from the claimant who actually receives the payments.

(4) A reparation obligor may bring an action to recover benefits which are not payable, but are in fact paid, because of an intentional misrepresentation of a material fact, upon which the reparation obligor relies, by the insured or by a person providing an item of medical expense. The action may be brought only against the person providing the item of medical expense, unless the insured has intentionally misrepresented the facts or knows of the misrepresentation. An insurer may offset amounts he is entitled to recover from the insured under this subsection against any basic or added reparation benefits otherwise due.

(5) A reparation obligor who rejects a claim for basic reparation benefits shall give to the claimant prompt written notice of the rejection, specifying the reason. If a claim is rejected for a reason other than that the person is not entitled to the basic reparation benefits claimed, the written notice shall inform the claimant that he may file his claim with the assigned claims bureau and shall give the name and address of the bureau.

Section 22. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) If overdue benefits are recovered in an action against the reparation obligor or paid by the reparation obligor after receipt of notice of the attorney's representation, a reasonable attorney's fee for advising and representing a claimant on a claim or in an action for basic or added reparation benefits may be awarded by the court if the denial or delay was without reasonable foundation. No part of the fee for representing the claimant in connection with these benefits is a charge against benefits otherwise due the claimant.

(2) In any action brought against the insured by the reparation obligor, the court may award the insured's attorney a reasonable attorney's fee for defending the action.

Section 23. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

A reparation obligor may be allowed a reasonable attorney's fee for defending a claim for benefits that is fraudulent or so excessive as to have no reasonable foundation. The fee may be treated as an offset to benefits due or which thereafter accrue. The reparation obligor may recover from the claimant any part of the fee not offset or otherwise paid.

Section 24. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) If no basic or added reparation benefits have been paid for loss arising otherwise than from death, an action therefor may be commenced not later than two (2) years after the injured person suffers the loss and either knows, or in the exercise of reasonable diligence should know, that the loss was caused by the accident, or not later than four years after the accident, whichever is earlier. If basic or added reparation benefits have been paid for loss arising otherwise than from death, an action for further benefits, other than survivor's benefits, by either the same or another claimant, may be commenced not later than two years after the last payment of benefits.

(2) If no basic or added reparation benefits have been paid to the decedent or his survivors, an action for survivor's benefits may be commenced not later than one year after the death or four years after the accident from which death results, whichever is earlier. If survivor's benefits have been paid to any survivor, an action for further survivor's benefits by either the same or another claimant may be commenced not later than two years after the last payment of benefits. If basic or added reparation benefits have been paid for loss suffered by an injured person before his death resulting from the injury, an action for survivor's benefits may be commenced not later than one year after the death or four years after the last payment of benefits, whichever is earlier.

(3) If timely action for basic reparation benefits is commenced against a reparation obligor and benefits are denied because of a determination that the reparation obligor's coverage is not applicable to the claimant under the provisions on priority of applicability of basic reparation security, an action against the applicable reparation obligor or the assigned claims bureau may be commenced not later than sixty days after the determination becomes final or the last date on which the action could otherwise have been commenced, whichever is later.

(4) Except as subsections (1), (2), or (3) prescribe a longer period, an action by a claimant on an assigned claim which has been timely presented may be commenced not later than sixty days after the claimant received written notice of rejection of the claim by the reparation obligor to which it was assigned.

(5) If a person entitled to basic or added reparation benefits is under legal disability when the right to bring an action for the benefits first accrues, the period of his disability is a part of the time limited for commencement of the action.

Section 25. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

An assignment of or agreement to assign any right to benefits under this act for loss accruing in the future is unenforceable except as to benefits for:

(a) Work loss to secure payment of alimony, maintenance, or child support; or

(b) Medical expense to the extent the benefits are for the cost of products, services, or accommodations provided or to be provided by the assignee.

Section 26. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in this act, basic reparation benefits shall be paid without deduction or set-off.

Section 27. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) Basic or added reparation benefits for medical expense are exempt from garnishment, attachment, execution, and any other process or claim, except upon a claim of a creditor who has provided products, services, or accommodations.

(2) Basic reparation benefits other than those for medical expense are exempt from garnishment, attachment, execution, and any other process or claim to the extent that wages or earnings are exempt under any applicable law exempting wages or earnings from process or claims.

Section 28. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) If the mental or physical condition of a person is material to a claim for past or future basic or added reparation benefits, the reparation obligor may petition the circuit court for an order directing the person to submit to a mental or physical examination by a physician. Upon notice to the person to be examined and all persons having an interest, the court may make the order for good cause shown. The order shall specify the time, place, manner, conditions, scope of the examination, and the physician by whom it is to be made.

(2) If requested by the person examined, the reparation obligor causing a mental or physical examination to be made shall deliver to the person examined a copy of a detailed written report of the examining physician setting out his findings including results of all tests made, diagnoses, and conclusions, and reports of earlier examinations of the same condition. By requesting and obtaining a report of the examination ordered or by taking the deposition of the physician, the person examined waives any privilege he may have, in relation to the claim for basic or added reparation benefits, regarding the testimony of every other person who has examined or may thereafter examine him respecting the same condition. This subsection does not preclude discovery of a report of an examining physician, taking a deposition of the physician, or other discovery procedures in accordance with any rule of court or other provision of law. This subsection applies to examinations made by agreement of the person examined and the reparation obligor, unless the agreement provides otherwise.

(3) If any person refuses to comply with an order entered under this section the court may make any just order as to the refusal, but may not find a person in contempt for failure to submit to a mental or physical examination.

Section 29. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) Upon request of a basic or added reparation claimant or reparation obligor, information relevant to a claim for basic or added reparation benefits shall be disclosed as follows:

(a) An employer shall furnish a statement of the work record and earnings of an employee upon whose injury the claim is based. The statement shall cover the period specified by the claimant or reparation obligor making the request and may include a reasonable period before, and the entire period after, the injury.

(b) The claimant shall deliver to the reparation obligor a copy of every written report, previously or thereafter made, relevant to the claim, and available to him, concerning any medical treatment or examination of a person upon whose injury the claim is based and the names and addresses of physicians and medical care facilities rendering diagnoses or treatment in regard to the injury or to a relevant past injury, and the claimant shall authorize the reparation obligor to inspect and copy relevant records of physicians and of hospitals, clinics, and other medical facilities.

(c) A physician or hospital, clinic, or other medical facility furnishing examinations, services, or accommodations to an injured person in connection with a condition alleged to be connected with an injury upon which a claim is based, upon authorization of the claimant, shall furnish a written report of the history, condition, diagnoses, medical tests, treatment, and dates and cost of treatment of the injured person, and permit inspection and copying of all records and reports as to the history, condition, treatment, and dates and cost of treatment.

(2) Any person other than the claimant providing information under this section may charge the person requesting the information for the reasonable cost of providing it.

(3) In case of dispute as to the right of a claimant or reparation obligor to discover information required to be disclosed, the claimant or reparation obligor may petition the circuit court in the county in which the claimant resides for an order for discovery including the right to take written or oral depositions. Upon notice to all persons having an interest, the order may be made for good cause shown. It shall specify the time, place, manner, conditions, and scope of the discovery. To protect against annoyance, embarrassment, or oppression, the court may enter an order refusing discovery or specifying conditions of discovery and directing payment of costs and expenses of the proceeding, including reasonable attorney's fees.

Section 30. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) There is created a non-profit unincorporated legal entity to be known as the Kentucky Insurance Arbitration Association to provide a mechanism for the reimbursement, among reparation obligors of losses paid as basic or added reparation benefits, based solely on the law of torts without regard to subsections (1), (2) and (3) of Section 6 of this act.

(2) All basic reparation obligors shall be and remain members of the Association as a condition of their authority to transact business in this Commonwealth.

(3) The Association shall perform its functions under a plan of operation established and approved under subsection (5) and shall exercise its powers through a board of directors established under subsection (4) hereof.

(4) The board of directors of the Association shall consist of not less than three nor more than five persons serving terms as established in the plan of operation. They shall be selected by member obligors subject to the approval of the commissioner. If no members have been selected and approved prior to July 1, 1974, the commissioner shall appoint the initial members of the board. In approving selections to the board, the commissioner shall consider, among other things, whether all member obligors are fairly represented:

(a) Each member of the board shall designate two qualified experienced claimsmen from his company, either of whom upon approval by the commissioner, may serve as his alternate for the purpose of claims arbitration.

(5) The Association shall submit to the commissioner a plan of operation and any amendments thereto necessary, or suitable to assure the fair, reasonable and equitable administration of the Association. The plan shall become effective upon approval in writing by the commissioner:

(a) All reparation obligors shall comply with the provisions of the plan of operation;

(b) The plan of operation shall:

(i) Establish procedures whereby all the powers and duties of the Association will be performed;

(ii) Establish minimum requirements for the initial submission of a case for reimbursement or arbitration;

(iii) Establish minimum requirements beneath which reimbursements shall not be made in order that there be fair allocation of significant losses and the elimination of unnecessary costs in the reimbursement mechanism;

(iv) Encourage voluntary reimbursement procedures between reparation obligors so that resort to arbitration shall be as infrequent as possible;

(v) Recognize that fair allocation of loss between commercial and non-commercial motor vehicles may require different minimum requirements than when the loss is between two or more non-commercial vehicles;

(vi) Establish regular places and times for meetings;

(vii) Establish procedures for records to be maintained on all cases presented for arbitration and dispositions thereof;

(viii) Establish procedures for compensation to reparation obligors for travel related expense and the fair value of the time devoted by their employees as a director or alternate in performance of duties for the Association;

(ix) Establish procedures for adequately and equitably financing the cost of the Association among members; and

(x) Contain additional provisions necessary or proper for execution of the powers and duties of the Association.

(6) The Association shall be subject to examination and regulation by the commissioner:

(a) The board of directors shall submit to the commissioner, not later than March 30 of each year, a report on its activities for the preceding calendar year;

(b) The board of directors shall promptly notify the commissioner whenever it appears that any member insurer has failed or refused to comply with an arbitration decision or has shown a protracted tendency to decline a significant number of meritorious claims presented to it prior to initiation of arbitration proceedings.

(7) The Association shall be exempt from payment of all fees, license and taxes levied by this Commonwealth or any of its subdivisions except taxes on real or personal property.

(8) There shall be no liability on the part of and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against any member insurer, the Association or its agents or employees, the board of directors, or the commissioner or his representative for any action taken by them in the performance of their powers and duties under this section.

Section 31. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

The commissioner of insurance may adopt rules to provide effective administration of this act which are consistent with the purposes of this act and fair and equitable to all persons whose interests may be affected.

Section 32. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

The department of transportation may adopt rules to implement and provide effective administration of the provisions on evidence of security and termination of security.

Section 33. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) If the department of transportation determines that a person has violated the provisions of Section 11 of this act requiring that he provide security covering the vehicle, it shall revoke the license or permit of such person for a period of not more than six months; or if the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this Commonwealth, the department shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for a period of six months after the date of the alleged violation, subject to the review as hereinafter provided.

(2) Upon revoking the license, permit to drive, or non-resident operating privilege of any person, or upon determining that the issuance of a license or permit shall be denied to the person, the commissioner of the department of transportation shall immediately notify the person in writing by mailing the notice to the person by certified or registered mail to the last known residence address of the person, or, if the address is unknown, to the last known business address of the person. Within ten days after receiving the notice, the person may request a hearing before the commissioner. Request for a hearing does not suspend the order of revocation. The hearing shall be scheduled as early as practical within not to exceed twenty days after receipt of such request at a time and place designated by the commissioner. The notice of hearing shall be served in the same manner as the notice of revocation or denial of a license. For the purpose of the hearing, the commissioner may appoint an examiner who shall have to preside at the hearing. Upon the hearing the commissioner or his duly authorized agent may administer oaths and may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of relevant books and papers and may require a re-examination of the licensee. The scope of the hearing shall cover the issue of whether the person registered or knowingly operated or used upon the public streets, roads and highways of this Commonwealth any motor vehicle which was not then an insured vehicle as required in Section 11 of this act. All testimony at the hearing shall be recorded. The commissioner's ruling shall include a statement of the findings of fact, rulings of law and other matters pertinent to the question at issue. The commissioner within ten days after completion of the hearing shall order that the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance either be rescinded or sustained. The commissioner shall immediately notify the person of his ruling in writing by certified or registered mail.

(3) If the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance is sustained after the hearing, the person whose license, permit to drive, or nonresident operating privilege has been revoked, or to whom a license or permit is denied, under the provisions of this section, may file a petition in the circuit court of the county in which the person resides or in the circuit court of the county in which the alleged offense was committed, or in Franklin Circuit Court to review the final order of revocation or denial by the commissioner within twenty days after the final order has been issued. The appeal does not suspend the order of revocation or denial unless a stay thereof is allowed by the court pending a final judgment of the court finding against the person appealing. The period of revocation or denial is determined by taking into account the period of time during which the revocation or denial was effective before the stay was granted. The department of transportation shall file with its answer a copy of the commissioner's ruling and a transcript of evidence. The court's review is limited to whether the commissioner's ruling is supported by substantial evidence and whether his action is arbitrary or capricious. An appeal to the Court of Appeals does not suspend the order of revocation or denial unless a stay thereof is allowed by the court pending a final determination of the review. If a stay is allowed, and the final judgment of the court finds against the person appealing, the period of revocation or denial is determined by taking into account the period of time during which the revocation or denial was effective before the stay was granted.

(4) When it has been finally determined that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this Commonwealth has been revoked, the department shall give information in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which he has a license.

(5) A license which shall have been revoked shall be surrendered to and retained by the department. At the end of the period of revocation, the license may be returned to the licensee.

(6) Any person who fails to surrender a license which has been revoked in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be fined not less than $2 nor more than $500 or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both.

Section 34. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

Every insurer shall make available upon request to its insureds underinsured motorist coverage, whereby subject to the terms and conditions of such coverage the insurance company agrees to pay its own insured for such uncompensated damages as he may recover on account of injury due to a motor vehicle accident because the judgment recovered against the owner of the other vehicle exceeds the policy limits thereon, to the extent of the policy limits on the vehicle of the party recovering less the amount paid by the liability insurer of the party recovered against. His insurance company shall be subrogated to any amounts it so pays, and upon payment shall have an assignment of the judgment against the other party to the extent of the money it pays.

Section 35. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) The rates for bodily injury and property damage liability in the amounts specified in Section 11 of this act combined with the rates for uninsured motorists coverage in equal amounts and for basic reparation benefits coverage shall be reduced by each insurer by not less than fifteen per cent (15%) as of the effective date of this act from the rates in effect for each such insurer immediately prior to such date for bodily injury and property damage liability in the amounts specified in Section 11 of this act combined with the rates for uninsured motorists coverage and the rates charged for $1,000 per person medical expense coverage. Such reduced rates shall remain in effect for at least one year. There shall be no exception to the requirements of this section unless the commissioner shall find that the use of such reduced rates required as to any insurer will result in rates which are inadequate under Chapter 304 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply to any policy covering a motor vehicle for which a person who would otherwise be a basic reparation insured has rejected the limitations upon his tort rights and liabilities in accordance with the provisions of Section 6 (4).

Section 36. A new section of KRS Chapter 304 is created to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2), if any provisions of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held to be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid, the remainder of this act and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby, and it shall be conclusively presumed that the legislature would have enacted the remainder of this act without such invalid or unconstitutional provision.

(2) If the exemption from liability to pay damages in Section 6 is held to be unconstitutional or invalid as respects substantial numbers of persons or circumstances, it shall be conclusively presumed that the legislature would not have enacted the remainder of the act without such exemption and the entire act shall be held invalid; provided, however, any or all of the exceptions to the liability exemption are severable and the invalidity of any or all of the exemptions shall not impair the validity of the remainder of the act.

HB 259, AN ACT relating to retail installment contracts.

Section 1. KRS 371.260 is amended to read as follows:

(1) [Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, a] A retail installment contract payable in substantially equal successive monthly installments beginning one month from the date of the contract may provide for, and the seller or holder may then charge, collect and receive a time price differential in the maximum amounts set forth in sections (2), (3), and (4) of this section. No time price differential in excess of these amounts shall be charged or collected.

(2) On contracts for the construction or improvement of a single family residence where a first lien is taken on the property where the building affected is located or to be located, the maximum time price differential shall be the same as the maximum interest rate provided for mortgages on real estate loans for the purchase of comparable property.

(3) On contracts for the construction or improvement of a single family residence where a first lien is not taken on the property, the maximum time-price differential shall be equal to the maximum interest rate that savings and loan institutions are allowed to charge on property improvement loans which are not secured by a first lien.

(4) On other retail installment contracts, the maximum time-price differential shall be at the following rates, calculated as the annual percentage rate is calculated for the purposes of disclosure under the Federal Truth in Lending Act:

(a) Not exceeding 18 percent annual percentage rate on the first $2,000 and

(b) Not exceeding 12 percent annual percentage rate on any amounts in excess of $2,000.

(5) Any seller who collects or attempts to collect any rates in excess of those provided for in this section shall forfeit a sum equal to the greater of three times the amount of the excess time-price differential he charged or attempted to charge, or the total of the time-price differential provided for in the contract. If a seller refuses to make restitution in accordance with the provisions of this section after written notification of the purchaser's right to refund or credit, the purchaser shall be entitled to any reasonable attorney's fees incurred in enforcing his rights under this section.

(6) [(2)] *Notwithstanding the provisions of any retail installment contract to the contrary, any buyer may prepay in full the unpaid time balance thereof at any time before its final due date and, if he does so, shall receive a refund credit thereon for such prepayment. Section 1. KRS 138.460 is amended to read as follows:

- (1) On and after July 1, 1972 a tax levied upon its retail price at the rate of five percent shall be paid on the use in this state of every motor vehicle, except those exempted by KRS 138.470, at the time and in the manner provided in this section. In the case of trucks of gross weight in excess of ten thousand pounds (10,000 lbs.) the tax shall be levied upon ninety percent of the retail price of the vehicle.

The county clerk shall for his services in collecting the tax be entitled to retain an amount equal to two percent of the tax collected and accounted for.

(4) No county clerk or other officer shall register or issue any license tags to the owner of any motor vehicle subject to this tax, when the vehicle is then being offered for registration for the first time, or transfer the ownership of any motor vehicle previously registered in this state, unless the owner or his agent pays the tax levied under this section in addition to the transfer, registration and license fees.

The extension however must be requested prior to the end of the seven-day period and shall begin to run at the end of said period. All penalties collected under this provision shall be paid into the State Treasury as a part of the revenue collected under KRS 138.450 to 138.655.

HB 517, AN ACT relating to school taxes.

WHEREAS, it is the specific intent of the legislature to provide that school taxes be levied in the school district rather than county-wide; and

WHEREAS, it is desirable that a referendum be held on the tax, if a certain number of voters equal to a specific percentage of the votes cast in the district, protest the tax;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 160.593 is amended to read as follows:

Any board of education of a school district may, after compliance with the public hearing requirement contained in KRS 160.603, request the fiscal court to levy in its district one (1) of the school taxes authorized by KRS 160.593 to 160.597, 160.601 to 160.627, 160.633 to 160.648 KRS [160.605 to 160.611, 160.613 to 160.617, and 160.621 to 160.633]. The fiscal court shall levy in the district, within fifteen (15) days of such request, the school tax at the rate requested. The imposition of any tax levied under the provisions of this Act shall be limited to the territory of the school district requesting the levy. [All taxes referred to in this section shall be levied on a county-wide basis unless the school board of a school district within the county requests that the tax levied shall not be assessed against the residents of its school district, in which case the residents of that school district shall be exempted from the tax.] In those counties where one (1) of the taxes referred to by this section is in effect county-wide on the effective date of this Act. [June 16, 1972], the taxes shall continue to be levied on a county-wide basis. Revenue produced by such taxes shall be distributed on an average Daily Attendance to those districts levying such taxes.

Section 2. KRS 160.595 is amended to read as follows:

The imposition of school taxes authorized by KRS 160.593 to 160.597, 160.601 to 160.627, 160.633 to 160.648 [160.605 to 160.611, 160.613 to 160.617, 160.621 to 160.633] shall be by order or resolution of the fiscal court. No more than one such order or resolution shall be passed in any one (1) calendar year, and no more than one (1) school tax authorized by KRS 160.593 to 160.597, 160.601 to 160.627, 160.633 to 160.648 [160.605 to 160.611, 160.613 to 160.617, 160.621 to 160.633] shall be in effect in any one (1) district at any one (1) time.

Section 3. KRS 160.485 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The imposition of license fees authorized hereby shall be by order or resolution of the fiscal court. There shall be no more than one (1) such order or resolution passed in any (1) one calendar year. In the case of license fees required to be imposed pursuant to subsection (2) of KRS 160.484 the fiscal court shall make the order or resolution within ten (10) days following receipt of the first request which makes subsection (2) of KRS 160.484 effective.

(2) The order or resolution of the fiscal court imposing license fees pursuant to subsections (1), (2), or (4) of KRS 160.484 shall go into effect thirty (30) days after its passage. If during the thirty (30) days next following the passage of the order or resolution a petition signed by a number of registered and qualified voters equal to fifteen per cent (15%) of the votes cast in the county or district for the office receiving the greatest total vote at the last preceding presidential election is presented to the fiscal court protesting against passage of the order or resolution, the order or resolution shall be suspended from going into effect until after the election referred to in subsection (3) of this section. Each sheet of the petition shall contain the names and addresses of voters in but one (1) voting precinct, and each sheet shall state the name, number, or designation of the precinct and, where applicable, the name, designation, or number of the district or ward wherein the precinct is situated. Each voter shall sign his name in the same manner as he signed the current registration form described in KRS 117.630 or subsection (2) of KRS 117.720, as the case may be. If the signature is difficult to read, the voter shall, on the same line legibly write or print his name in the same fashion as he signed it. One or more persons shall verify by affidavit the signatures and addresses of the signers of the petition. The board or boards of registration in the county shall give necessary and appropriate aid to the fiscal court so that the latter body may make the initial, but not conclusive, determination of whether the petition contains enough signatures of qualified voters to suspend the effect of the order or resolution.

(3) Thereupon the fiscal court shall submit to the voters of the county at the next regular election or called common school district election, either of which to be held not less than sixty (60) days from the date of passage of said order or resolution, the question as to whether such license fees for common school purposes shall be levied. The question shall be so framed that the voter may by his vote answer, "for" or "against." If a majority of the votes cast upon the question oppose its passage, the order or resolution shall not go into effect. If a majority of the votes cast upon the question favor its passage, the order or resolution shall go into effect.

(4) License fees imposed pursuant to KRS 160.482 to 160.488 shall become applicable upon the date specified in the order or resolution, but in no event later than the first day of the calendar year first beginning after the day upon which the said order or resolution is made.

The Committee Amendment to HB 517 is as follows:

Amend printed copy of HB 517, page 4, line 20, by inserting after the word "county" the words "or district"

The clerk shall obtain a receipt for the payment of such costs which shall be included in his settlement with the Department of Finance.

(3) In courts inferior to the circuit court, [except in counties containing a city of the second class,] each juror shall be paid $1.50 for each case in which he serves, but if the same juror serves on more than two juries in one day he shall not be allowed a fee for the cases in excess of two.

(4) The fiscal court of any county may by ordinance provide that jurors in courts inferior to the circuit court be paid out of the county's general fund at a maximum rate of five dollars ($5.00) per day for jury service; provided, however, that the rate shall not be less than that set in subsection (3) of this section. [In courts inferior to the circuit court, in counties containing a city of the second class, each juror shall be paid $1.50 for each case in which he serves, but if the same juror serves on more than two juries in one day he shall not be allowed a fee for the cases in excess of two.]

In default thereof, he shall be liable for the tax to the amount of the income that he might have so applied, which liability may be enforced by equitable proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction. In such proceedings it shall not be an answer that the city has a security in its lien upon the lands and improvements and the right to sell same for taxes.

(2) Tax bills assessed against an administrator, executor or trustee shall be a charge upon and may be enforced against the whole succession of trust estates, in addition to other remedies provided for in this chapter.

When the tax bill is against a married person [woman], it may also be levied upon such personal property of the spouse [her husband], not exempt from levy under a like tax bill against himself, as is found on any of the lands or improvements for which the married person [woman] is assessed.

(2) Sales of personal property under such tax bills shall be for cash.

(3) In selling personal property, the levy, advertisements, sale and delivery shall be made in the same manner as in the sale of goods levied under execution on a replevin bond.

Section 18. KRS 92.710 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The treasurer of each city of the second class shall, within ten (10) days after selling real property for taxes, make a written report thereof to the city auditor. The report shall show the time and place of the sale, the name of each delinquent, the years for which the sale was made, the number of each tax bill, the amount of taxes, interest, penalties and costs on each tax bill for each year, the name of the purchaser, the amount paid, and a brief description, by lot and block numbers as shown by the city maps or some other method sufficiently accurate to identify each parcel, of the property sold. The report shall be recorded in the auditor's office in an appropriate book provided for that purpose, with an alphabetical index of the names of delinquents whose property has been sold, and with appropriate columns and spaces opposite each name in which shall be entered a record of the sale and redemption of the property or of its conveyance to the purchaser in case it is not redeemed. The original report of the treasurer shall likewise be preserved. Upon the purchase of any real property by any person other than the city and the payment of the purchase price, the treasurer shall give the purchaser a certificate of purchase, which shall be in substance a copy of the treasurer's report as to the property bought. A duplicate of each such certificate shall be recorded in a book kept for that purpose as a public record in the auditor's office. In cases where the property is bought by the city, it shall not be necessary for the treasurer to issue a certificate of purchase, but the treasurer's report shall be deemed his certificate of any such purchase by the city.

(2) The collector of each city of the third class, after selling any real property for taxes, shall return upon the same paper upon which his levy is written a description of the property sold, the time and place of sale, a statement that he first advertised the sale according to law, the name of the purchaser and the amount paid by him for the property sold. The collector shall deliver the levy and return to the office of the city clerk, who shall record or bind it in a book kept for that purpose, and the original return of the collector shall also be filed and preserved in the office of the city clerk. The collector shall make all sales, returns and settlements before the end of the fiscal year. The collector shall give to the purchaser of any real property sold by him for taxes, except when the city is the purchaser, a certificate of purchase, containing a description of the land purchased, the time of sale, the quantity sold, the price, the amount of taxes sold for, and the year or years for which the taxes were owed. The certificate will be sufficiently descriptive if the property can be conveniently found from an inspection of the map of the city or, if the property is not properly described in the map, if the description is otherwise sufficient to enable the purchaser to find the property. All certificates of purchase shall be recorded or bound in a book kept for that purpose by the city clerk, as a public record. The collector's return of any sale of real property to the mayor for the use of the city shall be deemed his certificate of such purchase by the city.

(3) The collector or treasurer of each city of the fourth class, within twenty (20) days after selling any real property for taxes, shall report in writing to the county clerk of the county in which the city is located. The report shall show when the sale was made, the steps taken by the collector or treasurer prior to and at the sale, the name of the purchaser, the price, and a full description of the property. The county clerk shall record and index the report in the book in which he records the sheriff's report of tax sales. Such reports, when recorded, shall operate as conveyances to the purchasers, whether the city or private persons, and shall vest in the purchasers the title of the persons whose property was sold at the sale, except that of persons under legal disability, and shall be constructive notice as to the claim existing in favor of the purchaser against the real property of persons under no legal disability. The county clerk shall have a fee of fifty cents (50) for each entry so made.

(4) The collector or treasurer of each city of the fourth class shall, within thirty (30) days after each sale of real property, issue to the purchaser a certificate of purchase, describing the property sold and stating the time of sale and the price. If the collector or treasurer fails to make the report of sale to the county clerk provided for in subsection (3) of this section, any purchaser may file with the county clerk the collector's or treasurer's certificate of purchase. The clerk shall then record and index the certificate of purchase in the book mentioned in subsection (3) of this section, and it shall have the same effect as the collector's or treasurer's report would have had if returned.

(5) Any purchaser, other than the city, of real property sold for taxes of a city of the fourth class shall forfeit his right to the purchase unless, within six (6) months after the collector or treasurer delivers to him the certificate of purchase, the purchaser gives written notice of his purchase as follows:

The plaintiff shall, before any judgment is rendered, give good security to the defendant, to be approved by the court, that he will pay all taxes for which the property is adjudged to be sold, and shall, before any deed to the property sold under the judgment is made, produce to the court and file in the action proper and legal receipts for such taxes. (2) If the property is redeemed from the city, the city clerk shall collect the amount of the tax, penalty and costs from the delinquent taxpayer, and give him a receipt therefor.

(3) When a redemption is made, the purchaser shall mark the word "redeemed" on the margin of the record book provided for in subsection (3) of KRS 92.710, in a space left for that purpose, with the date and his signature. (7) Resident landowners, their spouses [wives] or dependent children who kill or trap on their lands any wild animals or birds causing damage to such lands or any personal property situated thereon, shall not be required to have a hunting or trapping license. Benefits under this subsection shall apply notwithstanding benefits which may be payable under subsections (1) and (3).

(3) Where the survivor is a child age eighteen or older whose mental or physical condition is sufficient to cause his dependency on the deceased member at the time of the member's death the benefit shall be one hundred and fifty dollars per month, payable for the life of such child or until such time as the mental or physical condition creating the dependency no longer exists. Benefits under this subsection and subsection (2) shall apply to legally adopted survivors provided the proceedings for the adoption were initiated at least one year prior to the death of the member. Benefits under this subsection shall apply notwithstanding benefits which may be payable under subsections (1) and (2) and shall be in addition to such benefits.

The benefit to a widow, dependent widower, dependent parent or dependent brother or sister or dependent child age eighteen or older shall terminate upon marriage, or upon termination of the condition creating the dependency. The benefit shall not be paid during the time the survivor, other than a child is receiving an annuity, pension or allowance in excess of three hundred dollars per month from a retirement or pension system in the State of Kentucky financed in whole or part by public contributions, excluding Old Age and Survivors Insurance.

(7) The board of trustees shall be the sole judge of eligibility or dependency of any beneficiary, and may require formal application or information relating thereto, including proof of annual income satisfactory to the board. The board of trustees may subpoena records and individuals whenever it deems such action necessary.

(8) No payments of benefits shall be made unless the board of trustees shall have authorized such payments. (9) In the event that there are no eligible survivors as defined in subsections (1), (2), (3), (4), and (5) of this section, the board of trustees shall pay to the estate or assigns of the deceased member a refund of his accumulated contributions as provided in KRS 161.470 (8). (3) In an action to terminate parental rights under this section the parents, if the child is legitimate, or [the mother] if the child is born out of wedlock, the mother or the father if paternity is established in legal action or if an affidavit is filed stating that the affiant is father of the child, must be personally summoned; or where personal service cannot be made, must be constructively summoned as provided in the Rules of Civil Procedure.

(3) Assess a just compensation to each owner and tenant for the land required and sought to be appropriated for the establishment of the levee, and the damages to the residue of the tracts beyond the consequential benefits which will be derived to such residue from the levee. If a person has only an estate for life or years in the land and the remainder in fee belongs to another, the commissioners shall apportion the damages between them.

(4) Make a signed written report to the court, setting forth the information obtained under subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section, with a map or diagram of the proposed route of the levee, and stating whether or not the proposed levee will be conducive to the public health, convenience or welfare, or whether it will be of public benefit or utility. If the commissioners find that the proposed levee is not of public benefit or utility, their report need only state that finding.

(1) The board of levee commissioners shall superintend the construction, care and protection of the levee, and see that convenient crossings of the levee are made at the intersection of all public roads and at such private crossings as the commissioners may establish.

(2) At any time the commissioners deem the levee in danger of being damaged, after being built, by wind or high water, they shall, after giving six (6) hours' notice to all [male] persons between the ages of eighteen (18) and fifty (50) residing within the territory protected by the levee, require them to assemble at a point designated by the commissioners, and aid in the repair and protection of the levee, for which they shall be paid by the commissioners at the rate of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per day.

(3) No person liable to work under this section shall fail to do so after being notified.

Section 55. KRS 267.240 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon final reference to it by the court of any drainage proceedings, the board shall give notice by publication pursuant to KRS chapter 424 in the county in which the improvement is located, of the time and place of letting the work of construction and of the approximate amount of work to be done and the time fixed for its completion. On the date appointed for the letting the board, together with the chief engineer, shall convene and let the work to the lowest responsible bidder, either as a whole or in sections, as they may deem most advantageous for the district. No bid shall be entertained that exceeds the estimated cost unless for good reasons it is shown that the original estimate was erroneous. The board may reject all bids and advertise again, if it believes it will be in the interest of the district to do so. The board may employ persons [men] and teams and lease, rent, hire or purchase machinery and equipment, and directly construct the improvement according to the plans and specifications, without letting a contract. The board may exercise the same power in cleaning out, straightening and reconstructing old public ditches, but the expense in any case shall not exceed the estimate of the drainage engineer for the work.

(2) If the board accepts a bid, the successful bidder shall be required to enter into a contract with the board and to execute a bond for the faithful performance of such contract, with sufficient sureties, in favor of the board for the use and benefit of the district, in an amount equal to fifty per cent (50%) of the estimated cost of the work awarded to him. The board may maintain action for breach of the contract against any contractor and the sureties on his bond, and in case of breach of the contract the work may be advertised and relet in the same manner as the original letting.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, all improvements made under this chapter, as well as all public ditches or drains established or constructed under pre-existing laws, shall be under the control and supervision of the board having jurisdiction of the proceedings for the establishment and construction thereof. The board shall keep all such improvements open, free from obstruction and in good repair. For that purpose the board may employ persons [men] and teams, and lease, rent, hire or purchase machinery.

(2) For the purpose of providing funds to pay the compensation of the employees of the board, outside of that portion to be paid out of the original assessment on any district, and for the purpose of paying the expense of repairing, keeping open and looking after the various improvements under the charge of the board, the land in each district established under this chapter, as well as the land assessed for each public ditch or system of drainage established under pre-existing laws, shall be assessed in proportion to the original assessment made against the land for the original improvement, except that where a district has been established diverting the course of water, the board may, in order to relieve land taxed and from which water has been diverted, use funds of the district in maintaining the original watercourse.

(3) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, no assessment in any one (1) year for the purposes prescribed in subsection (2) of this section shall exceed ten per cent (10%) of the original assessment against the land, and no more than one (1) assessment shall be made in any one (1) year.

(b) In counties having seventy-five (75) or more separate drainage districts or in counties availing themselves of the provisions of this subsection as provided in KRS 267.495, when a petition signed by a majority of the landowners in any drainage district is filed with and approved by the drainage commissioner, the latter may levy a maintenance assessment not exceeding thirty per cent (30%) of the original assessment against the land. The number of assessments which may be levied shall be limited as follows: Where the assessment is ten per cent (10%) but not over fifteen per cent (15%) no more than one assessment may be levied during any eighteen (18) month period; where the assessment is sixteen per cent (16%) but not over twenty per cent (20%) no more than one assessment may be levied during any two (2) year period; where the assessment is twenty-one per cent (21%) but not over twenty-five per cent (25%) no more than one assessment may be levied during any two-and-one-half (2 1/2) year period; and where the assessment is thirty per cent (30%) but not less than twenty-six per cent (26%) no more than one assessment may be levied during any three (3) year period.

(c) No assessment shall be made until the board has prepared an assessment roll, in duplicate, stating the name of the owners of the land to be affected, and the amount proposed to be assessed against each tract of land. Both the assessment roll and the duplicate shall be signed by the president and secretary of the board. The original shall be kept on file in the office of the board and the duplicate shall be filed with the collector of the assessment. These additional assessments shall have the same effect as original assessments and be collected in the same manner. They shall be kept separate and deposited with the treasurer, who shall keep the accounts for each district separate. Each warrant drawn shall specify out of which account it shall be paid.

(4) The board may compromise and settle, upon such terms and conditions as it deems proper, any maintenance assessment made, levied or assessed prior to February 17, 1936, and may do everything necessary to release and discharge any claim, demand or lien upon land established, made or claimed prior to February 17, 1936, under or by reason of any such maintenance assessment.

(2) This section does not prevent the bona fide exchange of transportation for advertising matter actually contracted for.

(3) No person, other than those mentioned in subsection (4) of KRS 276.060 and in paragraphs (a) to (t) of subsection (1) of this section, shall accept, use or attempt to use any transportation or evidence of right to transportation given or issued in violation of subsection (1) of this section.

Section 58. KRS 276.260 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, no express company or carrier of property by water shall give transportation of property within this state to any person free or at reduced rates not common to the public.

(2) Nothing in this chapter shall prevent any express company or carrier of property by water from handling property free or at reduced rates for the United States, or for this state or any county or city of this state; or for charitable purposes; or to and from fairs or expositions for exhibition thereat; or for the exclusive use or consumption of its officers, agents, employees, attorneys, physicians or surgeons and their families; nor shall anything in this chapter prevent the exchange of passes or franks with any telegraph company or telephone company or with any other common carrier so that by the exchange all such companies may give to the officers, agents, employees, attorneys, physicians, surgeons and their families of the other companies the same privileges given to their own officers, agents, employees, attorneys, physicians, surgeons and their families. The term "employees" as used in this subsection includes furloughed, pensioned and superannuated employees, persons who have become disabled or infirm in the service of the company, the remains of persons killed in the employment of the company, and persons traveling for the purpose of entering the service of the company. The term "families" as used in this subsection includes the families of persons killed in the employment of the company, and the widows and widowers, during widowhood and widowerhood, and the minor children of persons who have died while in the service of the company.

Section 59. KRS 289.381 is amended to read as follows:

An association and any federal savings and loan association may issue savings accounts to any [married woman or] minor as the sole and absolute owner of such savings account, and receive payments thereon by or for such owner, and pay withdrawals, accept pledges to the association, and act in any other manner with respect to such accounts on the order of such [married woman or] minor. Any payment or delivery of rights [to a married woman or] by a minor who holds a savings account, shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge of such institution for any payment so made or delivery of rights to such [married woman or] minor. [In the case of a minor,] T[t]he receipt, acquittance, pledge or other action required by the institution to be taken by the minor shall be binding upon such minor with like effect as if he were of full age and legal capacity. The parent or guardian of such minor shall not in his capacity as parent or guardian have the power to attach or in any manner to transfer any savings account issued to or in the name of such minor, provided, however, that in the event of the death of such minor the receipt or acquittance of either parent or of a person standing in loco parentis to such minor shall be a valid and sufficient discharge of such institution for any sum or sums not exceeding in the aggregate $1,000 unless the minor shall have given written notice to the institution not to accept the signature of such parent or person.

Section 60. KRS 304.9-150 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Application for an agent, solicitor, or consultant license shall be made to the commissioner by the applicant, and be signed and sworn to by the applicant before a notary public or other person authorized by law to take acknowledgments of deeds.

(2) The form of application shall require full answers to such questions as may be reasonably necessary to determine the applicant's identity, residence, personal history, business record, financial responsibility, experience in insurance, purpose for which the license is to be used, and other facts as required by the commissioner to determine whether the applicant meets the applicable qualifications for the license applied for.

(3) If for an agent's or consultant's license the application shall state the kinds of insurance proposed to be transacted, and if an agent's, be accompanied by written appointment of the applicant as agent for such kinds of insurance, by an authorized insurer, subject to issuance of the license.

(4) If for solicitor's license, the application shall be accompanied by written appointment of the applicant as solicitor by a licensed resident general lines agent, subject to issuance of the license.

(5) If the applicant for an agent's license is a firm or corporation, the application shall show in addition, the names of all members, officers and directors, and shall designate each individual who is to exercise the license powers; and each such individual shall furnish information with respect to himself, as part of the application, as though for an individual license.

(6) If for license as agent, or solicitor, or consultant, the application shall also show whether the applicant was ever previously licensed to transact any kind of insurance in this state or elsewhere; whether any such license was ever refused, suspended, revoked or renewal or continuance denied, whether any insurer, general agent, agent, claims applicant to be indebted to it, and if so, the details thereof; whether applicant has ever had an agency contract canceled, and the facts thereof; and, if applicant is a married person [woman], like information with respect to the spouse [her husband].

(7) As part of such application for agent's or solicitor's license, the commissioner shall require the certificate of the insurer or agent, proposed to be represented, relative to applicant's identity, residence, experience or instruction as to the kinds of insurance to be transacted, trustworthiness and reputation.

(8) All such applications shall be accompanied by the applicable license fee, appointment fee, and examination fee, in the respective amounts stated in KRS 304.4-010.

(9) No applicant for license under this subtitle shall wilfully misrepresent or withhold any fact or information called for in the application form or in connection therewith.

Section 61. KRS 336.050 is amended to read as follows:

The commissioner in person or by representative shall:

(1) Investigate and ascertain the wages of all persons [women and minors] employed in this state.

(2) Enter the place of business or employment of any employer [of women or minors] to examine and inspect all books, registers, payrolls, and other records that have a bearing upon the question of wages of employees [women or minors], and to ascertain whether the orders of the commissioner are complied with; and

(3) Require from the employer a full and correct statement in writing when the commissioner or his representative considers it necessary, of the wages paid to all persons [women and minors] in his employment.

(4) Upon complaint, prosecute any violation of any of the provisions of any law which it is his duty to administer or enforce.

Section 62. KRS 342.075 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The following persons shall be presumed to be wholly dependent upon a deceased employee:

(a) A surviving spouse [wife] upon a decendent [husband] whom the surviving spouse [she] had not voluntarily abandoned at the time of the accident, or who having been abandoned by the decedent [her husband] has not engaged in such conduct since his abandonment as would at common law constitute grounds justifying the abandonment of such wife by her husband or such husband by his wife;

[(b) A husband incapacitated from wage earning, upon a wife whom he has not voluntarily abandoned at the time of the accident to the wife; and]

(b)/[(c)] A child or children under the age of sixteen (16) years, or over sixteen (16) years if incapacitated from wage earning, upon the parent with whom such child or children are living, or by whom actually supported, or from whom support is legally required by judgment of a court, at the time of the accident.

(2) In all other cases the relation of dependency in whole or in part shall be determined in accordance with the facts of each case existing at the time of the accident.

(3) No person shall be considered a dependent in any degree unless he is living in the household of the employee at the time of the accident, or unless such person bears to the employee the relation of father, mother, husband, or wife, father-in-law or mother-in-law, grandfather or grandmother, child or grandchild, or brother or sister of the whole or half blood.

Section 63. KRS 342.130 is amended to read as follows:

Compensation under this chapter to alien dependent widows, widowers and children, not residents of the United States, shall be one-half (1/2) of the amount provided in each case for residents. The employer may at any time commute all future instalments of compensation to alien dependents the then value thereof. Alien [widowers,] parents, brothers and sisters not residents of the United States, shall not be entitled to any compensation.

(1) The benefits in case of death shall be paid to such one or more dependents of the deceased employee for the benefit of all the dependents entitled thereto, as are determined by the board. The dependents to whom payments are made shall apply the same to the use of the persons entitled thereto under this chapter, according to their respective claims on the deceased for support. The compensation of an insane person shall be paid to his committee.

(2) If the dependents are a widow, widower or other head of a family of minor children and one or more minor children, it shall be sufficient for the widow, widower or head of the family to make application for compensation on behalf of all. Where the dependents are mentally incapacitated or are minors the head of whose family is not a dependent, the application may be made by the committee, guardian or next friend of such dependents.

Section 65. KRS 342.730 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Income benefits for disability shall be paid to the employee as follows, subject to the maximum and minimum limits specified in KRS 342.740:

(a) For total disability, 55 per cent of his average weekly wage during such disability, and two and one-half per cent of his average weekly wage for each dependent up to a maximum of three.

(b) In all other cases of permanent partial disability, including any disfigurement which will impair the future usefulness or occupational opportunities of the injured employee, or employee disabled by an occupational disease, compensation shall be determined according to the percentage of disability, taking into account, among other things, any previous disability, the nature of the physical injury or disfigurement, the occupation of the injured employee and age at the time of injury or at the time the disability from an occupational disease began. The compensation paid therefor shall be 55 per cent of the average weekly earnings of the employee at the time of his injury and two and one-half per cent of his average weekly wage at the time of injury for each dependent up to a maximum of three, subject to the limitations contained in KRS 342.740, multiplied by the percentage of disability caused by the injury or occupational disease; provided, however, the individual entitled to benefits under permanent partial disability shall be entitled to compensation based on lost wages or body functional disability benefits, whichever is greater.

(c) For total permanent bodily loss or losses herein scheduled, after and in addition to the income benefits payable during the period of recovery, scheduled income benefits in the amount of 55 per cent of the average weekly wage as follows: BODILY LOSS

	WEEKS OF DISABILITY
1. Arm	340
2. Leg	340
3. Hand	312
4. Foot	216
5. Thumb	86
6. Index Finger	54
7. Middle Finger	43
8. Ring Finger	22
9. Little Finger	16
10. Great Toe	30
11. Second Toe	20
12. Third Toe	15
13. Fourth Toe	8
14. Fifth Toe	5
15. Total loss of binaural hearing	156
16. Total loss of vision of one eye	150
17. Total loss of bilateral vision	520
18. Total loss, or total loss of use, of both hands, both arms, both feet or both legs	520
19. Phalanges: For loss of distal phalanx, one-half of the income benefits for loss of the entire digit.
For loss of more than the distal phalanx of a digit, the same as loss of the entire digit.

20. Two or more digits: For loss of two or more digits, or one or more phalanges of two or more digits, of a hand or foot, scheduled income benefits may be proportioned to the loss of use of the hand or foot occasioned thereby, but shall not exceed the scheduled income benefits for loss of a hand or foot.

21. Total loss of use: Scheduled income benefits for permanent total loss of use of a member shall be the same as for loss of the member.

22. Partial loss or partial loss of use: Scheduled income benefits for permanent partial loss of use of a member shall be for a period proportionate to the period benefits are payable for total loss or total loss of use of the member as such partial loss bears to total loss.

23. Loss of hearing or partial loss of bilateral vision: Scheduled income benefits for partial loss of vision in one or both eyes, or total loss of hearing in one ear, or partial loss of hearing in one or both ears shall be for a period proportionate to the period benefits are payable for total bilateral loss of vision or total binaural loss of hearing as such partial loss bears to total loss. The provisions of paragraphs (d) to (h) of subsection (2) of this section shall apply to scheduled losses of hearing.

24. In any case in which there shall be a loss or loss of use of more than one member or parts of more than one member set forth in subparagraphs 1. to 23. of this subsection, scheduled income benefits shall be for the loss of use of each such member or part thereof, with the periods of benefits to run consecutively.

25. Other losses: Proper and equitable scheduled income benefits shall be paid for serious permanent disfigurement of face, head, neck or other area normally exposed and for loss or loss of function of a major member or organ when such disfigurement or loss is of a kind likely to handicap the employee in securing or holding employment.

26. In any case of total or partial loss of use of a member or organ, of hearing or vision, or in any case of disfigurement, determination of the period for which scheduled income benefits are payable shall not be made until the maximum of healing and of restoration function has been attained.

27. If the effects of any of the injuries, or disabilities, from occupational diseases, or losses, mentioned in this section adversely affect a workman's ability to labor, or limit his occupational opportunities to obtain the kind of work he is customarily able to do; his compensation benefits shall not be limited to the amounts provided by this section, and he shall be awarded compensation benefits under some other applicable or appropriate section of this chapter which would provide more compensation benefits for his disability.

(2) Occupational deafness means permanent partial or permanent total loss of hearing of one or both ears caused by prolonged exposure to harmful noise in employment. The following provisions shall apply exclusively to loss of hearing compensable under this subsection:

(a) No claim for scheduled income benefits shall be heard until the lapse of six full consecutive calendar months after the termination of exposure to harmful noise in employment. The time limitation for the filing of claims for occupational deafness shall not begin to run earlier than the day following the termination date of such six months' period. The time for filing claim as provided under this paragraph shall be applicable not only in respect of the last employer, but also in respect of any prior employer who may have liability to pay compensation for the occupational deafness.

(b) No employer shall be liable for the payment of scheduled income benefits for occupational deafness unless the employee claiming benefits shall have worked for such employer in employment exposing the employee to harmful noise for a total period of at least 90 days.

(c) An employer, otherwise liable under this subsection, whose employment has contributed to any extent to an employee's occupational deafness shall be liable for the full extent of the deafness of the employee, unless such employer shall establish by competent evidence (including the results of a professionally controlled hearing test) the extent of the employee's deafness as it existed prior to exposure to harmful noise in the employer's employment. Upon such showing the employer shall be liable to the employee only for the proportion of the deafness attributable to employment by him. An employer liable to the employee for the full extent of the employee's occupational deafness may implead, in a compensation proceeding on the employee's claim, any prior employer or employers in whose employment the employee had been exposed to harmful noise, and if it should be found that the impleaded employer would have been liable to the employee under this subsection, had the employee proceeded against him, under the claim being adjudicated, the employer held liable shall be entitled to an award against the impleaded employer. The impleading of an employer shall be accomplished by notice on a form prescribed by the board. Such notice shall be sent to the impleaded employer and to the board. An award may be made in favor of the employer liable to the employee, and against the impleaded employer or employers, which award may be enforced in the same manner as awards to employees. The impleaded employer or employers shall bear equal shares with the employer of the employer's liability to the employee, unless the evidence warrants a different apportionment.

(d) Losses of hearing due to industrial noise for compensation purposes shall be confined to the frequencies of 500, 1,000, and 2,000 cycles per second. Loss of hearing ability for frequency tones above 2,000 cycles per second are not to be considered as constituting disability for hearing.

(e) The percent of hearing loss, for purposes of the determination of compensation claims for occupational deafness, shall be calculated as the average, in decibels, of the thresholds of hearing for the frequencies of 500, 1,000, and 2,000 cycles per second. Pure tone air conduction audiometric instruments, approved by nationally recognized authorities in this field, shall be used for measuring hearing loss. If the losses of hearing average 15 decibels or less in the three frequencies, such losses of hearing shall not then constitute any compensable hearing disability. If the losses of hearing average 82 decibels or more in the three frequencies, then the same shall constitute and be a total or 100 percent compensable hearing loss.

(f) In measuring hearing impairment, the lowest measured losses in each of the three frequencies shall be added together and divided by three to determine the average decibel loss. For every decibel of loss exceeding 15 decibels an allowance of one and one-half percent shall be made up to the maximum of 100 percent which is reached at 82 decibels.

(g) In determining the binaural percentage of loss, the percentage of impairment in the better ear shall be multiplied by five. The resulting figure shall be added to the percentage of impairment in the poorer ear and the sum of the two divided by six. The final percentage shall represent the binaural hearing impairment.

(h) Before determining the percentage of hearing impairment, in order to allow for the average amount of hearing loss from non-occupational causes found in the population at any given age, there shall be deducted from the total average decibel loss, one-half decibel for each year of the employee's age over 40 at the time of last exposure to industrial noise.

(i) No consideration shall be given to the question of whether or not the ability of an employee to understand speech is improved by the use of a hearing aid.

(3) The period of any scheduled income benefits payable under this section on account of any injury shall be reduced by the period of income benefits paid or payable under this chapter on account of a prior injury if scheduled income benefits in both cases are for disability of the same member or function, or different parts of the same member or function, and the scheduled income benefits payable on account of the subsequent disability in whole or in part would duplicate the scheduled income benefits payable on account of the pre-existing disability.

(4) When an employee, who has sustained disability compensable under this section, and who has filed a valid claim in his lifetime, dies from causes other than the injury before the expiration of the compensable period specified, the income benefits specified and unpaid at the individual's death, whether or not accrued or due at his death, shall be paid, under an award made before or after such death, for the period specified in this section, to and for the benefit of the persons within the classes at the time of death and in the proportions and upon the conditions specified in this section and in the order named:

(a) To the widow or [wholly actually dependent] widower, if there is no child under the age of 18 or incapable of self-support; or

(b) If there are both such a widow or widower and such a child or children one-half to such widow or widower and the other half to such child or children; or

(c) If there is no such widow or widower but such a child or children, then to such child or children; or

(d) If there is no survivor in the above classes, then the parent or parents wholly or partly actually dependent for support upon the decedent, or to other wholly or partly actually dependent relatives listed in paragraph (g) of subsection (1) of KRS 342.750 or to both, in such proportions as the board may provide by regulation.

Section 66. KRS 351.060 is amended to read as follows:

He shall be thoroughly familiar with all methods of safety pertaining to the operation of mines.

(2) The commissioner shall have a practical knowledge of:

(a) The different systems of working and ventilating coal mines.

(b) The nature, chemistry and properties of noxious, poisonous and explosive gases, the dangers due to such gases and the prevention of such dangers.

(j) The methods used in locating oil and gas wells when drilled through any coal seam.

(k) The proper manner of drilling and plugging oil and gas wells.

(l) Mining engineering.

(m) The methods for the prevention of explosions in mines due to gas or dust.

(3) The commissioner shall be capable of efficiently reporting on any proposed development in mining operations or the possibility of operating any coal seam.

Section 67. KRS 351.120 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Board of Examiners shall issue a certificate to each person who possesses the qualifications required by law for mine inspector, electrical inspector, mine safety instructor, assistant mine foreman, mine foreman or fire boss, who has passed the examination given by direction of the board for that position and meets the requirements of subsection (6) of this section.

(2) The certificate shall be in such form as the commissioner prescribes, shall be signed by the members of the Board of Examiners, and shall show that the holder has passed the required examination and possesses the qualifications required by law for mine inspector, electrical inspector, mine safety instructor, assistant mine foreman, mine foreman or fire boss, and is authorized to act as such.

(3) Certificates issued to mine foremen, assistant mine foremen, and fire bosses shall be classified as follows:

(a) Mine Foreman certificates, authorizing the holder to act as foreman for all classes of coal or clay mines;

(b) Assistant mine foreman certificates, authorizing the holder to act as assistant foreman. Upon the completion of five years' mining experience evidenced by acceptable affidavits, the holder may apply to the board for a mine foreman's certificate;

(c) Fire boss certificates, authorizing the holder to act as fire boss or mine examiner in any mine.

(4) Any mine foreman or assistant mine foreman may act as fire boss or mine examiner, and any regularly employed fire boss may act in an emergency as a mine foreman or assistant mine foreman. This shall not apply to persons holding a second class mine foreman certificate issued before June 16, 1972.

(6) Although a trust is a spendthrift trust, the interest of the beneficiary shall be subject to the satisfaction of an enforceable claim against the beneficiary:

If, however, there is a surplus of the land or proceeds of sale after satisfying the lien, surviving spouse [she] may have dower or curtesy out of that surplus of the land or compensation out of the surplus of the proceeds, unless they were received or disposed of by the decedent [husband] in his lifetime.

(2) No heir shall be bound by any collusive or ex parte assignment of dower or curtesy to the surviving spouse [wife], except so far as the surviving spouse [she] shows himself [herself] to have been justly entitled to the dower or curtesy.

The incompetent person [wife] and his [her] committee, if he [she] has one, shall be made defendants to the action; if he [she] has no committee, the court shall appoint an attorney to defend for him [her], to whom the court shall make a reasonable allowance to be paid by the spouse of the incompetent person [husband]. A description of the land shall be given in the petition and the [husband's] evidence of title of the spouse of the incompetent person filed therewith. If any person [female] under eighteen [sixteen] years of age marries without the consent of the parent [her father] or guardian, [or of her mother if there is no father or guardian or he is absent from the state,] the court having general equity jurisdiction in the county of his [her] residence shall, on the petition of a next friend, commit his [her] estate to a receiver, who, upon giving bond, shall hold his [her] estate and, after deducting a reasonable compensation for his services, pay out the rents and profits to his [her] separate use during his [her] infancy, under the direction of the court. When the person [wife] arrives at the age of eighteen the receiver shall deliver his [her] estate to him [her], unless the court considers it for his [her] benefit to continue it in the hands of the receiver.

(1) The fiscal court of any county may, by resolution, authorize the appointment of a "friend of the court." If the circuit court of the county has but one judge, the appointment shall be made by the judge. If the court has two or more judges, the appointment shall be made by joint action of the judges, at the general term. The person appointed to the office of friend of the court shall serve at the pleasure of, and subject to removal by, the appointing authority. The person appointed shall be a licensed practicing attorney. He shall take the constitutional oath of office and shall give bond in such sum as may be fixed by the appointing judge or judges.

(2) It shall be the duty of the friend of the court to supervise and enforce the payment of sums ordered or adjudged by the circuit court in divorce actions to be paid for the care and maintenance of minor children. All persons who have been ordered or adjudged by the court, in connection with divorce actions, to make payments for the care and maintenance of children, shall, if so ordered by the court, make such payments to the friend of the court, and he shall see that the payments are properly applied in accordance with the order or judgment. However, if the court so directs, the payments may be made through the juvenile court of the county; in such case the friend of the court shall render such assistance as may be required in keeping records concerning such payments and in the enforcement of delinquent payments, and the circuit court may direct that a designated amount or portion of the funds appropriated by the fiscal court for expenses of the friend of the court be paid to the juvenile court as reimbursement for the expenses incurred by the juvenile court in connection with the handling of such payments. The friend of the court shall promptly investigate all cases where payments have become delinquent, and when necessary shall cause the delinquent person to be brought before the court for the purpose of compelling payment. He shall ascertain the facts concerning the care, custody, and maintenance of children for whom payments are being made, and shall report to the court all cases in which the children are not receiving proper care or maintenance, or in which the person having custody is failing to furnish proper custody. He shall make such other reports to the court as the court may require.

(3) In any action for divorce where the parties have minor children, the friend of the court, if requested by the trial judge, shall make such investigation as will enable him to ascertain all facts and circumstances that will affect the rights and interests of the children and will enable the court to enter just and proper orders and judgment concerning the care, custody and maintenance of the children. He shall make a report to the trial judge, at a time fixed by the judge, setting forth his recommendations as to the care, custody and maintenance of the children. He may request the court to postpone the final submission of any case to give him a reasonable time in which to complete his investigation.

(4) The friend of the court shall have authority to secure the issuance by the court of any order, rule or citation necessary for the proper enforcement of orders and judgments in divorce actions concerning the custody, care and maintenance of children. In performing his duties under subsection (3) of this section he shall attend the taking of depositions within the county, and shall have authority to cross-examine the witnesses; in the case of depositions taken on interrogatories, he may file cross interrogatories. He shall be duly notified of the time and place of the taking of depositions in all divorce actions where the parties have minor children, and shall attend the taking of all such depositions when he deems it necessary for the protection of the minor children, or when he may be directed by the court to attend.

(5) The friend of the court shall not directly or indirectly represent any party to a divorce action except as he is herein authorized to represent the minor children of parties to a divorce action, but if an allowance is made for the support of a spouse [mother] and an [her] infant child or children, he may proceed to enforce the payment of the allowance made to the spouse [mother] also.

(6) The fiscal court of any county which has authorized the appointment of a friend of the court under this section shall, by resolution, fix a reasonable compensation for the friend of the court and make a reasonable allowance for his necessary expenses, equipment and supplies, payable out of the general fund of the county, upon approval of the judge or judges appointing him.

(1) After hearing the case the court shall enter a judgment of adoption, if it finds that the facts stated in the petition were established; that all legal requirements, including jurisdiction, relating to the adoption have been complied with; that the petitioners are of good moral character, of reputable standing in the community and of ability to properly maintain and educate the child, and that the best interest of the child will be promoted by the adoption and that the child is suitable for adoption. In the judgment the name of the child shall be changed to conform with the prayer of the petition. The judgment and all orders required to be entered and recorded in the order book, including the caption, shall contain only the names of the petitioners and the proposed adopted name of the child, without any reference whatsoever to its former name or the names of its birth parents.

(2) From and after the date of the judgment the child shall be deemed the child of petitioners and shall be considered for purposes of inheritance and succession and for all other legal considerations, the natural, legitimate child of the parents adopting it the same as if born of their bodies. Except where a natural parent is the spouse of an adoptive parent an adopted child from the time of adoption shall have no legal relationship to its birth parents in respect to either personal or property rights.

(3) The clerk of the court shall notify the department of any action of the court with respect to entering a judgment granting an adoption, the amendment of an adoption, or the denial or dismissal of a petition for adoption.

The Committee Substitute for HB 379 is as follows:

HB 379, AN ACT relating to adoption.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 199.470 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who is eighteen (18) years of age and who is a resident of this state or who has resided in this state for twelve (12) months next before filing, may file a petition for leave to adopt a child in the circuit court of the county in which the petitioner resides.

(2) If the petitioner is married, the husband or wife must join in a petition for leave to adopt a child unless the petitioner is married to a natural parent of the child to be adopted, except that if the court finds the requirement of a joint petition would serve to deny the child a suitable home, such requirement may be waived.

(3) No petition for the adoption of any child under the age of sixteen (16) shall be filed until after the child has lived continuously in the home of the petitioner for at least three (3) months immediately prior to the filing of the petition unless the child has been placed for adoption by the Department or an agency licensed to place children for adoption by the Department. In the case of a child placed for adoption by the Department or an agency licensed by the Department, the petition may be filed at the time of placement.

(4) No petition for adoption shall be filed unless prior to the filing of the petition the child sought to be adopted has been placed for adoption by a licensed child-placing institution or agency or by the department, or the child has been placed with written approval of the commissioner; but no such approval shall be necessary in the case of:

(a) A child sought to be adopted by a stepparent, grandparent, sister, brother, aunt or uncle;

(b) A child received by the proposed adopting parent or parents from an agency without this state with the written consent of the commissioner.

(5) Subsection (4) of this section shall not apply to those children placed for adoption prior to June 14, 1962.

(a) Whether the contents of the petition required by KRS 199.490 are true;

(b) Whether the proposed adoptive parents are financially able and morally fit to have the care, custody and training of the child; and

(c) Whether the adoption is to the best interest of the child and the child is suitable for adoption.

(2) The report of the department or the designated person, agency or institution shall be filed with the court as soon as practicable but not later than one hundred-eighty (180) [ninety (90)] days after the filing date of the petition unless for good cause the court by written order extends the period of time for filing the report. If the department or the designated person, agency or institution is unable to make the report, it shall within ten (10) days of receipt of the petition notify the court of its inability to conduct the investigation, and the court may designate some other person, agency or institution to make the necessary investigation. If the court designates some other person, agency or institution, the clerk shall forward one (1) copy of the petition to such person, agency or institution and shall notify the department of such other designation at the time he forwards the petition to the department.

(3) If the department is a party defendant, its reports, if it files no other pleadings, shall be considered its answer to the petition.

(4) The clerk's fee for copying and forwarding the copies of the petitions required by this section shall be taxed as a cost of the action.

Section 3. KRS 199.520 is amended to read as follows:

(1) After hearing the case the court shall enter a judgment of adoption, if it finds that the facts stated in the petition were established; that all legal requirements, including jurisdiction, relating to the adoption have been complied with; that the petitioners are of good moral character, of reputable standing in the community and of ability to properly maintain and educate the child, and that the best interest of the child will be promoted by the adoption and that the child is suitable for adoption. In the judgment the name of the child shall be changed to conform with the prayer of the petition. The judgment and all orders required to be entered and recorded in the order book, including the caption, shall contain only the names of the petitioners and the proposed adopted name of the child, without any reference whatsoever to its former name or the names of its birth parents.

(2) Upon entry of the judgment of adoption, from [From] and after the date of the filing of the petition, [judgment] the child shall be deemed the child of petitioners and shall be considered for purposes of inheritance and succession and for all other legal considerations, the natural, legitimate child of the parents adopting it the same as if born of their bodies. Except where a natural parent is the spouse of an adoptive parent an adopted child from the time of adoption shall have no legal relationship to its birth parents in respect to either personal or property rights.

(3) The clerk of the court shall notify the department of any action of the court with respect to entering a judgment granting an adoption, the amendment of an adoption, or the denial or dismissal of a petition for adoption.

HB 398, AN ACT relating to the interstate agreement on detainers.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. A new section of KRS Chapter 440 is created to read as follows:

The Agreement on Detainers is hereby enacted into law and entered into by the Commonwealth of Kentucky with all other jurisdictions legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

The contracting states solemnly agree that:

Article 1

The party states find that charges outstanding against a prisoner, detainers based on untried indictments, informations or complaints, and difficulties in securing speedy trial of persons already incarcerated in other jurisdictions, produce uncertainties which obstruct programs of prisoner treatment and rehabilitation. Accordingly, it is the policy of the party states and the purpose of this agreement to encourage the expeditious and orderly disposition of such charges and determination of the proper status of any and all detainers based on untried indictments, informations or complaints. The party states also find that proceedings with reference to such charges and detainers, when emanating from another jurisdiction, cannot properly be had in the absence of cooperative procedures. It is the further purpose of this agreement to provide such cooperative procedures.

Article 11

As used in this agreement:

(1) "State" shall mean a state of the United States; the United States of America; a territory or possession of the United States; the District of Columbia; the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

(2) "Sending state" shall mean a state in which a prisoner is incarcerated at the time that he initiates a request for final disposition pursuant to Article 111 hereof or at the time that a request for custody or availability is initiated pursuant to Article 1V hereof.

(3) "Receiving state" shall mean the state in which trial is to be had on an indictment, information or complaint pursuant to Article 111 or Article 1V hereof.

Article 111

(1) Whenever a person has entered upon a term of imprisonment in a penal or correctional institution of a party state, and whenever during the continuance of the term of imprisonment there is pending in any other party state any untried indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which a detainer has been lodged against the prisoner, he shall be brought to trial within one hundred eighty days after he shall have caused to be delivered to the prosecuting officer and the appropriate court of the prosecuting officer's jurisdiction written notice of the place of his imprisonment and his request for a final disposition to be made of the indictment, information or complaint: provided that for good cause shown in open court, the prisoner or his counsel being present, the court having jurisdiction of the matter may grant any necessary or reasonable continuance. The request of the prisoner shall be accompanied by a certificate of the appropriate official having custody of the prisoner, stating the term of commitment under which the prisoner is being held, the time already served, the time remaining to be served on the sentence, the amount of good time earned, the time of parole eligibility of the prisoner, and any decisions of the state parole agency relating to the prisoner.

(2) The written notice and request for final disposition referred to in paragraph (1) hereof shall be given or sent by the prisoner to the warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of him, who shall promptly forward it together with the certificate to the appropriate prosecuting official and court by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested.

(3) The warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of the prisoner shall promptly inform him of the source and contents of any detainer lodged against him and shall also inform him of his right to make a request for final disposition of the indictment, information or complaint on which the detainer is based.

(4) Any request for final disposition made by a prisoner pursuant to paragraph (1) hereof shall operate as a request for final disposition of all untried indictments, informations or complaints on the basis of which detainers have been lodged against the prisoner from the state to whose prosecuting official the request for final disposition is specifically directed. The warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of the prisoner shall forthwith notify all appropriate prosecuting officers and courts in the several jurisdictions within the state to which the prisoner's request for final disposition is being sent of the proceeding being initiated by the prisoner. Any notification sent pursuant to this paragraph shall be accompanied by copies of the prisoner's written notice, request, and the certificate. If trial is not had on any indictment, information or complaint contemplated hereby prior to the return of the prisoner to the original place of imprisonment, such indictment, information or complaint shall not be of any further force or effect, and the court shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice.

(5) Any request for final disposition made by a prisoner pursuant to paragraph (1) hereof shall also be deemed to be a waiver of extradition with respect to any charge or proceeding contemplated thereby or included therein by reason of paragraph (4) hereof, and a waiver of extradition to the receiving state to serve any sentence there imposed upon him, after completion of his term of imprisonment in the sending state. The request for final disposition shall also constitute a consent by the prisoner to the production of his body in any court where his presence may be required in order to effectuate the purposes of this agreement and a further consent voluntarily to be returned to the original place of imprisonment in accordance with the provisions of this agreement. Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent the imposition of a concurrent sentence if otherwise permitted by law.

(6) Escape from custody by the prisoner subsequent to his execution of the request for final disposition referred to in paragraph (1) hereof shall void the request.

Article 1V

(1) The appropriate officer of the jurisdiction in which an untried indictment, information or complaint is pending shall be entitled to have a prisoner against whom he has lodged a detainer and who is serving a term of imprisonment in any party state made available in accordance with Article V (1) hereof upon presentation of a written request for temporary custody or availability to the appropriate authorities of the state in which the prisoner is incarcerated: provided that the court having jurisdiction of such indictment, information or complaint shall have duly approved, recorded and transmitted the request: and provided further that there shall be a period of thirty days after receipt by the appropriate authorities before the request be honored, within which period the governor of the sending state may disapprove the request for temporary custody or availability, either upon his own motion or upon motion of the prisoner.

(2) Upon receipt of the officer's written request as provided in paragraph (1) hereof, the appropriate authorities having the prisoner in custody shall furnish the officer with a certificate stating the term of commitment under which the prisoner is being held, one time already served, the time remaining to be served on the sentence, the amount of good time earned, the time of parole eligibility of the prisoner, and any decisions of the state parole agency relating to the prisoner. Said authorities simultaneously shall furnish all other officers and appropriate courts in the receiving state who have lodged detainers against the prisoner with similar certificates and with notices informing them of the request for custody or availability and of the reasons therefor.

(3) In respect of any proceeding made possible by this Article, trial shall be commenced within one hundred twenty days of the arrival of the prisoner in the receiving state, but for good cause shown in open court, the prisoner or his counsel being present, the court having jurisdiction of the matter may grant any necessary or reasonable continuance.

(4) Nothing contained in this Article shall be construed to deprive any prisoner of any right which he may have to contest the legality of his delivery as provided in paragraph (1) hereof, but such delivery may not be opposed or denied on the ground that the executive authority of the sending state has not affirmatively consented to or ordered such delivery.

(5) If trial is not had on any indictment, information or complaint contemplated hereby prior to the prisoner's being returned to the original place of imprisonment pursuant to Article V(5) hereof, such indictment, information or complaint shall not be of any further force or effect, and the court shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice.

Article V

(1) In response to a request made under Article 111 or Article 1V hereof, the appropriate authority in a sending state shall offer to deliver temporary custody of such prisoner to the appropriate authority in the state where such indictment, information or complaint is pending against such person in order that speedy and efficient prosecution may be had. If the request for final disposition is made by the prisoner, the offer of temporary custody shall accompany the written notice provided for in Article 111 of this agreement. In the case of a federal prisoner, the appropriate authority in the receiving state shall be entitled to temporary custody as provided by this agreement or to the prisoner's presence in federal custody at the place for trial, whichever custodial arrangement may be approved by the custodian.

(2) The officer or other representative of a state accepting an offer of temporary custody shall present the following upon demand:

(a) Proper identification and evidence of his authority to act for the state into whose temporary custody the prisoner is to be given.

(b) A duly certified copy of the indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which the detainer has been lodged and on the basis of which the request for temporary custody of the prisoner has been made.

(3) If the appropriate authority shall refuse or fail to accept temporary custody of said person, or in the event that an action on the indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which the detainer has been lodged is not brought to trial within the period provided in Article 111 or Article 1V hereof, the appropriate court of the jurisdiction where the indictment, information or complaint has been pending shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice, and any detainer based thereon shall cease to be of any force or effect.

(4) The temporary custody referred to in this agreement shall be only for the purpose of permitting prosecution on the charge or charges contained in one or more untried indictments, informations or complaints which form the basis of the detainer or detainers or for prosecution on any other charge or charges arising out of the same transaction. Except for his attendance at court and while being transported to or from any place at which his presence may be required, the prisoner shall be held in a suitable jail or other facility regularly used for persons awaiting prosecution.

(5) At the earliest practicable time consonant with the purposes of this agreement, the prisoner shall be returned to the sending state.

(6) During the continuance of temporary custody or while the prisoner is otherwise being made available for trial as required by this agreement, time being served on the sentence shall continue to run but good time shall be earned by the prisoner only if, and to the extent that, the law and practice of the jurisdiction which imposed the sentence may allow.

(7) For all purposes other than that for which temporary custody as provided in this agreement is exercised, the prisoner shall be deemed to remain in the custody of and subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and any escape from temporary custody may be dealt with in the same manner as an escape from the original place of imprisonment or in any other manner permitted by law.

(8) From the time that a party state receives custody of a prisoner pursuant to this agreement until such prisoner is returned to the territory and custody of the sending state, the state in which the one or more untried indictments, informations or complaints are pending or in which trial is being had shall be responsible for the prisoner and shall also pay all costs of transporting, caring for, keeping and returning the prisoner. The provisions of this paragraph shall govern unless the states concerned shall have entered into a supplementary agreement providing for a different allocation of costs and responsibilities as between or among themselves. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to alter or affect any internal relationship among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

Article VI

(1) In determining the duration and expiration dates of the time periods provided in Articles 111 and 1V of this agreement, the running of said time periods shall be tolled whenever and for as long as the prisoner is unable to stand trial, as determined by the court having jurisdiction of the matter.

(2) No provision of this agreement, and no remedy made available by this agreement, shall apply to any person who is adjudged to be mentally ill.

Article VII

Each state party to this agreement shall designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this agreement, and who shall provide, within and without the state, information necessary to the effective operation of this agreement.

Article VIII

This agreement shall enter into full force and effect as to a party state when such state has enacted the same into law. A state party to this agreement may withdraw herefrom by enacting a statute repealing the same. However, the withdrawal of any state shall not affect the status of any proceedings already initiated by inmates or by state officers at the time such withdrawal takes effect, nor shall it affect their rights in respect thereof.

Article IX

This agreement shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate its purposes. The provisions of this agreement shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this agreement is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any party state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this agreement and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this agreement shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state party hereto, the agreement shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

Section 2. A new section of KRS Chapter 440 is created to read as follows:

The phrase "appropriate court" as used in the Agreement on Detainers shall, with reference to the courts of this state, mean the circuit court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 3. A new section of KRS Chapter 440 is created to read as follows:

Section 4. A new section of KRS Chapter 440 is created to read as follows:

Section 5. A new section of KRS Chapter 440 is created to read as follows:

An escape from custody in another state while in custody in another state pursuant to the Agreement on Detainers shall be deemed, for all purposes, as an escape from confinement in this state and may be punished as provided by KRS 432.370, 432.380, 432.390, or other provision of law, as applicable.

Section 6. A new section of KRS Chapter 440 is created to read as follows:

It shall be lawful and mandatory upon the warden or other official in charge of a penal or correctional institution in this state to give over the person of any inmate thereof whenever so required by the operation of the Agreement on Detainers.

Section 7. A new section of KRS Chapter 440 is created to read as follows:

In all cases of conviction for a felony the fee of ten dollars ($10.00) herein allowed shall be taxed against the defendant as costs in favor of the commonwealth.

HB 439, AN ACT providing for the use of certified mail, return receipt requested, in lieu of registered mail.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 16.140 is amended to read as follows:

(1) With the exceptions hereinafter specified, no officer of the department shall be removed, suspended, reduced in grade or pay for any reason except inefficiency, misconduct, insubordination or violation of law or of any rule or regulation promulgated by the commissioner. Any person may prefer charges in writing against any officer, which must be filed in the office of the commissioner. The charges must be signed by the person making the same, and must set out with clarity and distinction each and every charge. The commissioner, whenever probable cause appears, shall prefer charges against any officer whom he believes to have been guilty of conduct justifying his removal or punishment, in the interest of public order. Within five (5) days after the filing of charges, the commissioner shall deliver a copy thereof, [either] personally, [or] by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested[,] to the officer offending. Within five (5) days after the receipt thereof, the officer may demand public hearing, or may admit the truth of the charges in whole or in part. If the officer admits the truthfulness of the charges, the commissioner shall remove, suspend, reduce in rank or pay the officer so offending, in proportion to the seriousness of the charges.

(2) If the charges are denied and the officer demands a hearing within the time above specified, he must make his demand known to the commissioner in writing. After demand for hearing has been made, the commissioner within twenty (20) days from the date thereof, shall arrange for a public hearing before a trial board to be constituted in the manner hereinafter provided. The officer defendant shall be given not less than five (5) days' notice of the time, place and hour of the hearing.

(3) Upon the hearing, all charges shall be considered traversed and put in issue, and the trial shall be confined and limited to the issues presented by the written charges. The trial board hearing the charges may summon and compel the attendance of witnesses at all hearings or sittings, by subpoena issued by the commissioner and served upon any witness by any sheriff or other person authorized by law to serve process. If any person fails to comply with any lawful order of the department or with process, or if any witness refuses to testify concerning any matter in which he may lawfully be interrogated, any circuit court judge, upon application of the trial board, or the commissioner, may compel obedience by proceedings for contempt as in the case of disobedience of a subpoena issued from the circuit court or a refusal to testify therein.

(4) The officer defendant shall have the right to subpoena in his behalf any witnesses he may desire, upon furnishing their names to the trial board or to the commissioner. The officer shall likewise have the right to appear in person and by counsel.

(5) All charges against the officer defendant; together with all proceedings before the trial board, shall be transcribed and reduced to writing and a permanent record kept thereof.

(6) In any instance where the commissioner has probable cause to believe that an officer has been guilty of conduct justifying his removal or punishment, he may immediately suspend the officer from duty, or from both pay and duty, pending trial, and the officer shall not be again placed on duty or allowed pay thereafter until a determination of the charges under this section.

(7) The trial board, after hearing the charges, shall fix the punishment of any officer found guilty of any one (1) or more charges, by reprimand or suspension for any length of time not to exceed six (6) months, or by reducing the grade if the officer's classification warrants same, or by combining any two (2) or more of the punishments, or by reducing the monthly salary of the officer by not more than twenty per cent (20%) for not more than six (6) months, or by removing or dismissing from the service of the department any officer so found guilty.

(8) For the purpose of hearing charges against any officer, as hereinabove set forth, there is created a trial board; which shall consist of the commissioner and of a panel of ten (10) officers of the department appointed by the commissioner. The commissioner shall designate from the panel not less than three (3) nor more than seven (7) members thereof to hear charges against any officer in the manner and under the procedure above set forth. The commissioner may promulgate reasonable rules and regulations governing the procedure before the trial board, which do not conflict with this section. The panel or trial board shall be a continuing body, and the officers designated shall serve thereon in addition to their other duties and without any increase in compensation, except they may be reimbursed for meals, lodging and traveling expenses incurred while in the performance of their official duties as members of the board. Any officer defendant may for cause challenge the right of any member of the board in the trial of any action against him, and if the remaining members of the board find that the challenge is justifiable, the member of the board shall be excused from hearing the charges, and another member substituted in lieu thereof.

(9) No officer is entitled to a hearing as provided in this section, unless his suspension is for more than twenty (20) days, or his pay reduced more than ten per cent (10%); but if the officer receives more than twenty (20) days suspension or reduction in salary of more than ten per cent (10%) within a period of one (1) year, he shall have the right to such hearing in the manner above provided.

(10) Any civilian employe may be discharged, suspended or reduced in pay at any time by the commissioner, pursuant to KRS chapter 18.

(11) Any officer appointed to the department shall be considered on probation for a period of one (1) year from and after the date of his appointment, and during that period may be discharged or suspended or reduced in rank or pay, with or without cause, by the commissioner. The rights conferred upon an officer for a hearing, as provided in this section, shall not accrue until such officer has been employed by the department for a period of one (1) year or more.

Section 2. KRS 39.410 is amended to read as follows:

In case property is taken for temporary use, the governor shall, within thirty (30) days of the taking, fix the amount of compensation to be paid therefor. In case such property shall be returned to the owner in a damaged condition or shall not be returned to the owner, the governor shall, within thirty (30) days after the taking, fix the amount of compensation to be paid for such damage or failure to return. Whenever the governor shall deem it advisable for the state to take title to property taken under this section, he shall forthwith cause the owner of such property to be notified thereof in writing by registered mail, postage prepaid or by certified mail, return receipts requested, and forthwith cause to be filed a copy of said notice with the secretary of state.

Section 3. KRS 40.120 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If a claim is disapproved, the administrator shall send a notice of such decision to the claimant by mail at the address shown in the application. The notice shall be in such form as the administrator may determine, shall contain a designation of the reason for disapproval, shall inform the claimant of his or her right to seek review, shall have attached such form of request for review as the administrator may prescribe, and shall give information as to procedure for review.

(2) Application for review of the administrator's disapproval shall be made only on the forms prescribed and furnished by the administrator; and shall be received in the office of the administrator by the closing hour in the thirtieth day after the day upon which the notice of the disapproval is mailed by the administrator, or be forever barred.

(3) Upon receiving an application for review, the administrator shall transmit the same, together with the original application and all papers in the case, to the board of review, hereinafter created.

(4) The board of review shall promptly consider the same evidence which was available to the administrator, and shall promptly enter in the case file its decision either finally affirming the administrator's decision, or finally determining the claim and the amount thereof.

(5) The board of review shall send a notice of its decision to the claimant by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested, and shall return the case file to the administrator. The decision of the board of review shall be a final determination of the claim shown in the application. There shall be no right of recourse on the part of the claimant or the administrator in any court.

Section 4. KRS 40.140 is amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) If a claim is approved by the administrator or finally approved upon resort to the board of review, in whole or in part the administrator shall promptly certify to the commissioner of finance the names and addresses of persons found entitled to be paid, as shown in the application, and the amount payable to each.

(b) A copy of each such certificate shall be sent to the commissioner of revenue, who shall promptly ascertain from the records of his department whether any person proposed to be paid a veterans' bonus is delinquent in the payment of any tax liability to the commonwealth. No delinquency shall be deemed to exist as to any asserted tax liability which is the subject of a bona fide dispute. If any delinquency be found to exist, the commissioner of revenue shall within three (3) working days after this receipt of the certificate, furnish the details thereof to the commissioner of finance; and if no advice of tax delinquency is received by the commissioner of finance before the end of the fourth working day after his receipt of certification from the administrator, he shall, for the purposes of this chapter, conclusively presume that no delinquency of tax liability to the commonwealth exists; but such presumption shall apply only to the existence or absence of a setoff by the commonwealth against a certified claim for a veterans' bonus, and shall not alter the facts as between the commonwealth and any taxpayer.

(c) If no advice of tax delinquency is received within such allowed time, the commissioner of finance may approve payment in accordance with the certificate of the administrator, and may immediately draw a warrant on the state treasury for a check in payment.

(d) Upon receipt of such warrant the state treasurer shall issue a check in accordance therewith payable from the proceeds of bonds in accordance with this chapter, and the same shall promptly be mailed to the payee thereof at the address shown in the certificate.

(2) (a) If the commissioner of finance shall, within the allowed time, receive advice from the commissioner of revenue of the existence of a delinquency on the part of any person having an approved claim for a veterans' bonus, as to any tax liability to the commonwealth, the commissioner of finance shall note the same on the certificate of the administrator, withhold payment, and forthwith send to the claimant by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested a notice of the asserted delinquency, and the amount thereof, and that it is proposed that the same be set off against the veterans' bonus payment.

(b) If the commissioner of finance receives no protest in his office within ten (10) working days after recording such notice, he shall conclusively presume that the proposed setoff is just, shall apply the amount thereof in reduction or extinguishment of the payment certified by the administrator, and shall advise the commissioner of revenue of the amount set off against the veterans' bonus, which advice shall be noted by the commissioner of revenue on the records of his office as a credit upon the delinquent tax liability.

(c) If the tax setoff does not consume the entire amount of the veterans' bonus as certified by the administrator, the commissioner shall draw a warrant upon the state treasury for a check in the amount of the remainder, and upon receiving such check from the state treasurer shall send the same, together with advice of the setoff, by mail, to the payee at the address shown in the certificate of the administrator.

(3) If the commissioner of finance receives from the claimant a protest of the asserted tax delinquency, within the allowed time, the commissioner shall withhold approval for payment, and shall refer the protest to the commissioner of revenue for disposition.

(4) If a tax setoff is made, and the claimant shall assert error with regard thereto, the exclusive remedy shall be by seeking refund from the commissioner of revenue.

Section 5. KRS 61.750 is amended to read as follows:

Reports required by KRS 61.710 to 61.780 shall be filed with the Kentucky Registry of Election Finance and shall be public record, subject to inspection by any citizen of the Commonwealth. Within thirty days after reports are due, the Registry of Election Finance shall publish a list of those persons who have filed reports, and shall notify any person required to file, who has failed to file such report, by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested of his failure to comply with KRS 61.710 to 61.780.

Section 6. KRS 77.265 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The hearing board may revoke or modify by written order, after a public hearing held upon not less than ten (10) days' notice, any order permitting a variance.

(2) The hearing board shall serve, by personal service or registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested, notice of the time and place of a hearing to revoke or modify any order permitting a variance not less than ten (10) days prior to such hearing upon the air pollution control officer, upon all persons who will be subjected to greater restrictions if such order is revoked or modified as proposed and upon all other persons interested or likely to be affected who have filed with the hearing board or air pollution control officer a written request for such notification.

(3) If either the identity or address of any person entitled to such notice is unknown, the hearing board shall serve such person by publication of notice once in a newspaper of general circulation published within the district if such newspaper is published therein, otherwise by posting at a public place at the county seat within the district.

Section 7. KRS 100.212 is amended to read as follows:

When in any planning unit containing any portion of a county a hearing is scheduled on a proposal to amend any zoning map plat, plan, text or regulation, the following notice shall be given in addition to any other notice required by statute by local regulation or ordinance to be given:

(1) Notice of the hearing shall be posted conspicuously on the property the classification of which is proposed to be changed; and

(2) Notice of the hearing shall be given at least 14 days in advance of the hearing by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested to the owners of all property adjoining the property the classification of which is proposed to be changed. It shall be the duty of the person or persons proposing the amendment to furnish to the planning commission the names and addresses of the owners of all adjoining property.

Section 8. KRS 120.160 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Secretary of State shall forthwith contact each person who has been nominated by the State Board of Elections or by petition and notify him in writing by certified or registered mail with return receipt requested, that his name will appear as a candidate on the Kentucky presidential primary ballot of his party, provided that he:

(a) Deposits with the Secretary of State the sum required by KRS 120.170; and

(b) Forwards to the Secretary of State a notice of candidacy form to be supplied by the Secretary of State along with the written notification required by this section.

(2) Failure of a candidate to deposit the fee required by KRS 120.170 and to execute the notice of candidacy within 15 days after receipt of the written notification shall be a disclaimer and a withdrawal of his name from the primary.

Section 9. KRS 122.170 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any elector who was qualified to and did vote on any constitutional convention, constitutional amendment or statewide public question submitted to the voters of the state for their ratification or rejection may contest the election or demand a recount of the ballots by filing a petition, not more than fifteen (15) days after the official canvass and the announcement of the vote for the state by the state board of elections, with the clerk of the Franklin Circuit Court, which court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters in such cases. The petition shall set forth the grounds of the contest. The contestant may file with the clerk of the Franklin Circuit Court and the secretary of state a notice of his intention to contest the election before the announcement of the official count by the state board of elections and thereupon the secretary of state shall forthwith notify all the county boards of election commissioners in the counties involved in the contest to hold the ballots cast at the election on the question subject to the order of the Franklin Circuit Court. The notice shall be served by the secretary of state by mailing a true and certified copy of the notice of contest, and the order to hold the ballots subject to the order of the court, by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested to the sheriffs of the counties in question, and the sheriffs shall forthwith acknowledge receipt thereof.

(2) If the Franklin Circuit Court is not in session at the time the petition of contest is filed, the clerk of the court shall immediately notify the judge of the filing of the petition. The judge shall, within five (5) days after the filing of the petition of contest, determine whether there are sufficient grounds stated to justify the contest, and shall thereupon require the contestants to give bonds for costs. All of the hearings relating to the contest shall be held in the courthouse of Franklin County.

(3) The clerk of the Franklin Circuit Court shall cause a notice of the contest to be published pursuant to KRS chapter 424, setting out the substance or the grounds of contest alleged by the contestants.

(4) Any elector who participated in the election on the convention, amendment or statewide public question may make himself a party as contestee in the action by filing his petition to be made a party not later than five (5) days after the contest is instituted, and by giving bond of the costs as required of the contestant. If no elector makes himself a party to the contest, the commonwealth's attorney for the Franklin Circuit Court shall attend the trial of the cause, and he may file such motions and pleadings in the cause on behalf of the commonwealth as will insure a fair and honest determination of the contest.

(5) All laws relating to contested elections for state offices shall apply with equal force to contests of the character contemplated by this section, except as otherwise provided in this section and in KRS 122.180.

Section 10. KRS 123.071 is amended to read as follows:

The candidate may appoint himself or any registered voter in Kentucky as his campaign treasurer. The office with which the candidate is required to file shall immediately forward to the registry the duplicate copy of the completed form designating the candidate's campaign treasurer and shall attach the original to the candidate's filing papers. The office with which the candidate files shall promptly notify the registry when a candidate withdraws.

(3) In case of the death, resignation or removal of a campaign treasurer the candidate shall within three (3) days after receiving notice thereof by certified mail, return receipt requested or registered mail appoint a successor and shall file his name and address with the registry. The candidate shall be disqualified if he fails to meet this filing requirement.

(4) A person may serve as campaign treasurer for more than one candidate, but all reports must be made separately for each individual candidate.

Section 11. KRS 125.210 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The county executive committee of any political party having a ticket to elect at any regular election, may designate not more than two challengers to be present at and witness the holding of the election in each precinct in the county. The challengers shall be entitled to stay in the room or at the door. The challengers shall be registered voters of the county in which the election is held, shall be appointed in writing signed by the chairman of the committee and shall produce written appointments on demand of any election officer.

(2) Any school board candidate, independent candidate, or independent ticket at the regular election may designate not more than one challenger to be present at and witness the holding of the elections in each precinct in the county. The challenger shall be entitled to stay in the room or at the door. The challenger shall be a registered voter of the county in which the election is held, shall be appointed in writing by the chairman of the committee, independent candidate or candidates representing a ticket, and shall produce written appointment on demand of any election officer.

(3) Not later than thirty days prior to an election at which Constitutional amendments or other public questions are to be submitted to the vote of the people, any committee that in good faith advocates or opposes an amendment or public question may file a petition with the clerk of the county asking that the petitioners be recognized as the committee entitled to nominate inspectors and challengers to serve at the election at which the Constitutional amendment or public question is to be voted on. If more than one committee alleging itself to advocate or oppose the same amendment file such a petition, the county board of elections shall decide, and announce by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested to each committee not less than twenty days immediately preceding the election, which committee is entitled to nominate the challengers and inspectors. Such decision shall not be final, but any aggrieved party may institute proceedings in the county court, and upon hearing the county judge shall determine which of such committees shall be recognized as the one to select inspectors and challengers at the election.

(4) The committee shall file the names of the persons nominated by it with the clerk of the county at least five days before the election. The county board of elections shall, within two days thereafter, certify the nominees of the committee for the respective precincts to serve as challengers and inspectors at the election where any Constitutional amendment or public question is to be voted upon. If more than one amendment or question is to be voted upon, the county board of elections may designate, on the petition of the committee, one person for each amendment and question to serve as inspector at the election and one person for each amendment and question to serve as challenger at the election.

(5) The challengers and inspectors shall perform their duties in the same manner and be subject to the same privileges as other inspectors and challengers at an election.

(6) Each political party is entitled to have not exceeding two challengers at each precinct during the holding of the primary election. Any group of bona fide candidates, as defined in KRS 119.085 (1), of the same political party equal to twenty-five percent of all the candidates for that party to be voted for in a county in any primary, including state, district and all other candidates, may recommend to the county committee or governing authority of the party for the county a list of persons whom they desire to have appointed as challengers in each precinct in the county. If more than two such lists are furnished, the committee or governing authority, in making appointments of challengers, shall alternate between the several lists so furnished so as to give to each list an equal amount or proportion of the appointments, but in no event shall there be appointed more than one challenger for any precinct from any one list. The list of challengers shall be presented to the chairman or secretary of the party committee of the county not less than seven days before the date on which the primary is to be held, and the committee or the chairman thereof shall make the appointments and certify to same at least four days before the date on which the primary is held. The appointment of challengers shall be certified in all respects as challengers at regular elections, except as otherwise provided in this section, and the challengers shall be registered voters of the county in which the primary is held, shall be subject to the same penalties and possess the same rights and privileges as challengers at regular elections, except that the challengers of one political party shall not be entitled to challenge persons who offer to vote for candidates of any other party in the primary. The provisions of this section shall be enforceable against the chairman of the political party committees by a mandatory summary proceeding instituted in the circuit court. The order of the court may be reviewed by the Court of Appeals as provided for the granting or dissolving of temporary injunctions.

Section 12. KRS 132.620 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The department of revenue shall recover from any property valuation administrator all compensation paid to him for assessments that were unauthorized or excessive when and to the extent it is determined by a final order of the board of supervisors, Kentucky board of tax appeals, or a court of competent jurisdiction that such assessments were unauthorized or excessive. Whenever the property valuation administrator fails to render the services required of him or he performs any of his duties in such a manner as to fail to comply substantially with the requirements of the law, he shall be required to pay a sum that will reasonably compensate the commonwealth of Kentucky for its costs in rendering the duties required to be performed by the property valuation administrator. The department of revenue shall notify the property valuation administrator by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested of any amount charged to be due under this section and a statement of the reasons therefor. The property valuation administrator shall be entitled to a hearing before the Kentucky board of tax appeals, and an appeal may be taken from the final action of the Kentucky board of tax appeals to the courts as provided by law.

Section 13. KRS 138.353 is amended to read as follows:

If any excise taxes on gasoline be erroneously refunded, the department shall advise the payee by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested of the erroneous refund. If the payee fails to reimburse the commonwealth within fifteen (15) days after the receipt of the letter, an action may be instituted by the department in the Franklin Circuit Court and the department shall recover from the payee the amount of the erroneous refund plus a penalty of twenty per cent (20%).

Section 14. KRS 151.290 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The division shall have the authority to periodically inspect any dam, embankment, levee, or other barrier which restricts the flow of water in a stream in the commonwealth. These inspections shall be made from the standpoint of safety in order to avoid damage to person or property and to protect the supply of water stored therein.

(2) If the division determines that a dam, embankment, levee, or other water barrier is inadequate according to standards established by regulations of the division, it may, after giving the affected parties an opportunity to be heard, compel by an order of the division such remedial measures as it deems are necessary. This order shall be sent by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested and such order shall provide a reasonable time to accomplish the necessary repairs or improvements. The failure to accomplish the necessary repairs or improvements within the time limit of the order, shall be a violation and subject the person to the penalties provided in KRS 151.990.

(3) Any person, city, county or other political subdivision who objects to an order of the division and considers himself aggrieved thereby, may obtain a review of the division's order, by filing in the circuit court, within sixty (60) days after entry of the order, a written petition praying that the order be modified or set aside in whole or in part. An appeal may be taken from the judgment of the circuit court to the Court of Appeals on the same terms and conditions as an appeal is taken in any civil action.

(4) Where the dam, embankment, levee or other water barrier is found by the division to pose a serious threat to life or property, it shall direct the attorney general, as provided in KRS 151.460, to seek a mandatory injunction for the correction or removal of the dam, embankment, levee or other water barrier posing such threat.

Section 15. KRS 156.060 is amended to read as follows:

The chairman shall give notice through the secretary by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested to each member of the board at least ten (10) days prior to the time of any meeting, unless all members of the board waive notice in writing. The offices of the board shall be at the seat of government in the department of education and shall be provided by the state. Members of the board may receive a per diem of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each regular or special meeting attended and actual expenses for attending meetings, and may be reimbursed for other actual and necessary expenditures incurred in the performance of their duties authorized by the board. The per diem and expenses shall be paid out of the appropriation for the state board of education.

After such notice, if the violation is continued or if the provisions of KRS 159.010 to 159.170 are again violated during the school term by the child, no further notice shall be necessary and the parent or guardian shall be punishable as provided in KRS 159.990. A notice by registered mail, certified mail, return receipt requested or by personal service by the director of pupil personnel shall be a legal notice.

(2) In the event that the boards fail to agree within ninety (90) days from the filing of petitions for such a transfer, either board may petition the superintendent of public instruction for approval or disapproval of the transfer of the property involved. In his consideration for giving approval or disapproval, he shall be governed by any policies and rules and regulations of the state board of education which may be affected by the transfer of the property and shall give due consideration to the following: the ratio of the wealth of the territory involved in its relation to the total wealth of the district from which the territory will be annexed; the effect of the proposed territorial loss or gain on the educational programs of the respective districts; extent of and effect on the physical plant, facilities and equipment available in each of the affected districts; the indebtedness and bonded or rental obligations of the respective districts; any contemplated indebtedness or obligation arising out of the proposed transfer; and such other factors as may have a bearing upon the determination of the desirability of the proposed annexation from the vantage point of all interested persons.

(3) In those instances where the requested transfer will result in a surplus of physical plant, facilities or equipment in the transferring school district, the superintendent of public instruction shall determine an equitable plan for the transfer of any such surplus to the annexing district as his plan may determine will be needed. His plan shall be based on the fair value of such property on a replacement basis, taking into consideration its age and condition. In any considerations and suggestions which he may propose for the settlement of the differences between the boards of education, he shall be bound by any agreements outstanding between the boards of education of the school districts upon the effective date of this law.

(4) In the event the superintendent of public instruction is unable to arrive at a satisfactory agreement with the two (2) boards of education concerning the transfer of the involved property within one hundred twenty (120) days from the time it is presented to him, either board may request that he bring the matter on for hearing before the state board of education at its next regularly scheduled meeting. In that event, he shall file with the state board of education all the facts which he has gathered, the recommendation he has made, and the basis for his recommendation, for their consideration.

(5) Within at least ten (10) days before the holding of any hearing provided for in subsection two (2) or subsection four (4) of KRS 160.045, the superintendent of public instruction shall serve written notice thereof, by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested, on the respective boards fixing the time and place at which the hearing shall be conducted. (2) No person shall be issued an agent's permit unless he is an individual of good moral character as determined by the state board.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (8) of this section, no person shall be issued an agent's permit unless he shall make application upon forms to be provided by the state board, and unless said application shall be accompanied by a fee of ten dollars and a good and sufficient surety bond in a penal sum of five thousand dollars. Said bond shall be executed by the applicant as principal and by a surety company qualified and authorized to do business in this state.

(4) (a) The surety bond shall be conditioned to provide indemnification to any student or enrollee who shall suffer loss or damage as a result of fraud or misrepresentation to said student or enrollee in procuring his enrollment in a course or courses of instruction or study offered or maintained by said proprietary school. The liability on said surety bond shall be five thousand dollars for each agent each school year, as the term "school year" is defined in KRS 163.340 (8). Regardless of the number of years that an agent's bond is in force, the aggregate liability of the surety bond shall, in no event, exceed the penal sum of the bond. The surety bond may be continuous.

(b) Any claimant may file with the state board a duly verified claim against an agent. The board may consider a claim after ten days' written notice by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to such licensee of said complaint giving time and place of hearing thereon and if such claim is found to be correct and due to the claimant, and if the board cannot effect a settlement by persuasion and conciliation, the board shall make a demand upon the principal on such bond and the surety thereon, and if not paid shall bring an action on such bond in any court of record within the State of Kentucky.

(5) The surety bond may be of blanket form to cover more than one agent for a proprietary school, but it shall cover each agent for said proprietary school in a penal sum of five thousand dollars.

(6) A surety on said bond may be released therefrom after said surety shall make a written notice thereof directed to the state board at least thirty days prior to said release.

(7) The surety bond shall cover the period of the agent's permit except when a surety shall be released in the manner as provided by subsection (6) of this section.

(8) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3) to (7) of this section, the state board may issue an agent's permit to each person who is an owner of more than ten per cent legal interest in a proprietary school located in this state and who is a resident of this state, and no such owner shall be required to pay the agent's permit fee or execute an agent's surety bond as otherwise required by this section; provided, that said proprietary school shall have been issued a certificate of approval pursuant to the provisions of KRS 163.310 to 163.390.

(9) An agent's permit shall be suspended by operation of law when said agent is no longer covered by a surety bond as required by this section; but the state board shall cause said agent to receive at least ten days' written notice prior to the release of his surety to the effect that said permit shall be suspended by operation of law until another surety bond shall be filed to the same manner and like amount as required for the initial surety bond.

(10) An agent's permit shall be valid for a period of one school year as defined in KRS 163.340 (8), except when suspended or cancelled pursuant to the provisions of KRS 163.310 to 163.390. An agent's permit may be renewed in the same manner, at the same fee, and under the same conditions prescribed for the issuance of an initial agent's permit.

(1) No person, company, firm, corporation, association, society, or partnership shall maintain and operate a proprietary school located within this state until said school shall have been issued a certificate of approval by the state board pursuant to the provisions of KRS 163.310 to 163.390. No certificate of approval shall be issued by the state board to any proprietary school which denies enrollment in said school to any pupil, on account of race, color, or creed. The Kentucky Commission on Human Rights shall have power to make investigation as to discriminatory practices of any proprietary school, and shall report thereon to the state board, and said board shall, upon report that any such school is engaging in discriminatory practices, deny or suspend a certificate of approval of such school, in accordance with the provisions of this subsection and of subsection (6) (b) of this section, after notice and public hearing as required by KRS 163.310 to 163.390.

(2) No proprietary school shall be issued a certificate of approval unless it shall make application, through its officers or an owner, upon forms to be provided by the state board, and unless said application shall be accompanied by a fee of twenty-five dollars and a good and sufficient surety bond in a penal sum of twenty thousand dollars. Said bond shall be executed by the applicant as principal and by a surety company qualified and authorized to do business in this state.

(3) (a) The surety bond shall be conditioned to provide indemnification to any student or enrollee or his parent or guardian suffering loss or damage as a result of any fraud or misrepresentation used in procuring his enrollment or as a result of any fraud or misrepresentation as represented by the application for the certificate of approval, or as a result of the student being unable to complete the course or courses because the school ceased operations. Such indemnification under the surety bond to any or all students or parents or guardians shall, in no case, exceed the advanced tuition paid or liable to be paid for by said student or students or any such parent or guardian and regardless of the number of years that a school's bond is in force, the aggregate liability of the surety bond shall, in no event, exceed the penal sum of the bond. The surety bond may be continuous.

(b) Any claimant may file with the state board a duly verified claim against a proprietary school. The board may consider such claim after ten days' written notice by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to such school of said complaint giving time and place of hearing thereon and if such claim is found to be correct and due to the claimant, and if the board cannot effect a settlement by persuasion and conciliation, the board shall make a demand upon the principal on such bond and the surety thereon, and if not paid may bring an action on such bond in any court of record within the State of Kentucky.

(4) A surety on said bond may be released therefrom after said surety shall have made a written notice thereof directed to the state board at least thirty days prior to said release.

(5) The surety bond shall cover the period of the certificate of approval except when said surety shall be released in the manner as provided by this section.

(6) (a) The certificate of approval shall be suspended by operation of law when said proprietary school is no longer covered by a surety bond as required by this section; but the state board shall cause said proprietary school to receive at least ten days' written notice prior to the release of said surety to the effect that said approval shall be suspended by operation of law until another surety bond shall be filed in the same manner and like amount as required for the initial surety bond.

(b) The certificate of approval shall be suspended by operation of law at any time any certified proprietary school shall deny enrollment in said school to any pupil, on account of race, color, or creed.

(7) The application for a certificate of approval shall be accompanied by a copy of each of all school catalogs, bulletins, and other published materials to aid the state board in evaluating the school for the purpose of granting or denying a certificate of approval. The application and accompanying data shall be certified as true and correct in content and policy by the chief executive officer of said proprietary school.

(8) A certificate of approval shall be valid for a period of one school year, beginning the first day of July and ending the thirtieth day of June next following, except when said approval shall be suspended or cancelled pursuant to the provisions of KRS 163.310 to 163.390. A certificate of approval may be renewed in the same manner, at the same fee, and under the same conditions prescribed for the issuance of initial approval.

(9) The bonding requirements herein set forth may be reduced in the sole discretion of the state board upon a showing by the proprietary school that they are excessive in the case of any particular proprietary school.

Section 20. KRS 171.290 is amended to read as follows:

In a proceeding to revoke a certificate of librarianship under the provisions of KRS 171.990 (2), written notice of the proposed action shall be delivered in person, or forwarded by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested to the holder of the certificate at his last known post-office address, stating the cause for the contemplated action together with a copy of the charges and appointing a time and a place for the hearing by the board.

(1) The department shall give at least ten (10) days' notice by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested to the railroad company of a hearing to be held at a time and place stated in the notice, at which hearing it shall consider whether or not the proposed grade separation or change is reasonably necessary and the most advantageous method of effecting the grade separation or change. If the department finds that the grade separation or change is reasonably necessary, it shall make an order to that effect and furnish a copy thereof by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested to the railroad company. The order shall specify the location of the crossing to be substituted, the grade thereof, whether it shall pass over or under the railroad tracks, the width of the crossing and the angle at which the crossing shall meet and converge into the roadbed on either side of the railroad tracks. The order may direct the railroad company to prepare plans, specifications and estimates of cost for the grade separation or change in accordance with the general plan prescribed by the order. The order may provide that the plans, specifications and estimates of cost shall be prepared by the department.

(2) When a primary road is relocated and the grade is separated and the new underpass or overhead bridge is located at some point other than the old grade crossing, and when it is necessary that the original grade crossing on the old road be left in for the accommodation of the local public to be used as a county road or private road leading into the primary road, the department shall not take any of the responsibility for the closing of the grade crossing, but its status shall be left to the discretion of the county officials and the railroad company.

(1) After receipt of the plans, specifications and estimates of cost from the railroad company the department shall give at least ten (10) days' notice by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested to the railroad company of a time and place for final hearing with respect to the grade separation or change. If the department elects to prepare plans, specifications and estimates of cost, it shall furnish copies thereof to the railroad company prior to or at the time it gives notice of a final hearing. At the final hearing, the department shall approve or modify the plans and specifications and shall consider and determine the method of doing the work, whether by the railroad company or by the department, or partly by one and partly by the other, and whether by contract or by the employees of the department or the railroad company, or both, or by any combination of these methods, and if by contract, the method and manner of advertising for bids, the time and place of opening the bids, the time when work shall be begun and completed, and all similar matters of an administrative nature. The department shall embody its conclusions in a final order, a copy of which shall be sent by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested to the railroad company.

(2) The department and any railroad company may agree by contract as to the method of eliminating any grade crossing or changing any existing overhead or underpass structure. In event of such agreement all notices, hearings and proceedings shall be deemed to have been waived, and the work of eliminating the grade crossing or making the change shall be performed in accordance with the terms of the contract, with the same effect as though the work was being performed pursuant to a final order of the department.

(1) Whenever the fiscal court considers it reasonably necessary for the public safety, it may in the manner hereinafter provided, order any railroad company, either steam or electric, owning or operating a railroad in its county, to eliminate any existing grade crossing or change any existing overhead or underpass structure where any county road crosses the railroad tracks of such company.

(2) The fiscal court shall give at least ten (10) days' notice by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested to the railroad company of a hearing to be held at a time and place stated in the notice, at which hearing it shall consider whether or not the proposed grade separation or change is reasonably necessary and the most advantageous method of effecting the grade separation or change. In determining whether the proposed grade separation or change is reasonably necessary, the fiscal court shall receive evidence of, and shall consider, all relevant facts, including the present and prospective density of highway traffic and the present and prospective frequency and speed of train movements over the crossing, the adequacy of existing or proposed signals or warning devices for the protection of highway traffic at the grade crossings, the possibility and probability of personal injury to the public using the highway and to employees and passengers of the railroad company and damage to property, and the cost of the grade separation or change in relation to benefits resulting from the proposed construction. If the fiscal court finds that the grade separation or change is reasonably necessary, it shall make an order to that effect and furnish a copy thereof by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested to the railroad company. The order shall specify a general plan for the new or changed grade separation. The order shall direct the railroad company to prepare plans, specifications and estimates of cost for the grade separation or change in accordance with the general plan prescribed by the order, or may provide that the plans, specifications and estimates of cost shall be prepared by the county if the grade separation structure shall pass over the railroad tracks. The plans, specifications and estimates of cost may, if requested by any public utility, provide facilities for such public utility.

(3) Within ninety (90) days after the entry of an order directing a grade separation or change, and the preparation of plans, specifications and estimates of cost by the railroad company, the railroad company shall present to the fiscal court, plans, specifications and estimates of cost for the grade separation or change, including the necessary approaches thereto.

(4) After receipt of the plans, specifications and estimates of cost from the railroad company the fiscal court shall give at least ten (10) days' notice by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested to the railroad company of a time and place for final hearing with respect to the grade separation or change. If the fiscal court elects to prepare plans, specifications and estimates of cost, it shall furnish copies thereof to the railroad company prior to or at the time it gives notice of a final hearing. At the final hearing the fiscal court shall consider whether or not the plans make reasonably adequate provision for present and future safety and convenience of highway traffic and present and future safety and efficiency of operation of trains of the railroad company, its employees and passengers, and for the development of highway and railroad facilities, and shall approve or modify the plans and specifications. It shall then consider and determine the method of doing the work, whether by the railroad company or by the county, or partly by one and partly by the other, and whether by contract or by the employees of the county or the railroad company, or both, or by any combination of these methods, and if by contract, the method and manner of advertising for bids, the time and place of opening the bids, the time when work shall be begun and completed, and all similar matters of an administrative nature. The fiscal court shall embody its conclusions in a final order, a copy of which shall be sent by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested to the railroad company.

(5) The fiscal court may reject or order the rejection of all bids submitted for the work, or any part thereof, and require a readvertisement for bids. The fiscal court may reject all bids and elect to do the work itself, or partly by itself and by the railroad company, or by contractors, or by a combination of these methods. If the work includes a structure to support the railroad tracks, the railroad company shall have the right to supervise the construction of that part of the work. If the fiscal court elects to do the work itself there shall not be charged to the railroad company any sum in excess of that it would have been required to pay had the contract been let to the lowest bidder.

(6) In all cases where the work is let by the railroad company on contract, the work shall be done under the general supervision of the county road engineer.

(7) The cost of all work incident to or occasioned by the elimination of the grade crossing and the construction of a substituted crossing, or the reconstruction of an existing overhead or underpass structure, including, without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, the cost of preparing plans and specifications, the cost of acquisition of necessary property and property damage, if any, the construction of approaches, drainage structures, and streets and pavements, shall be paid in the proportion of fifteen per cent (15%) by the railroad company and eighty-five per cent (85%) by the county.

(8) As the work progresses the fiscal court shall furnish to the railroad company, and the railroad company shall furnish to the fiscal court, a monthly statement showing in detail all amounts expended in connection with the work. On or about the fifteenth of each month, the county road engineer shall prepare a statement showing the total amount expended to the close of the preceding month, the amount paid or expended by each party up to that time, and the amount due from the county to the railroad company or from the railroad company to the county. Upon receipt of the statement each party shall pay to the other the amounts shown to be due thereby.

(9) All payments made on such monthly statements shall be considered only payments on account, and upon final completion of the work the county road engineer shall prepare and furnish to the railroad company a statement showing the total cost of the work, the amount paid or expended by the county or the railroad company, and the amount due from one to the other. Each party shall be afforded reasonable opportunities to verify the statements of expenditures by the other, and the balance due as certified by the county road engineer in his final statement shall be paid by one party to the other promptly upon receipt of such final statement.

(10) The fiscal court and any railroad company may agree by contract as to the method of eliminating any grade crossing or changing any existing overhead or underpass structure. In event of such agreement all notices, hearings and proceedings shall be deemed to have been waived, and the work of eliminating the grade crossing or making the change shall be performed in accordance with the terms of the contract, with the same effect as though the work were being performed pursuant to a final order of the fiscal court.

(1) After June 19, 1952, if the fiscal court proposes to construct a new county road across an existing railroad, or a railroad company proposes to construct a new railroad across an existing county road, the party proposing such construction shall provide the other party with plans and specifications for its proposed construction, showing the location thereof, and, if the proposed crossing is to be separated, a general plan for such separation. The fiscal court shall give at least ten (10) days' notice of a hearing to be held at a time and place stated in the notice, at which hearing it shall consider whether the proposed crossing shall be approved and whether a grade separation is reasonably necessary for the present and future safety and convenience of highway traffic and present and future efficient operation of the railroad company's facilities and the safety of its employes and passengers, and in accordance with the standards prescribed for grade separations in KRS 178.355.

(2) If the fiscal court shall find that a grade separation is reasonably necessary at such proposed crossing, it shall approve, or provide for the submission and subsequent approval of, plans and specifications for the grade separation. The determinations of the fiscal court shall be by order, and its final determination shall be by final order, which shall fix the method of doing the work in the manner provided in subsection (4) of KRS 178.355, and which shall be served on the railroad company by registered mail or certified mail, return receipt requested. If the fiscal court orders a grade separation at such proposed crossing, the entire cost of such separation shall be borne by the party proposing the crossing.

(3) The fiscal court and the railroad company may agree by contract as to the method of constructing grade separations under this section and the distribution or allocation of cost thereof, under this section, and in such event, all notices, hearings and orders shall be deemed to have been waived, and the construction of the crossing shall be performed in accordance with the terms of the contract, with the same effect as though the work was being performed pursuant to a final order of the fiscal court.

The clerk of the court in which the action is brought shall issue a summons against the defendant named in the complaint and direct it to the sheriff of Franklin County. The sheriff shall execute the summons by delivering a true copy to the Secretary of State and shall also deliver with the summons an attested copy of plaintiff's complaint. The Secretary of State shall immediately mail the copy of the summons and complaint to the defendant at the address given in the complaint. The letter shall be posted by prepaid registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested and shall bear the return address of the Secretary of State. The sheriff shall make the usual return to the court, and in addition the Secretary of State shall make a return to the court showing that the acts contemplated by this statute have been performed, and shall attach to his return the registry receipt, if any. Summons shall be deemed to be served on the return of the Secretary of State and the action shall proceed as provided in the Rules of Civil Procedure.

Section 26. KRS 199.670 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The department may revoke a license under KRS 199.640 for any condition which would have caused a denial of the license in the first instance. The department may refuse to issue a license in any case where the applicant is not found to possess the qualifications prescribed by the commissioner.

(2) In any case where the department proposes to revoke or to refuse to issue a license, written notice shall be given to the licensee or applicant, stating the proposed action and grounds therefor, and notifying the licensee or applicant that such license will be revoked or refused unless the applicant or licensee makes application for a hearing before the commissioner within thirty days of such notice. If application for such hearing is made, the commissioner shall set a time for the hearing, of which ten days' notice shall be given to the licensee or applicant, and at the hearing the licensee or applicant shall be entitled to be heard in person or by counsel, and to present witnesses. Following the hearing the commissioner shall render a decision in writing, setting forth his findings of fact and conclusions of law, and affirming, modifying or setting aside the findings of the department, and shall send a copy thereof to the licensee or applicant by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested.

(3) The decision may be reviewed in the circuit court of the county in which the child-caring facility or child-placing agency is located, by action commenced within thirty days after receipt of the copy of the decision, and in such action the findings of fact made by the commissioner shall be conclusive if supported by any competent evidence.

Section 27. KRS 206.160 is amended to read as follows:

(b) the plaintiff's affidavit of compliance with this section is filed in the case on or before the return day of the process, if any, or within such further time as the court allows.

(2) When any person, including any nonresident of this state, engages in conduct prohibited or made actionable by this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, and he has not filed a consent to service of process under subsection (1) and personal jurisdiction over him cannot otherwise be obtained in this state, that conduct shall be considered equivalent to his appointment of the director or his successor in office to be his attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal suit, action, or proceeding against him or his successor executor or administrator which grows out of that conduct and which is brought under this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, with the same force and validity as if served on him personally. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process in the office of the director, and it is not effective unless

(a) the plaintiff, who may be the director, in a suit, action, or proceeding instituted by him forthwith sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by certified mail, return receipt requested or by registered mail to the defendant or respondent at his last known address or takes other steps which are reasonably calculated to give actual notice, and

The commissioner may suspend or revoke the certificate of authority of any insurer failing to cure any such deficiency within such thirty (30) days.

Section 51. KRS 304.29-400 is amended to read as follows:

However, unless the parties agree to extend the time for the hearings, they must be completed with recommendations from the fact-finding panel, within 120 days from the date the petition to initiate the fact-finding procedure was received by the commissioner.

Section 73. KRS 345.120 is amended to read as follows:

The Governor shall designate one member to serve as chairman of the board. Thereafter, upon the expiration of the term of any member, members shall be appointed for four-year terms by the Governor.

(2) Each member of the board shall have been an elector in this state for at least one year next preceding his appointment. Any member may be removed by the Governor for cause, shown in a public hearing after the accused has been given a copy of the charges made and has had an opportunity to answer such charges. The Governor shall fill any vacancy by appointment for the unexpired term. No member shall receive a salary but each member shall be paid $50 and expenses for each day during which he is engaged in the duties of the board. The board is authorized to hold hearings at any place in this state. Any and all expenses by Labor Relations Board shall be shared by all parties concerned in the dispute.

(3) The board shall appoint such employees as may be necessary to carry out the work of the board. All files, records and documents accumulated by the board shall be kept in offices provided by the board. All decisions shall be made by a majority of the board.

(5) In case of neglect or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to any person, the circuit court of the county in which the investigations or the public hearings are taking place, upon application by the board may issue an order requiring such person to appear before the board, any member or agent, to produce evidence or give testimony about the matter under investigation. A failure to obey such order may be punished by the court as a contempt.

(6) Any subpoena, notice of hearing or other process or notice of the board issued under the provisions of this chapter may be served personally, by certified mail, return receipt requested or by registered mail or by leaving a copy at the principal office or place of residence of the respondent required to be served. A return, made and verified by the individual making such service and setting forth the manner of such service is proof of service and a returned post-office receipt, when certified or registered mail is used, is proof of service. All process of any court to which application may be made under the provisions of this chapter may be served in the county wherein the persons required to be served reside or may be found.

(7) The board shall adopt, promulgate, amend or rescind such rules and regulations as it deems necessary and administratively feasible to carry out the provisions of this chapter. Public hearings shall be held by the board on any proposed rule or regulation of general applicability designed to implement, interpret or prescribe policy, procedure or practice requirements under the provisions of this chapter and on any proposed change in an existing rule or regulation. Reasonable notice shall be given prior to such hearings, which shall include the time, place and nature of such hearing and also the terms or substance of the proposed rule or regulation or the changes of such rule or regulation.

(1) Under the provisions of this chapter and regulations adopted by the department, an operator shall prepare and carry out a method of operation, plan of grading and backfilling and a reclamation plan for the area of land affected by his operation. In developing a method of operation, and the plans of backfilling, grading and reclamation, all measures shall be taken to eliminate damages to members of the public, their real and personal property, public roads, streams and all other public property from soil erosion, rolling stones and overburden, water pollution and hazards dangerous to life and property. The plan shall be submitted to the division and the division shall notify the applicant by certified mail, return receipt requested or by registered mail within twenty (20) working days after receipt of the plans and complete application if it is or is not acceptable. If the plan is not acceptable, the division shall set forth the reasons for which the plan is not acceptable and it may propose modifications, delete areas or reject the entire plan. Should the applicant disagree with the decision of the division, he may, by written notice, request a hearing conducted by the department in the manner provided by KRS 224.083. The department shall notify the applicant by certified mail, return receipt requested or by registered mail within twenty (20) days after the hearing of its decision. Any person aggrieved by a final order of the department may appeal through the courts as set forth in KRS 224.035.

(2) In addition to the method of operation, grading, backfilling and reclamation requirements of this chapter and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, the operator, consistent with the directives of subsection (1) above, shall be required to perform the following:

- (a) Cover the face of the coal with compacted nonacid bearing and nontoxic materials to a distance of at least four (4) feet above the seam being strip mined or by a permanent water impoundment;
- (b) Bury under adequate fill all toxic materials, roof coal, pyritic coal or shale determined by the division to be acid producing, toxic, or creating a fire hazard;
- (c) Seal off, as directed by regulations, any break through of acid water creating a fire hazard;
- (d) Impound, drain or treat all runoff water so as to reduce soil erosion, damage to agricultural lands and pollution of streams and other waters;
- (e) Remove or bury all metal, lumber, and other refuse resulting from the operation.

(3) No operator shall throw, dump, pile or permit the dumping, piling or throwing or otherwise placing any overburden, stones, rocks, coal, particles of coal, earth, soil, dirt, debris, trees, wood, logs, or any other materials or substances of any kind or nature beyond or outside of the area of land which is under permit and for which bond has been posted under KRS 350.060 or place such materials herein described in such a way that normal erosion or slides brought about by natural physical causes will permit such materials to go beyond or outside of the area of land which is under permit and for which bond has been posted under KRS 350.060.

Section 75. KRS 350.130 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If any of the requirements of this chapter or rules or regulations adopted pursuant thereto or the orders of the division and the department have not been complied with within the time limits set by the division or the department or by this chapter, the division shall cause a notice of noncompliance to be served upon the operator, or where found necessary, the director shall order the suspension of a permit. Such notice or order shall be handed to the operator in person or served by certified mail, return receipt requested or by registered mail addressed to the permanent address shown on the application for a permit. The notice of noncompliance or order of suspension shall specify in what respects the operator has failed to comply with this chapter or the regulations or orders of the division and the department. If the operator has not reached an agreement with the division or has not complied with the requirements set forth in the notice of noncompliance or order of suspension within time limits set therein, the permit may be revoked by order of the department and the performance bond shall then be forfeited to the division.

(2) When a bond is forfeited pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, the director shall give notice to the attorney general, who shall collect the forfeiture.

(3) An operator whose mining permit has been revoked shall not be eligible to receive another permit or to have suspended permits reinstated until he shall have complied with all the requirements of this chapter in respect to former permits issued him, provided, further, that no operator shall be eligible to receive another permit who has forfeited any bond unless the land for which the bond was forfeited has been reclaimed without cost to the state or the operator has paid such sum as the department finds is adequate to reclaim such lands. The division shall not issue any additional permits to any operator who has repeatedly been in noncompliance or violation of this chapter, or who has had permits revoked on more than three occasions.

Section 76. KRS 352.510 is amended to read as follows:

At the hearing the operator and the well operator, or such of them as are present or represented, shall proceed to consider the objections and agree upon the character and extent of operations to be conducted within less than five hundred feet of the well so as to satisfy the objections raised and meet the approval of the department and, if no agreement can be reached, the department, after a full hearing, shall make a decision defining what coal or clay, if any, is necessary to be left for the safe protection of the use and operation of the well. The decision shall be subject to appeal by either party as provided in KRS 351.040. The department shall keep a complete record of all such hearings.

(2) The mine operator shall, every six months, while mining within five hundred feet of the well, bring up to date the maps and plans required by this section, or file new maps and plans complete to date.

The plat shall be filed and become a permanent record, subject to inspection at any time by any interested person. Any agent of the coal operator or any superintendent in actual charge of the mine may be considered as a coal operator, and any process agent or other agent or person in charge of the coal for him may be considered the owner, for the purposes of mailing the required copy of the plat.

Section 2. KRS Chapter 337.505 is amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of KRS 337.505 to 337.550, the term "prevailing wage" for each classification of laborers, workmen, and mechanics[, helpers, and apprentices] engaged in the construction of public works within the commonwealth of Kentucky, means the sum of:

(1) The basic hourly rate paid or being paid subsequent to the labor commissioner's most recent wage determination to the majority of laborers, workmen, and mechanics[, helpers, and apprentices] employed in each classification of construction upon reasonably comparable construction in the locality where the work is to be performed; such rate shall be determined by the commissioner in accordance with paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of subsection (3) of KRS 337.520; in the event that there is not a majority paid at the same rate, then the basic hourly rate of pay shall be the basic hourly rate of pay paid to the greater number: Provided, such greater number constitutes 30 per cent of those employed; or in the event that less than 30 per cent of those employed receive the same rate, then the basic hourly rate of pay shall be the average basic hourly rate which shall be determined by adding the basic hourly rates paid to all workers in the classification and dividing by the total number of such workers, and

(2) An additional amount per hour equal to the hourly rate of contribution irrevocably made or to be made by an employer on behalf of employees within each classification of construction to a trustee or to a third person pursuant to an enforceable commitment to carry out a financially responsible plan or program, which was communicated in writing to the employees affected, for the following fringe benefits: Medical or hospital care, pensions on retirement, death compensation for injuries or illness resulting from occupational activity or insurance to provide any of the foregoing, unemployment benefits, life insurance, disability and sickness insurance, accident insurance, vacation and holiday pay, defraying costs of apprenticeship or other similar programs, or other bona fide fringe benefits, but only where the employer is not required by other federal, state or local law to provide any of such benefits: Provided, said additional amount may, at the discretion of the employer, be paid either in cash to the employee or by contributions for fringe benefits, or partly in cash and partly by such contributions, it being the intention of this subsection to recognize fringe benefits as a part of the prevailing wage rate where made in accordance with this subsection.

Section 3. KRS Chapter 337.510 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Before advertising for bids or entering into any contract for construction of public works, every public authority shall notify the department in writing of the specific public work to be constructed, and shall ascertain from the department the prevailing rates of wages for each classification of laborers, workmen, and mechanics[, helpers, and apprentices] for the class of work called for in the construction of such public works in the locality where the work is to be performed. This schedule of the prevailing rate of wages shall include a statement that it has been determined in accordance with the provisions of KRS 337.505 to 337.550 and shall be attached to and made part of the specifications for the work and shall be printed on the bidding blanks and made a part of every contract for the construction of public works.

(2) The public authority advertising and awarding the contract shall cause to be inserted in the proposal and contract a stipulation to the effect that not less than the prevailing hourly rate of wages as determined by the commissioner shall be paid to all laborers, workmen, and mechanics[, helpers, and apprentices] performing work under the contract. It shall also require in all the contractor's bonds that the contractor include such provisions as will guarantee the faithful performance of the prevailing hourly wage clause as provided by contract. It shall be the duty of the public authority awarding the contract, and its agents and officers, to take cognizance of all complaints of all violations of the provisions of KRS 337.505 to 337.550 committed in the course of the execution of the contract, and when making payments to the contractor becoming due under the contract, to withhold, and retain therefrom all sums and amounts due and owing as a result of any violation thereof. It shall be lawful for any contractor to withhold from any subcontractor under him sufficient sums to cover any penalties withheld from him by the awarding authority, on account of the subcontractor's failure to comply with the terms thereof and if payment has already been made to him, the contractor may recover from him the amount of the penalty in a suit at law.

Section 4. KRS Chapter 337.512 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No public official, authorized to contract for or construct public works shall fail, before advertising for bids or undertaking such construction, to ascertain from the commissioner the prevailing rates of wages as provided in KRS 337.505 to 337.550.

(2) No member of a public authority authorized to contract for or construct public works shall vote for the award of any contract for the construction of such public works, or vote for the disbursement of any funds on account of the construction of such public works, unless such public authority has first ascertained from the commissioner the prevailing rates of wages of laborers, workmen, and mechanics[, helpers, and apprentices] for the classes of work called for by such public works in the locality where the work is to be performed and the determination of prevailing wages has been made a part of the proposal specifications and contract for such public works.

Section 5. KRS Chapter 337.520 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner shall make initial determinations and current revisions thereof of schedules of rates of prevailing wages, of the amount of fringe benefits included therein as defined in KRS 337.505, and the number of hours applicable thereto. The commissioner shall have the authority to make and revise such rules and regulations as he may deem appropriate to carry out the provisions and purposes of KRS 337.505 to 337.550 and to prevent the circumvention or evasion thereof. Such rules and regulations may include but shall not be limited to a provision that each contractor and subcontractor shall furnish weekly a sworn affidavit with respect to the wages paid each employee during the preceding week and such other relative information and in such form as the commissioner may require. No rule or regulation or revisions thereof shall be issued by the commissioner except upon reasonable notice to, and opportunity to be heard by, any .interested person.

(2) The commissioner shall require the filing of all wage contracts of all laborers, workmen, and mechanics[, helpers, and apprentices] in this state which have been agreed to between bona fide organizations of labor and an employer or associations of employers. Such contracts shall be filed within ten (10) days after they are signed.

(3) The commissioner shall have the authority to determine schedules, and current revisions thereof, of the rates of prevailing wages as defined in KRS 337.505, but in no case shall the commissioner determine wages to be paid for a legal day's work to laborers, workmen, and mechanics[, helpers, and apprentices] engaged in the construction of public works at less than the prevailing wages paid in the localities. The commissioner in determining what rates of wages prevail shall consider the following criteria:

(a) Wage rates paid on previous public works constructed in the localities. In considering such rates the commissioner shall ascertain, insofar as practicable, the names and addresses of the contractors, including subcontractors, the locations, approximate costs, dates of construction and types of projects, the number of workers employed on each project and the respective wage rates paid each worker who was engaged in the construction of these projects.

(b) Wage rates previously paid on reasonably comparable private construction projects constructed in the localities. In considering such rates the commissioner shall ascertain, insofar as practicable, the names and addresses of the contractors including subcontractors, the locations, approximate costs, dates of construction and types of projects, the number of workers employed on each project and the respective wage rates paid each worker who was engaged in the construction of these projects.

(c) Collective bargaining agreements or understandings between bona fide organizations of labor and their employers located in the commonwealth of Kentucky which agreements apply or pertain to the localities wherein the public works are to be constructed.

(4) The wage rates to be used by the public authority in a contract for the construction of public works shall be the prevailing wage as of the date the public works project is advertised and offered for bid. If contracts are not awarded within ninety (90) days after the date of offering for bid the public authority shall ascertain the prevailing rate of wages from the department before the contract is awarded. The schedule or scale of prevailing wages shall be incorporated in and made a part of each contract.

(5) The commissioner shall have the authority to make regulations authorizing the employment of apprentices and trainees in skilled trades at wages lower than the applicable prevailing wage.

Section 6. KRS Chapter 337.522 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner or his authorized representative shall conduct a public hearing for the purpose of making initial determinations, or current revisions thereof, of a prevailing wage schedule for the construction of public works pertaining to a locality. The commissioner shall within 90 days of the receipt of the transcript of a hearing publish his wage determination. Such a hearing shall be conducted in the locality after notice has been given as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(2) A public authority or any interested person may request and shall be granted an additional hearing solely for the purpose of having considered a review of the commissioner's determination [revision] of the prevailing wage schedule for the construction of public works in the locality; after notice has been given as provided in subsection (3) of this section, such hearing shall be conducted in the locality by a prevailing wage review board consisting of one member representing employers in the construction industry, one member representing labor in the construction industry, and one member appointed by the public authority requesting the hearing. The member appointed by the public authority shall reside in the locality wherein the public works are to be constructed. The members of the board representing employers in the construction industry and labor in the construction industry shall be appointed for periods of not more than four years by the Governor from a list of prospective members recommended by bona fide associations representing the construction industry and bona fide labor organizations representing workers employed in the construction industry, and such members shall serve on the board for all hearings during their tenure. Prevailing wage review boards shall have the authority to revise prevailing wage schedules for the construction of public works, however, such revisions shall be governed by the same criteria and regulations governing wage determinations of the commissioner. A revision of a prevailing wage schedule for the construction of public works shall require a vote of a majority of the members. The members of a prevailing wage review board shall receive their actual necessary expenses incurred in carrying out their duties and such expenses shall be paid out of the General Fund of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

(3) Notice of hearings as required in subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall be given by advertising one time in the newspaper having the largest circulation in the locality, and such advertisement shall be run not less than ten nor more than twenty days prior to the date of the hearing. The advertisement shall set forth all pertinent information of the hearing regarding the time, place, and purpose of the hearing.

Section 7. KRS Chapter 337.530 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Where a prevailing rate of wages has been determined and prescribed, the contract executed between a public authority and the successful bidder or contractor shall contain a provision requiring the successful bidder and all of his subcontractors to pay not less than the rate of wages so established. The successful bidder or contractor and all subcontractors shall strictly comply with these provisions of the contract.

(2) All contractors and subcontractors required by KRS 337.505 to 337.550 and by contracts with any public authority to pay not less than the prevailing rate of wages, shall pay such wages in legal tender without any deductions. These provisions shall not apply where the employer and employee enter into an agreement in writing at the beginning of or during any term of employment covering deductions for food, sleeping accommodations or any similar item if this agreement is submitted by the employer to the department and is approved by the department as fair and reasonable. All contractors and subcontractors affected by the terms of KRS 337.505 to 337.550 shall keep full and accurate payroll records covering all disbursements of wages to their employees to whom they are required to pay not less than the prevailing rate of wages. Such records shall indicate the hours worked each day by each employee in each classification of work and the amount paid each employee for his work in each classification. They shall be open to the inspection and transcript of the commissioner or his authorized representative at any reasonable time, and every employer shall furnish to the commissioner or his authorized representative on demand a sworn statement of them, and shall comply with all regulations issued by the commissioner. The commissioner may require the statement to be upon forms prescribed or approved by him. These payroll records shall not be destroyed or removed from this state for one (1) year following the completion of the improvement in connection with which they are made.

(3) Each contractor and subcontractor subject to the provisions of KRS 337.505 to 337.550 shall post and keep posted in a conspicuous place or places at the site of the construction work a copy or copies of prevailing rates of wages and working hours as prescribed in the contract with the public authority, showing the rates of wages prescribed and the working hours for each class of laborers, workmen, and mechanics[, helpers, and apprentices] employed by him in the work of constructing the public works provided for in the contract with the public authority.

(4) Every employer shall permit the commissioner or his authorized agents to question any of his employees at the site of the public work and during work hours in respect to the wages paid, hours worked and duties of such employee or other employees.

Section 8. KRS Chapter 337.540 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every public authority, before advertising for bids, shall include with the schedule of wages a provision that no laborer, workman, or mechanic[, helper, assistant or apprentice] shall be permitted to work more than eight (8) hours in one (1) calendar day, which shall constitute a legal day's work; nor more than forty (40) hours in one (1) week, which shall constitute a legal workweek, except in cases of emergency caused by fire, flood or damage to life or property. This limitation of work hours shall be made a part of the specifications for the work and printed on bid blanks where the work is done by contract and shall be incorporated as a part of each contract.

(2) No laborer, workman, or mechanic[, helper, assistant or apprentice] shall be permitted to work more than eight (8) hours in any one (1) calendar day, nor more than forty (40) hours in any one (1) week, except in cases of emergency caused by fire, flood, or damage to life or property, on the construction of public works which is being constructed under contract with any public authority.

(3) Any laborer, workman, or mechanic[, helper, assistant or apprentice] worked in excess of eight (8) hours per day or forty (40) hours per week, except in cases of emergency shall be paid not less than one and one-half (1 1/2) times the basic hourly rate of pay as defined and fixed under this chapter for all overtime worked, and each contract with any public authority for the construction of public works shall so provide.

(4) The determination of exception provided in this section of when an emergency exists shall be made by the public authority letting the contract.

Section 9. KRS Chapter 337.550 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any laborer, workman, or mechanic[, helper, or apprentice] employed on public works may file a complaint of any violation of any provision of KRS 337.505 to 337.550 with the department. The department shall assist him in the collection of claims of wages due him and shall also assist to the fullest extent in the administration and enforcement of KRS 337.505 to 337.550.

(2) A laborer, workman, or mechanic[, helper, or apprentice] may by civil action recover any sum due him as the result of the failure of his employer to comply with the terms of KRS 337.505 to 337.550. The commissioner may also bring any legal action necessary to collect claims on behalf of any or all laborers, workmen, or mechanics[, helpers, or apprentices]. No employer shall take any punitive measure or action against an employee because such employee has made a charge, testified, assisted or participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding or hearing under KRS 337.505 to 337.550. The commissioner shall not be required to pay the filing fee, or other costs, in connection with such action.

Section 10. KRS Chapter 337.515 is repealed.

(c) The total number of members of the association, as verified by a certified public accountant.

(d) That the total number of members claimed is in good standing with the association.

(e) That the members in good standing voted to determine whether or not the association should request the board to recognize the association as the exclusive representative of all certificated personnel, all teachers, or all administrators in the district for purposes of collective bargaining.

(f) That the results of the vote indicated that a majority of the members voted in favor of said representation.

(3) Teachers and administrators may bargain through separate associations or they may bargain jointly or separately through a single association to which all certificated personnel are eligible to belong.

(4) If separate bargaining rights are desired within an association to which all certificated personnel are eligible to belong, a teacher unit, an administrator unit, or both may be organized within the structure of the association. The association shall in such event include in its request for recognition a statement informing the board that a teacher unit, an administrator unit, or both shall require separate bargaining rights and that the basis for separate bargaining rights is a majority vote of members of the teacher unit or the administrator unit or both.

(5) Upon receipt of a request for recognition the board shall notify the chief elected officer of each association in the school district of the request and shall grant such associations the right to challenge any request prior to recognition of an association by the board. Challenges must be submitted within fifteen calendar days from receipt of notice from the board and such challenge must be in the form of a request. Said request shall be accompanied by either a verified statement by a Certified Public Accountant listing the total number of members in the challenging association, the fact that said members are in good standing and the fact that they constitute 15% of the certificated personnel in the challenged unit or accompanied by a petition requesting said secret ballot election signed by 25% of the certificated personnel in the unit. Even though the original request for recognition is for recognition for both a teacher unit and an administrator unit, the challenge may be directed to one or the other.

(6) If the board receives only one request for recognition, the board shall, at a time no later than its next regular meeting, issue a written statement of recognition to the association, establishing such association as the exclusive representative of all certificated personnel, all teachers, or all administrators in the district, as the case may be, for purposes of professional negotiation; provided, however, that in the event the board in good faith questions whether or not the association represents more than fifty percent of certificated personnel, or teachers or administrators, as the case may be, employed within the district by the board, the board shall not be required to issue its statement of recognition to the association unless and until such percentage representation has been verified in the manner provided in Section 4 of this Act, and when a teacher unit or an administrator unit qualifies for separate negotiating rights within an association, the written statement of recognition to the association shall so state.

(7) If the board receives a challenge and request for secret ballot election for recognition of an association as representative of all certificated personnel in the teacher unit or administrator unit or both, the board shall verify that the challenge is accompanied by the requisite number of members or signatures in the challenged unit only as required under subsection (5) above. Said verification shall be completed within a period of 7 days after the receipt of challenge. Upon completion of the verification, the board shall fix a date for the secret ballot election which date shall not be later than 30 days from the date of completion of verification. Said election shall be conducted during school hours on school premises in accordance with regulations promulgated by the Superintendent of Public Instruction who shall be guided in said promulgation by the standards for the conduct of elections followed by the American Arbitration Association and his rules so promulgated shall not be in conflict therewith. The cost of said secret ballot election shall be borne equally by the participating associations whose names shall be listed on the ballot in alphabetical order together with a separate listing for "No association". If more votes are cast for no association than for any balloted association, no association shall be recognized as exclusive representative of the certificated personnel in the unit and no association shall be permitted to petition for such recognition, regardless of membership, for a period of 24 months from the date on which said secret ballot election was held. In the event one of the associations listed on the ballot has a plurality of ballots cast, that association shall be certified as the exclusive representative for all of the certificated personnel in the unit and shall remain the exclusive representative for a period of 36 months from June 30 following the date of said election and no other qualification shall be required for such period.

(8) Written statements of recognition shall become part of the official minutes of the board.

Section 4. A new section of KRS Chapter 160 is created to read as follows:

(1) A board's recognition of an association for purposes of collective bargaining shall be for a period not to exceed three years, beginning and ending on June 30. The term of a collective bargaining agreement shall be negotiated by a board and an association, but in no case shall the term of the agreement extend beyond the period of recognition. An association may request renewal of recognition within sixty calendar days before termination of the existing recognition agreement. Upon receipt of said request for renewal, the board shall notify all other associations within the district as in subsection (5) of Section 3 of this Act. If a request for renewal of recognition is submitted, it shall include as a part thereof an affidavit containing the same information as required by subsections (2), (3), and (4) of Section 3 of this Act. If no challenges to the request for renewal are received by the board, the board shall at a time no later than seven (7) days or not later than its next regular meeting, whichever is earlier, issue a written statement of recognition. If the request for renewal is challenged, the board shall follow procedures set forth in subsections (7) and (8) of Section 3 of this Act.

(2) Thereupon, the board shall issue a statement of recognition to the proper association as set forth in subsection (1) of this section and subsection (7) and (8) of Section 3 of this Act.

Section 5. A new section of KRS Chapter 160 is created to read as follows:

(1) The association and board shall appoint bargaining teams for purposes of meeting and bargaining.

(2) The superintendent of schools shall comply with all reasonable requests from bargaining teams for records and information relating to subjects under negotiation and proposed subjects of bargaining. Public records and documents supplied by the superintendent to one of the bargaining teams shall also be supplied to the other.

(3) Agreements between the recognized association and the board that have been reached through bargaining shall be in written form and subscribed to by the duly authorized representatives of the board and the association. All such agreements shall become part of the official minutes of the board and the collective bargaining agreement.

Section 6. A new section of KRS Chapter 160 is created to read as follows:

(1) The recognized association and the board shall, if either party so requests, discuss and bargain with each other concerning policies relating to working conditions, salaries and salary schedules, employee benefits, and personnel policies relating to transfer of personnel.

(2) The association and the board shall, if either party so requests, meet and hold good faith discussions on curriculum, inservice training, all other personnel policies, and other matters which affect the quality of the educational program. Such matters may be bargained if mutually acceptable to the association and the board.

(3) The association and the board shall, at all times, bargain with each other in good faith. A sincere effort shall be made by both parties to overcome obstacles to agreement in the bargaining process.

Section 7. A new section of KRS Chapter 160 is created to read as follows:

(1) Collective bargaining in a school district shall occur when the recognized association or the board requests same. Such bargaining shall be completed within ninety calendar days of the original request or by an earlier date if agreed to by the recognized association and the board. If agreement upon the matter being negotiated has not been reached by the end of the ninety day period, or by the date agreed upon by the association and the board, an impasse shall be presumed to exist, and the procedure for resolving an impasse as outlined in Section 8 of this Act shall be employed. Either party may, when acting in good faith, declare an impasse to exist at any stage of bargaining.

(2) Once a matter has been bargained that same matter shall not be subject to bargaining for a period of twelve months from the date bargaining commenced. However, the parties may mutually agree to reopen negotiation on any matter at any time.

Section 8. A new section of KRS Chapter 160 is created to read as follows:

(1) Upon declaration of impasse by either party or upon failure of the parties to complete bargaining before deadlines set forth in this Act and in the collective bargaining agreement, the following procedure for resolution of the impasse shall be employed: Within seven calendar days the board and the recognized association shall agree upon and appoint a mediator. If at the termination of the above-mentioned time period a mediator cannot be agreed upon and appointed, the party that declared the impasse shall immediately notify the Superintendent of Public Instruction, who within ten calendar days of receipt of said notification shall appoint a mediator. The mediator shall meet with the parties or their representatives, or both, forthwith, either jointly or separately, and shall take such other steps as he may deem appropriate in order to persuade the parties to resolve their differences and effect a mutually acceptable agreement; provided, that, the mediator may, without the consent of both parties, make findings of fact or recommend terms of settlement. Unless both parties agree to a longer period, said mediator shall have fifteen calendar days in which to assist the parties in reaching agreement on the matter that has led to impasse.

(2) If the mediator's efforts do not result in the parties reaching agreement, the second step for resolving impasse shall commence in the following manner: The board and the recognized association shall within ten calendar days from the expiration of the mediator's working period each select one person to serve on a fact finding committee. A third person who shall serve as committee chairman shall be selected jointly by the other two committee members. No committee member shall be a member of the board or the association. If within ten calendar days from their appointment the two committee members are unable to agree upon the choice of a chairman, the party that declared the impasse shall so notify the circuit court of the county in which the board is located, which shall appoint a chairman within ten calendar days of receipt of notification. The committee members shall investigate, make findings of fact, and after consultation and vote, recommend a solution. The written findings and recommendations of the committee shall be presented to the parties within thirty calendar days from the time the chairman is appointed. Such recommendations shall be advisory only.

(3) The board shall adopt or reject the recommendations of the fact finding committee at its next regular meeting or by a date agreed to by the recognized association and the board.

(4) It shall be unlawful for the recognized association to cause or authorize any of its members to take part in a strike, slowdown, walkout, sickout, demonstration or any other action disrupting the orderly and continuous conduct of the public schools, and it shall be further unlawful for any teacher or administrator to take part in a strike, slowdown, walkout, sickout, demonstration or any other action disrupting the orderly and continuous conduct of the public schools. Violation of this provision shall be grounds for loss of tenure or suspension or both, or dismissal.

Section 9. A new section of KRS Chapter 160 is created to read as follows:

Certificated personnel shall have the right to join or not to join any association for their professional or economic improvement.

Section 10. A new section of KRS Chapter 160 is created to read as follows:

Expenses of advisors selected jointly by the board and the association and expenses of persons required to be appointed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction or the circuit court shall be shared equally by the board and the association. The board shall pay the expenses of any person it appoints or selects, and the association shall pay the expenses of any person it appoints or selects. Expenditures required under this Act are conclusively presumed to be for the direct benefit of the public schools and for a valid school purpose.

Section 11. A new section of KRS Chapter 160 is created to read as follows:

(1) Boards and associations reaching agreements, as described in Section 5 (3), shall adopt a grievance procedure pursuant to Sections 12, 13 and 14 of this Act, or some other grievance procedure negotiated by the parties and contained in the agreement. The purpose of any such grievance procedure shall be to secure at the lowest possible administrative level, equitable solutions to the problems that may from time to time arise affecting the interpretation, meaning or application of the provisions of the agreement between the association and the board. The proceedings will be kept informal and confidential at any level of the procedure, but may be made public within three (3) days of the conclusion of the final arbitration.

(2) Nothing contained herein will be construed as limiting the right of any member having a grievance to discuss the matter informally with any appropriate member of the administration, and to have the grievance adjusted without intervention by the association.

(3) The grievance procedures contained in Sections 12, 13 and 14 of this Act shall not be applicable to any agreement unless specifically adopted by the terms of such agreement.

Section 12. A new section of KRS Chapter 160 is created to read as follows:

(1) Grievances must be processed as rapidly as possible and the timetable specified at each level is to be considered as a maximum. Every effort should be made to expedite the process but the time limits specified may be extended by mutual agreement. In the event a grievance is filed at such a time that it cannot be processed through all the steps in the grievance procedure by the end of the school year and, if left unresolved until the beginning of the following school year, could result in irreparable harm to a party in interest, the time limits set forth herein shall be reduced so that the procedure will be exhausted prior to the end of the school year or as soon thereafter as is practicable. No grievance may be filed later than three (3) months after the event that allegedly caused it.

(2) Level One. A member with a grievance will first discuss it with his principal or immediate superior, either directly or through the association's designated grievance representative, with the objective of resolving the matter informally.

(3) Level Two.

(a) If the aggrieved person is not satisfied with the disposition of his grievance at Level One, or if no decision has been rendered within ten school days after presentation of the grievance, he may file the grievance in writing simultaneously with the chairman of the grievance committee, as established by the association, and with the superintendent within five school days after the decision at Level One or fifteen school days after the grievance was presented, whichever is sooner.

(b) Within ten school days after receipt of the written grievance by the superintendent, he will meet with the aggrieved person and a representative of the association in an effort to resolve it.

(4) Level Three.

(a) If the aggrieved person is not satisfied with the disposition of his grievance at Level Two, or if no decision has been rendered within ten school days after he has first met with the superintendent, he may, within five school days after a decision by the superintendent or fifteen school days after he has first met with the superintendent, whichever is sooner, request in writing that the chairman of the grievance committee submit his grievance to arbitration. If the grievance committee determines that the grievance should be submitted to arbitration, the grievance committee may, by written notice to the superintendent within fifteen school days after receipt of the request from the aggrieved person, submit the grievance to arbitration. If the grievance committee does not submit the grievance to arbitration, the aggrieved person may do so by written notice to the superintendent within five school days after said refusal to submit by the grievance committee. The arbitrator selected to hear the dispute shall first rule on the question as to whether the particular grievance involves the interpretation, meaning or application of any of the provisions of the agreement between the association and the board.

(b) Within ten school days after such written notice of submission to arbitration, the superintendent and the grievance committee shall attempt to agree upon a mutually acceptable arbitrator and to obtain a commitment from such arbitrator to serve. The aggrieved person shall take the place of the grievance committee when the grievance committee has declined to submit the grievance to arbitration. If the parties are unable to agree upon an arbitrator or to obtain such a commitment within the ten-day period, a request for a list of arbitrators may be made to the American Arbitration Association by either party. The parties will then be bound by the rules and procedures of the American Arbitration Association in the selection of an arbitrator.

(c) The arbitrator so selected will confer with the superintendent, the grievance committee, and the aggrieved person, hold hearings promptly, and issue his decision not later than twenty days from the date of the close of the hearings or, if oral hearings have been waived, then from the date the final statements and proofs are submitted to him. The arbitrator's recommendations will be in writing and will set forth his findings of fact, reasoning and conclusions on the issues submitted. The arbitrator shall be without power or authority to make any decision that requires the commission of an act prohibited by law or that is violative of the terms of the agreement. The decision of the arbitrator will be submitted to the board and the association.

(d) In all arbitration hearings the procedural rules of the American Arbitration Association in effect at the time the grievance is originally filed shall be used to the extent that such rules do not conflict with this Act or the negotiated agreement.

(e) The costs for the services of the arbitrator, including per diem expenses, if any, and his travel and subsistence expenses and the cost of any hearing room shall be borne equally by the board and the association except when the aggrieved person pursues arbitration without the recommendations of the grievance committee. In such latter case the costs shall be borne equally by the board and the aggrieved person. All other costs shall be borne by the party incurring them.

Section 13. A new section of KRS Chapter 160 is created to read as follows:

(1) No reprisals of any kind will be taken by the superintendent or by any member or representative of the administration or the board against any aggrieved person, any party in interest, any grievance representative, any member of the grievance committee or any other participant in the grievance procedure by reason of such participation.

(2) A member may be represented at all stages of the grievance procedure by himself, or, at his option, by a grievance representative, selected by the association. The association or aggrieved party shall not be restricted in the selection of a grievance representative and it is not necessary that the person selected be a member of the association or an employee of the board. The association or aggrieved party may choose to change grievance representatives in moving from one level of grievance procedure to another, provided the board is notified in writing of such change.

(3) References to the superintendent in Sections 5, 12, 13, and 14 shall be construed to include such other person or persons that the superintendent or board may designate as a representative for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of said sections.

(4) If a member is not represented by the association, the association shall have the right to present and state its views at all stages of the grievance procedure. When the association enters into the grievance procedure, it may present new facts but shall be restricted to the grievance as originally presented.

Section 14. A new section of KRS Chapter 160 is created to read as follows:

(1) If, in the judgment of the grievance committee, a grievance affects a group or class of members, the grievance committee may initiate and submit such grievance in writing to the superintendent directly and the processing of such grievance shall be commenced at Level Two.

(2) If a grievance arises from action or inaction on the part of a member of the administration at a level above the principal or immediate superior, the aggrieved person shall submit such grievance in writing to the superintendent and the grievance committee directly and the processing of such grievance shall be commenced at Level Two. The grievance committee may not process such a grievance if the aggrieved person does not wish to do so.

(3) Decisions rendered at Levels One and Two of the grievance procedure shall be in writing setting forth the decision and the reasons therefor and shall be transmitted promptly to all parties in interest and to the chairman of the grievance committee. Decisions rendered at Level Three will be in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 12, (4) (d).

(4) If it is necessary for a grievance representative, member of the grievance committee or other representative designated by the association to investigate a grievance or attend a grievance meeting or hearing during the school day, he will, upon reasonable notice to his principal or immediate superior by the chairman of the grievance committee, be released without loss of pay as reasonably necessary in order to permit participation in the foregoing activities so long as such activities do not unreasonably interfere with the normal school routines and business, provided, however, if the school administrator determines that such meeting unduly interferes with school business such meeting shall be held at a time other than normal school hours. Any member whose appearance in such investigations, meetings, or hearings as a witness is necessary will be accorded the same right.

(5) All documents, communications, and records dealing with the processing of a grievance will be filed in a separate grievance file and no record or notation of any kind, concerning a grievance, will be placed in the personnel file of any of the participants.

(6) Forms for filing grievances, serving notices, taking appeals, making reports and recommendations, and other necessary documents shall be prepared and distributed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Section 15. The effective date of this Act shall be January 1, 1975.

The following restrictions shall govern the expenditure of funds from the public school foundation program fund:

(1) The teachers' salaries allotment for each district from the public school foundation program fund and from local sources shall be used only for teachers holding properly authorized certificates. (e) As a reserve fund for the above-named purposes, to be carried forward in ensuing budgets; provided, however, if any district has a special levy for capital outlay or debt service that is equal to the capital outlay allotment or a proportionate fraction thereof, and spends the proceeds of that levy for the above-named purposes, the Superintendent of Public Instruction under regulations of the State Board of Education, may authorize the district to use all or a proportionate fraction of its capital outlay allotment for current expenses.

(4) If a survey shows that a school district has no capital outlay needs as shown in paragraph (a), (b), (c), and (d) of subsection (3) of this section, upon approval of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, these funds may be used for school plant maintenance, repair, insurance on buildings, and replacement of equipment.

In addition whenever a change in the status of a member results in an obligation on this fund, there shall be transferred to this fund from the teachers' savings fund, the state accumulation fund and the allowance reserve fund such amounts as may be held in those funds for the account or benefit of the member. All claims for benefits under KRS 161.520, 161.525, and 161.655 shall be paid from this fund. Any amounts not required to meet current costs shall be maintained as a reserve for this benefit.

All income, interest and dividends derived from the authorized deposits and investments shall be paid into the guarantee fund. Any funds received from gifts and bequests, which the board is hereby authorized to accept, shall be credited to the guarantee fund. Any funds transferred from the teachers' savings fund by reason of lack of claimant or because of a surplus in any fund and any other moneys whose disposition is not otherwise provided for, shall also be credited to the guarantee

(3) Effective July 1, 1974[1960], and thereafter, an active contributing member of the retirement system with [at least three years of] contributing service equal to three years or the number of years subsequent to the withdrawal of contributions, whichever is the lesser number, [and cancellation of service credit] may regain such service credit by depositing in the teachers' savings fund the amount withdrawn with interest at the rate to be set by the board of trustees [three percent per annum compounded annually], and computed from the first of the month of withdrawal and including the month of redeposit [and by depositing in the state accumulation fund an additional sum equal to fifty percent of this amount. The payment to the state accumulation fund, shall, in the event of death of the member prior to retirement, be refunded to the estate or assigns of the teacher unless the assigns qualify for benefits provided in KRS 161.520 or 161.525].

(5) [(6)] Membership in the retirement system shall be terminated:

(a) By retirement for service;

(b) By death;

(c) By withdrawal of the member's accumulated contributions; or

(6) [(7)] In case of withdrawal from service prior to eligibility for retirement, the board of trustees shall on request of the teacher return [to the teacher] all of his accumulated contributions, but the teacher shall have no claim on any contributions made by the state with a view to his retirement or to any contributions made to the hospital and medical insurance fund, or the survivors and death benefit fund. If the member is eligible for an immediate service retirement allowance as provided in KRS 161.600 no withdrawal and refund shall be permitted, but in lieu thereof the teacher shall be entitled to a retirement allowance.

(7) [(8)] Except as provided in KRS 161.520 and 161.525 in case of death prior to retirement the board of trustees shall pay to the estate of the deceased member or to his assigns all of his accumulated contributions, with regular interest, but the estate or assigns shall have no claim on any contributions made by the state with a view to the retirement of the teacher or to any contributions made to the hospital and medical insurance fund or the survivors and death benefit fund.

For each year of which the retirement system shall accept the contribution and interest, one year of subsequent service credit shall be given. No credit shall be granted for service which has been [is being] or will be used in qualifying for annuity benefit payments from another retirement system financed wholly or in part by public funds.

(b) For each such year so paid for and for any additional years for which contributions have been paid currently, not to exceed eight years in all, any member of the retirement system may offer bona fide out-of-state service for credits as prior service but not a greater number of years than the number for which contributions are paid, and in no case more than eight years of service prior to July 1, 1941. No credit shall be granted for service which has been or will be used in qualifying for annuity benefit payments from another retirement system financed wholly or in part by public funds. (c) A member of the retirement system having teaching service in the elementary or secondary schools operated by the United States overseas or in this country, or in a public college or university in Kentucky, not included in the Teachers' Retirement System of the State of Kentucky may present such service for credit in the retirement system on the same basis as provided above for out-of-state service credit, however, no such service may be presented which shall be used as a basis for retirement benefits in any program supported wholly or in part by such public institution or governmental agency. Such service when added to service credited under subsection (2) (a) or (2) (b) of this section shall not exceed a total of eight years service credit.

Section 10. KRS 161.520 is amended to read as follows:

Benefits under this subsection shall apply notwithstanding benefits which may be payable under subsections (1) and (3).

(3) Where the survivor is a child age eighteen or older whose mental or physical condition is sufficient to cause his dependency on the deceased member at the time of the member's death the benefit shall be one hundred sixty [and fifty] dollars per month, payable for the life of such child or until such time as the mental or physical condition creating the dependency no longer exists. Benefits under this subsection and subsection (2) shall apply to legally adopted survivors provided the proceedings for the adoption were initiated at least one year prior to the death of the member. Dependency of a parent shall be established as of the date of the death of the member.

(5) Where the sole eligible survivor is a dependent brother or sister, the benefit shall be one hundred thirty [and twenty-five] dollars per month. In order to qualify the brother or sister must have been a resident of the deceased member's household for at least one full year prior to the member's death or must have been receiving care in a hospital, nursing home or other institution at the member's expense for a like period.

(6) The benefit to a child as defined in subsection (2) of this section shall terminate upon the attainment of age eighteen or upon age nineteen if a full-time student in high school or upon marriage, except that benefits shall continue until the attainment of age twenty-three for an unmarried child who is a full-time student in a recognized educational program beyond the high school level. The benefit to a widow, dependent widower, dependent parent or dependent brother or sister or dependent child age eighteen or older shall terminate upon marriage, or upon termination of the condition creating the dependency. The benefit shall not be paid during the time the survivor, other than a child is receiving an annuity, pension or allowance in excess of three hundred dollars per month from a retirement or pension system in the State of Kentucky financed in whole or part by public contributions, excluding Old Age and Survivors Insurance.

(7) The board of trustees shall be the sole judge of eligibility or dependency of any beneficiary, and may require formal application or information relating thereto, including proof of annual income satisfactory to the board. The board of trustees may subpoena records and individuals whenever it deems such action necessary.

(8) No payments of benefits shall be made unless the board of trustees shall have authorized such payments. The board shall formulate and adopt necessary rules and regulations for the administration of the foregoing provisions and in every case the decision of the board of trustees shall be final as to eligibility, dependency, or disability, and the amounts of benefit payable.

(9) In the event that there are no eligible survivors as defined in subsections (1), (2), (3), (4), and (5) of this section, the board of trustees shall pay to the estate or assigns of the deceased member a refund of his accumulated contributions as provided in KRS 161.470 (7) [(8)]. If the benefits paid or payable under subsections (1), (2), (3), (4), and (5) of this section and KRS 161.661 shall amount to a sum less than the member's accumulated contributions at the time of death, the board of trustees shall pay to the estate or assigns of the deceased member the balance of such accumulated contributions.

(1) Whether the proposed project should be undertaken or abandoned, and

(2) Whether the nature and scope of the project shall be altered. The First Ordinance shall be published pursuant to KRS Chapter 424. The First Ordinance may designate a person, who may be the mayor, a member of the governing body, or any official of the urban county government, to preside at and conduct such public hearing. In the absence of a designation in the ordinance, the mayor, or a person designated by the mayor shall preside. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the public hearing shall not be deemed irregular or improper if it is in fact presided over and conducted at the designated time, and place by any elected officer or member of the governing body. Any owner of property intended to be benefited by the proposed improvement project may be heard at such public hearing, in person or by a representative.

Section 6. A new section of KRS Chapter 67A is created to read as follows:

If at a subsequent meeting, the governing body of the urban county government determines that the owners of more than fifty percent both in number of lots or parcels and in aggregate assessed value of the properties to be benefited by the project, object to the project, it shall not be undertaken unless the project is that of constructing sanitary sewers, in which case the governing body may approve the project with less than fifty percent property owner approval if the project will eliminate a public health hazard. If fifty percent or more do not object, the governing body shall enact a Second Ordinance, which shall be published as provided in this Act with respect to publication of the First Ordinance.

Section 7. A new section of KRS Chapter 67A is created to read as follows:

Proposals for the construction of the project shall be solicited upon the basis of the submission of sealed competitive bids after advertisement, by publication pursuant to KRS Chapter 424. Upon or after the acceptance by the governing body of a bid, or combination of bids, the governing body may determine the total cost for the proposed project, taking into account the amount of the accepted bids, and all other costs of the project, as herein defined. Each contract shall be supported by a performance bond for the full amount thereof, with good surety to be approved by the governing body.

Section 8. A new section of KRS Chapter 67A is created to read as follows:

(1) When the total cost of the project has been established, the amount to be assessed against each parcel of property shall be determined. Property owners shall be notified by certified mail of the exact amount due for their portion of the project. They shall be given thirty days in which to pay in full.

(2) At the end of the thirty days, the governing body shall total the amount of properties for which no payment was received and authorize sale of bonds of the urban county government to provide the amount necessary to complete financing of the project. The governing body shall establish the denominations and maturity dates thereof which may be term or serial maturities, not to exceed twenty years.

Section 9. A new section of KRS Chapter 67A is created to read as follows:

(1) Within thirty (30) days after notice provided in Section 8 (1) any owner of property to be benefited by the proposed project, may file an action in circuit court, seeking relief by declaratory judgment, injunction, or otherwise.

(2) If such action is filed, all proceedings of the urban-county government with respect to the above project shall be abated until final judicial determination of the controversies presented thereby. After the lapse of the thirty (30) day period, all actions by owners of properties to be benefited shall be forever barred.

Section 10. A new section of KRS Chapter 67A is created to read as follows:

An annual assessment on each parcel of property for which bonds are issued shall be levied according to the assessed value basis. The first such levy and each succeeding levy shall be made in advance and shall be sufficient to pay the principal and interest on the bonds. As a precaution against default and to provide a debt service reserve the governing body shall also assess and collect annually an amount equal to one-half of one percent of the total amount of the principal and interest of the bonds. The advance payment and debt service reserve shall be deposited in an interest bearing account. The earnings shall be used to pay the last installment on the bonds.

Section 11. A new section of KRS Chapter 67A is created to read as follows:

The governing body shall adopt a Third Ordinance authorizing the sale of the bonds and covenanting with the holders of the bonds and coupons, that until the payment in full thereof the urban county government will levy annually an improvement assessment upon the affected properties only. The ordinance shall also covenant with the holders of said bonds and coupons, until payment in full thereof, the governing body will pursue and exhaust, at the urban county government's expense, all remedies available to the urban county government and for the benefit and protection of the bondholders, including enforcement to judgment and decretal sale of the liens upon affected properties, as provided in this Act. The ordinance shall designate one or more places of payment of principal and interest, within or without the commonwealth and provide for the payment by the urban county government of any and all reasonable and customary charges for the services of paying agents, to the end that the holders of the bonds and coupons will receive the sums therein stipulated, without deductions for such charges. The ordinance may contain any other provisions not contrary to law.

Section 12. A new section of KRS Chapter 67A is created to read as follows:

After the Third Ordinance has been adopted (and without regard for its date of publication), the urban county government may solicit the submission of bids or proposals for the purchasing of the bonds authorized by the Third Ordinance, the same to be received upon a sealed competitive basis after advertisement by publication pursuant to KRS Chapter 424. Such bids or proposals may be solicited on the basis of competition as to price or interest coupon rates, as may be specified in the published notice, and bids offering less than the par or face value of the bonds may be considered and accepted if so stated in the published notice of the sale. If no bids are received upon terms acceptable to the governing body and conforming to the published notice, bids may again be solicited by similar published notice, until a purchase bid is received upon terms acceptable to the governing body, but the bonds, or a portion thereof, may be awarded to a contractor, according to the provisions of this Act.

Section 13. A new section of KRS Chapter 67A is created to read as follows:

As prepayments are received and when the bonds are delivered and the proceeds are received by the urban county government, the same shall be deposited in an interest bearing account in a bank or trust company, or combined bank and trust company, and to the extent such deposit may exceed insurance provided by federal deposit insurance corporation (if the depository be a member thereof, otherwise the full amount), the same shall be secured by a valid pledge of bonds or notes of the United States government, or fully guaranteed thereby, having at all times a market value equal to the undisbursed balance of such deposit; or shall be secured in such other manner as the governing body may prescribe or approve. Costs of the project which may then be earned and payable, may be paid forthwith. There shall be set aside into the sinking fund, hereinafter created, a sum from bond proceeds equal to all interest which will accrue on said bonds until the date when the first improvement assessment levied in connection therewith will become due and payable. The remainder may be disbursed from time to time in payment of costs of the project, as herein defined, except that payments on account of the construction contracts shall not exceed ninety percent (90%) of the amount shown by a written certificate of the engineer to have been earned for materials furnished and/or labor performed by any contractor, the retained ten percent (10%) to be disbursed only upon final acceptance of the finished work of such contractor. If, after completion, acceptance and payment of the work of all contractors, and the payment of all costs of the improvement project, as herein defined, there shall remain an unexpended balance of bond proceeds, such balance shall be transferred to the sinking fund created and maintained in connection with the project, as provided in this Act. The advanced installment and the one-half of one percent collected pursuant to Section 10 of this Act shall be part of the sinking fund.

Each of said bonds shall bear on its face the statement that it has been issued under this Act, and that it does not constitute an indebtedness of the urban county government within the meaning of the constitution. The bonds, and the receipt of interest thereon, shall not be subject to taxation. The bonds shall have all the qualities and incidents of negotiable instruments. The bonds, and the interest thereon, shall be payable exclusively from the proceeds of the annual improvement assessments levied upon the properties benefited by the project identified in the bonds; but the urban county government shall become directly and personally liable to the bondholders for any deficiencies which may arise from its failure to pursue to exhaustion, and in timely fashion, all remedies lawfully available in the collection of such improvement assessments.

Section 15. A new section of KRS Chapter 67A is created to read as follows:

The sum necessary to be raised annually for the sinking fund shall be assessed against the property benefited in the proportion that the assessed value of each lot or parcel for urban county government taxation shall bear to the whole assessed value of the benefited properties, as shown by the records upon which urban county government taxation is based at the time of the adoption of the third ordinance. Where there is no such record, as in the case of public property, or property owned by religious, charitable, or educational institutions, the same (except that owned by the United States government) shall be specially assessed by the proper assessing officers, and for such special assessment reasonable compensation may be made. Any such special assessment shall be subject to all procedures for equalization and judicial review as may be provided by law in connection with ordinary assessments.

Section 16. A new section of KRS Chapter 67A is created to read as follows:

The Department for Finance and Administration of an urban county government shall provide a method of accounting for payments for less than a year in order to have the first and each succeeding installment in advance.

Section 17. A new section of KRS Chapter 67A is created to read as follows:

The annual improvement assessment for each project shall be levied by the governing body when the levy for general urban county taxes is made; and such improvement assessment levy shall be due at the same time, or times, when the general urban county government taxes are due, and shall be subject to the same penalties and accrual of interest in the event of nonpayment as in the case of such general taxes unless the bond interest rate is greater, in which case, it shall apply.

Section 18. A new section of KRS Chapter 67A is created to read as follows:

Each annual improvement assessment, with any penalty or interest incident to the nonpayment thereof, shall constitute a lien upon the lot or parcel of benefited property against which it is assessed. The lien shall attach to each lot or parcel of benefited property as the same is described by the owner's deed of record in the county court clerk's office at the time of the publication of the Third Ordinance, as herein provided, and thereupon shall take precedence over all other liens, whether created prior to or subsequent to the publication of said ordinance, except state and county taxes, general municipal taxes, and prior improvement taxes and shall not be defeated or postponed by any private or judicial sale, by any mortgage, or by any error or mistake in the description of the property or in the names of the owners. No error in the proceedings of the governing body shall exempt any benefited property from its share of the improvement assessment, or from the payment thereof, or from the penalties or interest thereon, as herein provided. No error in the proceedings of the governing body shall exempt any property from liability for payment of any annual improvement assessment, or for any interest or penalty incident to nonpayment thereof. The urban county's governing body, or any court of competent jurisdiction, shall have power to make such rules and orders as may be required to do justice to all parties.

Section 19. A new section of KRS Chapter 67A is created to read as follows:

The proceeds received by the urban county government from each and every annual improvement assessment levy made in connection with each separate improvement project, as authorized by this Act, shall be segregated from and kept always separate and apart from all other receipts of the urban county government from any and all other sources, and shall be deposited in a separate and special account in a financial institution in an account so specially designated by number or other designation as to identify the same in such manner as to distinguish the receipts and deposits from each such project from the receipts and deposits from every other such project, and from any and every other account or fund of the urban county government. The same shall constitute the "sinking fund" referred to in this Act. The funds shall be deposited in an interest bearing account, at the rate of interest prevailing at the time of such deposit. When the bonds become due, funds shall be transferred to the account from which the bonds shall be paid.

Section 20. A new section of KRS Chapter 67A is created to read as follows:

All sums received and deposited in the sinking fund shall be held inviolate and applied by the urban county government solely for the payment of the principal of, and interest on, the bonds issued for the financing of the identified improvement project. The amount collected, and deposited in the sinking fund from the first improvement assessment levied in connection with any project, in excess of maturing principal and interest of the bonds, and for the purpose of creating a "debt service reserve," shall be held in the sinking fund for that purpose.

Section 21. A new section of KRS Chapter 67A is created to read as follows:

If the urban county government shall adopt the Third Ordinance, herein referred to, and shall publicly solicit the submission of bids or proposals for the purchasing of its "improvement assessment bonds" for the project identified therein, and shall fail to receive a bid upon terms of price and/or interest coupon rate, or rates, conforming to the published notice and acceptable to the governing body, the bonds, or a portion thereof, may be awarded to the contractor, or contractors, at a price of not less than the minimum price permitted by the said published notice, and bearing one or more interest coupon rates not exceeding the rate, or rates, permitted in the said published notice but only upon the following conditions:

(1) The entire bond issue authorized by the Third Ordinance may be awarded to the contractor, or contractors, if it or they shall submit to, and obtain formal approval by, the governing body of the urban county government, of a written undertaking (approval as to form and substance by the government's duly designated legal counsel), (a) agreeing to accept in full an agreed payment of the amount, or the aggregate of the amounts, of their respective contracts, bonds as authorized by the Third Ordinance equal in principal amount (or as near thereto as may be practicable) to the amount, or the aggregate of the amounts of their contracts (in which event such bonds shall be the latest maturing and highest numbered of the bonds authorized by the Third Ordinance), and (b) agreeing to pay to the urban county government, in cash, the purchase price of the bonds to the extent that the same exceeds the aggregate amount of the contracts of the contractor, or contractors, who are signatories of such written instrument; or

(2) Bonds equal to the amount, or amounts, of the contracts of the contractor, or contractors, who are signatories of a written instrument agreeing to accept the same in payment thereof, approved as to form and substance by the urban county government's properly designated legal counsel, may be awarded to such contractor, or contractors, in the event the urban county government is able to, and does, (within constitutional restrictions) appropriate from available funds a sum in cash sufficient to defray all costs of the project, as defined in this Act, in excess of the amount of such construction contract, or the aggregate of the several contracts. In such event, the sum so appropriated by the governing body of the urban county government shall be applied to the payment of such costs;

(3) In the event of procedure as set forth in either subsection (1) or (2) of this section, the bonds awarded to the contractor, or contractors (other than those paid for in cash as set forth in the foregoing subsection (1)), shall be placed by the urban county government, in escrow, with a responsible financial institution, with written instructions that the same may be released to the contractor, or contractors, from time to time, but in principal amount not exceeding seventy-five percent (75%) of the amount certified in writing by the engineer, or engineers, to the said escrow agent, and the urban county government, to have been theretofore earned by and payable to the identified contractor, or contractors, under the terms and conditions of their respective contracts. Upon final approval and acceptance of the project by the governing body, the reserved twenty-five percent (25%) of such bonds may be released and delivered to such contractor, or contractors.

If, by reason of miscalculation or the happening of unforeseen events or conditions, the proceeds of the bonds authorized by the Third Ordinance should prove to be insufficient to provide for the completion of the project and the payment in full of all costs thereof, the governing body shall be authorized to reassess all properties and collect in cash or to issue and sell additional bonds sufficient to make up the deficiency, and such additional bonds shall rank on a parity as to security and source of payment with the bonds originally authorized.

Section 23. A new section of KRS Chapter 67A is created to read as follows:

The amount of the annual assessment collected and the debt service reserve and any interest earned therefrom shall remain in the sinking fund. When the amount in the sinking fund is sufficient to retire bonds at maturity, assessments shall cease. In the event of a surplus after all bonds have been retired, the surplus shall be returned on a pro rata basis to the property owners if in excess of one dollar per property. If less than one dollar, the surplus shall be transferred to the general fund of the urban county government.

Section 24. A new section of KRS Chapter 67A is created to read as follows:

If an urban county government has taken any steps under this Act to provide for, construct or finance any improvements allowed to be undertaken by the provisions of this Act, and for any reason the project cannot be completed according to the provisions of this Act, the governing body may:

(1) Abandon the project, in which case all prepayments shall be returned. Any interest earned on prepayments may also be returned or retained and applied to any cost resulting from the effort to complete the project.

(2) The governing body may proceed in any manner authorized by law, to complete the project. In this case all prepayments and any interest earned shall be returned on a pro rata basis. All expenses resulting from the effort to complete the project under the provisions of this Act, shall be added to the total cost of the completed project.

HB 570, AN ACT relating to cities.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 92.403 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In all cities except cities of the first [of the second] class, whether operating under the councilmanic form of government, or under the commission or city manager form of government, an annual audit of all the accounts of all city officers and of officers of municipally owned utilities, shall be made at the termination of each fiscal year. The legislative body of the city and the officers of the municipally owned utilities shall select, to make the audits, qualified public accountants who have no personal interest in the financial affairs of the city or of any of its officers or employees, and shall cause a summary of each audit to be published pursuant to KRS chapter 424. A copy of the audit of each officer or agency shall be kept on file in the respective offices. Within one (1) week after publication of the audit, a complete copy of each audit shall be filed in the office of the county court clerk. Excepting officers of a city of the first class, a county containing such a city, a public agency of such a city or county, or a joint agency of such a city and county, or of a school district of such a city or county, and excepting officers of a city [of the second class] that is required by law to publish an annual audit of its financial affairs pursuant to KRS 92.403, every public officer of any school district, [city,] county, or subdivision or district less than a county, whose duty it is to collect, receive, have the custody, control or disbursement of public funds; and every officer of any board or commission of a city, county or district whose duty it is to collect, receive, have the custody, control or disbursement of funds collected from the public in the form of rates, charges or assessments for services or benefits, shall at the expiration of each fiscal year prepare an itemized, sworn statement of the funds collected, received, held or disbursed by him during the fiscal year just closed, unless he has complied with KRS 424.230. The statement shall show the amount of funds collected and received, from what sources received, the amount disbursed, the date of each disbursement, for what purpose expended, and to whom paid, except that only the totals of amounts paid to each individual as salary or commission and public utility bills need to be shown. The officer shall procure and include in or attach to the statement as a part thereof a certificate from the cashier or other proper officer of the banks in which the funds are or have been deposited during the past year, showing the balance, if any, of funds to the credit of the officer making the statement. The officer shall, within sixty days after the close of the fiscal year, cause the statement to be published in full in a newspaper qualified under KRS 424.120 to publish advertisements for the city, county or district, as the case may be. Promptly after the publication is made, the officer shall file a written or printed copy of the advertisement with proof of publication, in the office of the county court clerk of the county. The commissioner shall be free to use any investigation of education and experience and any test of capacity, knowledge, manual skill, character, personal traits, or physical fitness which in his judgment serves the need to discover the relative fitness of applicants;

Such preference shall be in the form of points added to the final passing grades of such persons on original entrance examinations, Provided That they otherwise qualify and are entitled to appear on the list of those eligible for appointment. (8)[(9)] For a period of probation not to exceed one (1) year before appointment or promotion may be made complete, and during which period a probationer may be discharged or reduced in class or rank, or replaced on the eligible list. The appointing authority shall, within thirty (30) days prior to the expiration on an employee's probationary period, notify the commissioner in writing whether the probationary employee is recommended for permanent status. Only if the appointing authority certifies to the satisfactory nature of the probationary employee's services, shall permanent status be conferred;

(9)[(10)] For emergency employment for not more than thirty (30) working days with or without examination, with the consent of the commissioner;

(10)[(11)] For provisional employment without competitive examination when there is no appropriate eligible list available. No such provisional employment shall continue longer than six (6) months, nor shall successive provisional appointment be allowed to the same position [, except during the first year after July 1, 1960 in order to avoid stoppage of orderly conduct of the business of the commonwealth];

(15)[(16)] For imposition as disciplinary measures of a fine of not more than ten (10) days' pay or for suspension from the service without pay for not longer than thirty (30) days;

(16)[(17)] For discharge or reduction in rank or grade only for cause, after the person to be discharged or reduced has been presented with the reasons for such discharge or reduction stated in writing, and has been allowed a reasonable time to reply thereto in writing, or, upon request, to appear personally with counsel and reply to the head of the department or his deputy. The statement of reasons and the reply shall be filed as a public record with the commissioner;

(3) Veterans, their wives, widows, and mothers are eligible for preference points only after passing an appropriate examination.

(4)[(1)] The wife of a veteran of the armed forces of the United States who would be eligible for a ten (10) point preference, and whose service-connected disability disqualifies him for positions along the general line of his usual occupation shall be entitled to a ten (10) point preference. In such a case, the wife loses her right to preference if the husband recovers. Also, if the husband's military service was peacetime service, she loses her right to preference if he dies.

(5)[(2)] Until she remarries, the widow of an honorably separated veteran who served on active duty during any war, or during the period April 28, 1952, through July 1, 1955, or in a campaign or expedition for which a United States campaign badge or service medal was authorized shall be entitled to a ten (10) point preference. This includes the widow of a man meeting any of these service requirements who died while in the armed forces, unless the circumstances surrounding his death would have been cause for other than honorable separation.

(6)[(3)] The mother of a veteran who lost his life under honorable conditions while on active duty in a war or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge or service medal has been authorized, or during the period April 28, 1952, through July 1, 1955, or who became permanently and totally disabled because of a service-connected disability, shall be entitled to a ten (10) point preference provided that she is widowed, divorced, or separated from the father of the veteran, or the father is permanently and totally disabled. An otherwise eligible mother who has remarried may be granted preference only if, with reference to the subsequent marriage, her husband is permanently and totally disabled, or she is divorced or legally separated, or she has been widowed.

[(4) As used herein, "ten (10) point preference" means the greatest number of points preference in examination for a position in the state service allowable under subsection (4) of KRS 18.210 to persons having served in the armed forces of the United States.]

The commissioner of personnel shall prepare and submit to the governor proposed rules for the unclassified service persons in positions enumerated in paragraphs (f), (g), (h), (i), (j), and (o) of subsection (1) of KRS 18.140. Such rules shall be approved by the governor and promulgated according to KRS chapters 12 and 13. The rules shall provide:

(1) For the preparation, maintenance and revision of a position classification plan for all positions in the unclassified service, based upon similarity of duties performed and responsibilities assumed, so that the same qualifications may reasonably be required for and the same schedule of pay may be equitably applied to all positions in the same class. After such classification plan has been approved by the governor, the commissioner shall allocate the positions of every employee in the unclassified service to one (1) of the classes of the plan. Any employee affected by the allocation of a position to a class shall, after filing with the commissioner of personnel a written request for reconsideration thereof in such manner and form as the commissioner may prescribe, be given a reasonable opportunity to be heard thereon by the commissioner;

(2) For a pay plan for all employees in the unclassified service, after consultation with appointing authorities and the commissioner of finance, and taking into account such factors as (a) the relative levels of duties and responsibilities of various classes of positions; (b) rates paid for comparable positions elsewhere; and (c) the state's financial resources. Such pay plan shall become effective only after it has been approved by the governor after submission to him by the commissioner of personnel through the commissioner of finance. Amendments to the pay plan may be made in the same manner. Each employee shall be paid at one (1) of the rates set forth in the pay plan for the position in which he is employed;

(3) For transfer from a position in one (1) department to a similar position in another department involving similar qualifications, duties, responsibilities, and salary ranges;

(4) For annual, sick and special leaves of absence, with or without pay, or reduced pay, after approval by the governor as provided in KRS 18.170(2);

(5) For the development and operation of programs to improve the work effectiveness and morale of employees in the unclassified service, including training, safety, health, welfare, counseling, recreation, and employee relations;

[(6) For establishing the physical requirements and obtaining proof of meeting such requirements of persons applying for unskilled laborer positions outside the classified service;]

(6)[(7)] For such other rules and administrative regulations, not inconsistent with KRS 18.110 to 18.340, as may be proper and necessary for its enforcement.

Section 8. KRS 18.300 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the approval of the personnel board the commissioner may enter into agreements with any municipality or other political subdivision of the commonwealth to furnish services and facilities of the department to such municipality or political subdivision in the administration of its personnel on merit principles. Any such agreement shall provide for the reimbursement to the department, under contract, of the reasonable cost of the services and facilities furnished, as determined by the commissioner. All municipalities and political subdivisions of the commonwealth are hereby authorized to enter into such agreements.

(2) The commissioner may cooperate with the governmental agencies of other jurisdictions charged with personnel administration in conducting joint tests and establishing joint lists from which eligibles shall be certified for appointment in accordance with the provisions of KRS 18.110 to 18.340.

(3) The commissioner may, upon the request of the secretary of the department for human resources [commissioner of health] and upon the approval of the personnel board, furnish merit system services to "local" departments of health.

Section 9. KRS 18.360 is amended to read as follows:

[(1)] A state employe [who holds a supervisory position and] who is authorized to work one or more hours in excess of the prescribed hours of duty shall be granted compensatory leave on an hour-for-hour basis. The maximum amount of compensatory leave that may be accumulated shall be one hundred (100) hours. Upon separation from state service, unused compensatory leave shall be forfeited. An employe who is transferred or otherwise changed from the jurisdiction of one agency to another shall retain his compensatory leave in the receiving agency.

[(2)] A "supervisory position" is a position which has been designated as supervisory by the agency head or appointing authority. All supervisory positions shall be designated as such in the job description applicable for that position.]

This prohibition does not extend to information required in prosecutions for making false reports or returns of property for taxation, or any other infraction of the tax laws, nor does it extend to any matter properly entered upon any assessment record, or in any way made a matter of public record, nor does it preclude furnishing any taxpayer or his properly authorized agent with information respecting his own return. Further, this prohibition does not preclude the commissioner or any employe of the department of revenue from testifying in any court, or from introducing as evidence returns or reports filed with the department, in an action for violation of state or federal tax laws.

(1) Whenever an individual who is a resident of this state has become liable for income tax to another state upon all or any part of his net income for the taxable year, derived from sources without this state and subject to taxation under this chapter, the amount of income tax payable by him under this chapter shall be credited on his return with the income tax so paid by him to the other state, upon his producing to the proper assessing officer satisfactory evidence of the fact of such payment, except that application of such credits shall not operate to reduce the tax payable under this chapter to an amount less than would have been payable were the income from the other state ignored. [The credit provided for by this subsection shall not be granted to a taxpayer when the laws of the other state, under which the income in question is subject to tax assessment, provide for a credit to the taxpayer substantially similar to that granted by subsection (2).]

(2) Whenever an individual not a resident of this state has become liable for income tax to the state where he resides upon his net income for the taxable year, derived from sources within this state and subject to taxation under this chapter, the amount of income tax payable by him under this chapter shall be credited with the proportion of the tax so payable by him to the state where he resides that his income subject to taxation under this chapter bears to his entire income upon which the tax so payable to the other state was imposed, but only if the laws of the other state grant a substantially similar credit to residents of this state subject to income tax under such laws, or impose a tax upon the personal incomes of its residents derived from sources in this state and exempt from taxation the personal incomes of residents of this state. No credit shall be allowed against the amount of the tax on any income taxable under this chapter that is exempt from taxation under the laws of the other state.]

(2)[(3)] An individual who is not a resident of this state shall not be liable for any income tax under KRS 141.020 (4) if the laws of the state of which such individual was a resident at the time such income was earned in this state contained a reciprocal provision under which nonresidents were exempted from gross or net income taxes to such state, if the state of residence of such nonresident individual allowed a similar exemption to resident individuals of this state. The exemption authorized by this subsection shall in no manner preclude the department of revenue from requiring any information reports pursuant to KRS 141.150 (2).

[(4)] The commissioner of revenue may, with the approval of the attorney general, enter into agreements with the taxing authorities of states having income tax withholding statutes with such agreements to govern the amounts to be withheld from the wages and salaries of residents of such other state or states under the provisions of this chapter when such other state or states grant similar treatment to the residents of this state. Such agreements may provide for recognition of the anticipated tax credits allowed under this section in determining the amounts to be withheld.]

Section 4. KRS 141.120 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Business income" means income arising from transactions and activity in the regular course of a trade or business of the taxpayer and includes income from tangible and intangible property if the acquisition, management, or disposition of the property constitutes integral parts of the taxpayer's regular trade or business operations;

(b) "Commercial domicile" means the principal place from which the trade or business of the taxpayer is managed;

(c) "Compensation" means wages, salaries, commissions, and any other form of remuneration paid or payable to employees for personal services;

(d) "Financial organization" means any bank, trust company, savings bank, industrial bank, land bank, safe deposit company, private banker, savings and loan association, credit union, cooperative bank, investment company, or any type of insurance company;

(e) "Nonbusiness income" means all income other than business income;

(f) "Public service company" means any business entity subject to taxation under KRS 136.120;

(g) "Sales" means all gross receipts of the taxpayer not allocated under subsections (4) through (8) of this section;

(h) "State" means any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any territory or possession of the United States, and any foreign country or political subdivision thereof.

(2) Any corporation having income from business activity which is taxable both within and without this state shall allocate and apportion its net income as provided in this section.

(3) For purposes of allocation and apportionment of income under this section, a corporation is taxable in another state if, in that state it is subject to a net income tax, a franchise tax measured by net income, a franchise tax for the privilege of doing business, or corporate stock tax; or that state has jurisdiction to subject the corporation to a net income tax, a franchise tax measured by net income, a franchise tax for the privilege of doing business, or corporate stock tax, regardless of whether, in fact, the state does or does not.

(4) Rents and royalties from real or tangible personal property, capital gains and losses, interest, dividends, or patent or copyright royalties, to the extent that they constitute nonbusiness income, shall be allocated as provided in subsections (5) through (8) of this section.

(5) (a) Net rents and royalties from real property located in this state are allocable to this state.

(b) Net rents and royalties from tangible personal property are allocable to this state if and to the extent that the property is utilized in this state; or in their entirety if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state and the taxpayer is not organized under the laws of or taxable in the state in which the property is utilized.

(c) The extent of utilization of tangible personal property in a state is determined by multiplying the rents and royalties by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property in the state during the rental or royalty period in the taxable year and the denominator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property everywhere during all rental or royalty periods in the taxable year. If the physical location of the property during the rental or royalty period is unknown or unascertainable by the taxpayer, the tangible personal property is utilized in the state in which the property was located at the time the rental or royalty payer obtained possession.

(6) (a) Capital gains and losses from sales or other dispositions of real property located in this state are allocable to this state.

(b) Capital gains and losses from sales or other dispositions of tangible personal property are allocable to this state if the property had a situs in this state at the time of the sale, or the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state and the taxpayer is not taxable in the state in which the property had a situs.

(c) Capital gains and losses from sales or other dispositions of intangible personal property are allocable to this state if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state.

(7) Interest and dividends are allocable to this state if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state.

(8) (a) Patent and copyright royalties are allocable to this state if and to the extent that the patent or copyright is utilized by the payer in this state; or if and to the extent that the patent or copyright is utilized by the payer in a state in which the taxpayer is not taxable and the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state.

(b) A patent is utilized in a state to the extent that it is employed in production, fabrication, manufacturing, or other processing in the state or to the extent that a patented product is produced in the state. If the basis of receipts from patent royalties does not permit allocation to states or if the accounting procedures do not reflect states of utilization, the patent is utilized in the state in which the taxpayer's commercial domicile is located.

(c) A copyright is utilized in a state to the extent that printing or other publication originates in the state. If the basis of receipts from copyright royalties does not permit allocation to states or if the accounting procedures do not reflect states of utilization, the copyright is utilized in the state in which the taxpayer's commercial domicile is located.

(9) All business income shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying the income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus the sales factor, and the denominator of which is three (3).

(a) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the tax period and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used during the tax period.

1. Property owned by the taxpayer is valued at its original cost. If the original cost of any property is not determinable or is nominal or zero such property shall be valued by the department under regulations promulgated by the department. Property rented by the taxpayer is valued at eight (8) times the net annual rental rate. Net annual rental rate is the annual rental rate paid by the taxpayer less any annual rental rate received by the taxpayer from sub-rentals, provided that such rental and such sub-rentals are reasonable. If the department determines that the annual rental or sub-rental rate is unreasonable, or if a nominal or zero rate is charged, the department may determine and apply such rental rate as will reasonably reflect the value of the property rented by the taxpayer.

2. The average value of property shall be determined by averaging the values at the beginning and ending of the tax period but the department may require the averaging of monthly values during the tax period if reasonably required to reflect properly the average value of the taxpayer's property.

(b) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid or payable in this state during the tax period by the taxpayer for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid or payable everywhere during the tax period. Compensation is paid or payable in this state if:

1. The individual's service is performed entirely within the state; or

2. The individual's service is performed both within and without the state, but the service performed without the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state; or

3. Some of the service is performed in the state and the base of operations or, if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled is in the state, or the base of operations or the place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed, but the individual's residence is in this state.

(c) The sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer in this state during the tax period, and the denominator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer everywhere during the tax period. Sales of tangible personal property are in this state if:

1. The property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser, other than the United States government, or to the designee of the purchaser within this state regardless of the f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale; or

2. The property is shipped from an office, store, warehouse, factory, or other place of storage in this state and the purchaser is the United States government [or the taxpayer is not taxable in the state to which the property is delivered or shipped].

3. Sales, other than sales of tangible personal property, are in this state if the income-producing activity is performed in this state; or the income-producing activity is performed both in and outside this state and a greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed in this state than in any other state, based on costs of performance. .

(10) If the allocation and apportionment provisions of this section do not fairly represent the extent of the taxpayer's business activity in this state, the taxpayer may petition for or the department may require, in respect to all or any part of the taxpayer's business activity, if reasonable:

(a) separate accounting;

(b) the exclusion of any one or more of the factors;

(c) the inclusion of one or more additional factors which will fairly represent the taxpayer's business activity in this state; or

(d) the employment of any other method to effectuate an equitable allocation and apportionment of the taxpayer's income.

(11) Public service companies and financial organizations having income from business activity which is taxable both within and without this state shall allocate such income as follows:

(a) Nonbusiness income shall be allocated to this state as provided in subsections (5) through (8) of this section.

(b) Business income shall be allocated to this state by multiplying the business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus the sales factor and the denominator of which is three (3). The payroll factor shall be determined as provided in subsection (9) (b) of this section. The property factor and sales factor shall be determined as provided by regulations promulgated by the department.

Section 5. KRS 141.205 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The department may require either a consolidated return or a combined return from any or all corporations conducting inter-corporate transactions whenever the department finds that such inter-corporate transactions reduce taxable net income, as defined in KRS 141.010(14), of the corporation(s) below the amount which would result if the transactions were at arms-length.

(2) The department is authorized and empowered to assess the tax against any of the corporations whose income is included in the consolidated or combined return in such manner as it may determine necessary to prevent the avoidance of income tax.

[(1) The department may require any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation doing business within this state to file a consolidated return covering the entire operations of the parent corporation and its subsidiaries, whenever it finds that the intercorporate transactions of the related group tend to reduce the net income of the corporation, or corporations, doing business within this state below the amount that would probably result if such corporation, or corporations, was not a member of the related group.

(2) The department is authorized and empowered, in such manner as it may determine, to assess the tax against any of the corporations whose net income is involved in the consolidated return upon the basis of the combined net income and such other information as it may possess, or it may adjust the tax in such other manner as it shall determine necessary to prevent avoidance of taxes or to clearly reflect the taxable net income earned by such corporation or corporations.

(3) Any corporation owning or controlling either directly or indirectly more than 50 percent of the voting stock of another corporation shall be deemed a parent corporation for purposes of this section. Any corporation having a parent corporation shall be deemed a subsidiary corporation for purposes of this section. Corporations having a common parent shall be considered members of a related group.

(4) If the consolidated return required under this section is not filed within sixty days after demand by the department, said parent corporation or subsidiary corporation or both, shall be subject to the penalty provided in this chapter for failure to file returns.]

(3)/[(5)] In the case of [a] corporations [doing business in this state and] not required to file a consolidated return under subsection (1) of this section that carried on transactions with stockholders or affiliated corporations directly or indirectly, the department shall adjust the net income of such corporations to an amount that would result if such transactions were carried on at arm's length.

(4)/[(6)] Notwithstanding subsection (8) of KRS 141.010, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1969, any corporation which participates in filing a consolidated federal income tax return under Internal Revenue Code Section 1501 shall determine the federal income tax deduction as provided in this subsection. That deduction shall be the lesser of the two amounts computed under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, and shall be adjusted to reflect only federal income tax applicable to income taxed under the provisions of this chapter:

(a) The federal income tax liability shown on the consolidated federal income tax return for the taxable year, minus any federal tax credits actually utilized by the consolidated group, apportioned by a fraction, the numerator of which is the federal taxable income of the separate corporation and the denominator of which is the federal taxable income of the consolidated group before reduction for losses sustained by members of the group;

(b) The federal income tax liability of the consolidated group which would result from the application of the income tax rates contained in the Internal Revenue Code in effect December 31, 1967 to the consolidated federal income for the taxable year, minus any federal tax credits actually utilized by the consolidated group, apportioned by a fraction, the numerator of which is the federal taxable income of the separate corporation and the denominator of which is the federal taxable income of the consolidated group before reduction for losses sustained by members of the group;

(c) Notwithstanding the above provisions, no federal income tax deduction shall be allowed for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1971. Any corporation whose taxable year begins in 1971 and ends in 1972 shall determine the federal income tax deduction as follows:

1. Compute a federal income tax deduction, on the basis of the entire taxable year, by the provisions of this subsection, and

2. Multiply such federal income tax deduction by the ratio of the number of days of the taxable year in 1971 to the total number of days in the taxable year.

Section 6. KRS 141.210 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As soon as practicable after each return is received, the department shall examine and audit it. If the amount of tax computed by the department is greater than the amount returned by the taxpayer, the excess shall be assessed by the department within four (4) years from the date the return was filed, except as hereinafter provided. A notice of the assessment shall be mailed to the taxpayer.

(a) In the case of a failure to file a return or of a fraudulent return the excess may be assessed at any time;

(b) In the case of a return where a taxpayer other than a corporation understates his net income or omits from net income an amount properly includible therein or both which understatement or omission or both is in excess of 25 per cent of the amount of net income stated in the return the excess may be assessed at any time within six (6) years after the return was filed;

The employer shall pay the employer contributions as defined under KRS 18.275 on the member's creditable compensation.

(2) No service credit shall be allowed for any time that the member contributions are not paid.

Section 31. A new section of KRS Chapter 61 is created to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provisions of KRS 16.505 to 16.652 or 61.510 to 61.990 or 78.510 to 78.990 a maximum disability benefit is hereby established which shall apply, upon disability retirement, to any disabled employees' account to which service credit is added to determine disability benefits or in any case where disability benefits are determined by computing a percentage of the disabled employee's final monthly rate of pay. The maximum disability benefit shall be determined by the following formula:

(a) Add the monthly benefit payable to the disabled employee from the retirement system, using the monthly disability retirement allowance (not optional plan) but excluding dependent children's allowances, if any, to his monthly benefit, if any, from social security, even though these payments may not begin for a period of time as required for qualification under the federal social security law, excluding spouse or dependent benefits, and his monthly benefit, if any, from workmen's compensation, even though these payments may not have begun as of the date the disabled member applies for disability retirement benefits, excluding spouse or dependent children's allowances, from workmen's compensation, to arrive at a projected combined monthly benefit.

(b) If the projected combined monthly benefit exceeds one hundred percent (100%) of the disabled employee's final rate of pay his disability retirement allowance from the retirement system shall be reduced to an amount which would cause his projected combined monthly benefit to equal one hundred percent (100%) of his final monthly rate of pay; however, the disability retirement allowance shall not be reduced below an amount which would result from a computation of his disability retirement allowance from the retirement system using the disabled employee's actual total service.

(c) The board is hereby authorized to pay estimated benefits to a disabled employee, upon qualification for disability retirement, based on an estimate of his social security and workmen's compensation benefits until such amounts are actually determined, at which time a final calculation of the member's actual benefits shall be determined and his account corrected retroactive to his effective retirement date.

(d) Any increase in social security benefits or workmen's compensation benefits which becomes law (regardless of their effective date) subsequent to the disabled employee's effective retirement date shall not be considered in determination of the maximum benefit payable, as the maximum benefit payable is based on the amount of combined benefits under these programs as of the disabled employee's effective retirement date.

(e) Any disabled recipient whose potential payments from the system where reduced as provided for in this section shall advise the board if his payments under the federal social security act or workmen's compensation act cease at any time subsequent to his effective retirement date. Upon investigation, should the board determine that such disabled recipient continues to be eligible for disability benefits, the board may increase his retirement allowance by adding to his payment an amount equal to the reduction applied upon the effective retirement date in accordance with subsection (b) of this section.

The authority to issue and properly record such order of participation being hereby granted, permits such county to participate in the system. The effective date of such participation shall be fixed in the order.

HB 603, AN ACT relating to historic preservation.

WHEREAS, Washington, Kentucky in Mason County in the eighteenth century, played a key role in the settlement of Kentucky and the Western Territory, as the northern entrance to the Commonwealth along the buffalo trace, the limestone trail and Smith's Wagon Road; and

WHEREAS, Washington, laid out in 1785 by Arthur Fox and William Wood and established as a town in 1786 by the Virginia legislature was the first county seat of Mason County and believed to be the first town in our country named for George Washington; and

WHEREAS, Washington was home to many great Americans: Simon Kenton, John Chambers, the family of Chief Justice John Marshall, and Albert Sidney Johnson, whose homes are still to be seen in Washington; and

WHEREAS, Harriet Beecher Stowe, after visiting Washington on her first trip to the South, wrote "Uncle Tom's Cabin"; and

WHEREAS, many historic buildings in Washington stand today remarkably well preserved, representative of that era in the development of the Commonwealth and the western expansion of the United States in which Washington made its great contribution to our history.

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. A new section of KRS Chapter 171 is created to read as follows:

(1) In order to preserve, augment and engender the historic qualities of Washington, Mason County, Kentucky there is hereby created the Washington, Kentucky Historic Township Commission to devise a plan and undertake the general restoration and development of Washington, Kentucky as a late eighteenth and early nineteenth century frontier town.

(2) The Washington, Kentucky Historic Township Commission, hereinafter referred to as the Commission, shall consist of eleven (11) members to be appointed by the Governor from among the citizens of Washington and Mason County. The Commission shall elect one of its members chairman and one of its members vice-chairman.

Section 2. A new section of KRS Chapter 171 is created to read as follows:

(1) The Commission may employ a director, who shall serve as its secretary and at its pleasure, and other technical assistants as may be necessary to carry out its purposes.

(2) The Commission may contact, lease, accept gifts and bequests of money and acquire real and personal property by gift, purchase, devise or bequests, deemed necessary for the proper development and planning of Washington as a historic town, and may preserve, restore and administer these properties.

Section 3. A new section of KRS Chapter 171 is created to read as follows:

(1) The Commission shall, within two years of the effective date of this Act, submit a written report to the Governor and the General Assembly. The report shall set out, in such detail as may be necessary; the property, historic sites and buildings to be incorporated into the plan; the manner and method by which the property, sites and buildings may be restored, preserved, maintained and operated; the amount of money which will have to be expended for the restoration and maintenance of any property; and the sources from which funds may be derived for these purposes. The Commission may seek what state and federal funds are available to aid in the development of the plan and the actual restoration and preservation of Washington as a historic town.

(2) The submission of the Commission's report, required by subsection (1) of this section, shall not conclude the business for which it is created and the Commission may continue to exist and perform its designated functions until such time as the Governor may terminate its existence. Upon termination of the Commission all real and personal property held by the Commission, remaining after payment of, or provision for payment of, all debts and liabilities of the Commission shall become the property of the Commonwealth of Kentucky for the purposes of the Department of Parks or the property of Old Washington, Incorporated, as determined by the Commission.

HB 650, AN ACT relating to the financing of pollution control facilities for industrial concerns and public utility companies by cities and counties.

WHEREAS, the operations of many industrial concerns and public utility companies produce atmospheric, solid waste and water pollution, such pollution being detrimental to the health and welfare of the citizens of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and injurious to the natural resources of the Commonwealth, and it is in the public interest that to the maximum extent possible such atmospheric, solid waste and water pollution be controlled, contained, reduced, abated and prevented; and

WHEREAS, cities and counties in Kentucky, pursuant to KRS 103.210 to 103.285 are presently vested with authority to issue tax-exempt bonds for the financing of certain pollution control facilities, such bonds being payable solely and only from revenues received from the leasing of such facilities to industrial concerns, but said cited statutory authority does not presently permit the financing of all pollution control facilities which may legally be financed by tax-exempt bonds pursuant to the provisions of Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, and does not permit cities and counties to utilize all financing procedures permitted by said code, and in order that pollution by industrial concerns and public utility companies may be controlled, contained, reduced, abated and prevented to the maximum possible extent, it is necessary that alternative procedures be adopted and authorized to enable cities and counties to finance needed pollution control facilities to the full extent authorized by federal law.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. A new section of KRS Chapter 103 is created to read as follows:

(1) "Pollution control facilities" means any land, building, structure, machinery, equipment, device, system or other facility functionally related thereto designed for the control, containment, reduction, prevention or abatement of atmospheric pollutants or contaminants, solid waste, noise, radiation, or water pollution produced by industrial concerns and public utility companies, including, but not by way of limitation, any such facilities used in whole or in part to control, contain, reduce, prevent or abate atmospheric, solid waste, noise, radiation or water pollution by removing, altering, containing, disposing or storing pollutants, contaminants, wastes, whether gaseous, solid or liquid, thermal or radioactive. Said term includes all pollution control facilities whenever constructed, reconstructed, acquired and placed in original use, which may legally be financed by issuance of bonds determined to be tax-exempt pursuant to the provisions of Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, and regulations promulgated thereunder. Pollution control facilities may be constructed as part of, and may include, facilities also designed for the recovery of chemicals or other by-products or to serve other purposes which also contribute to the control of or abatement of atmospheric and water pollution.

(2) It is hereby determined and declared that the acquisition and financing of pollution control facilities for utilization by industrial concerns and public utility companies by the issuance of bonds of cities and counties amortized by payments made by such industrial concerns and public utility companies inures to the public interest, and constitutes the performance of a proper governmental purpose. It is the intent of this section to afford to cities and counties alternative methods of financing pollution control facilities to the end that atmospheric and water pollution in the state may be abated and controlled to the maximum possible extent.

(3) As an alternative to the procedure set forth in KRS 103.210 to 103.285, inclusive, any city or county, for the purpose of financing the acquisition of pollution control facilities for any industrial concern or public utility company, may issue negotiable bonds pursuant to KRS 103.210 to 103.285, inclusive, and either (a) loan the proceeds of the sale of such bonds to an industrial or public utility company to finance the acquisition of such pollution control facilities, (b) sell such pollution control facilities to an industrial concern or public utility company pursuant to agreement, or (c) lease such pollution control facilities from an industrial concern or public utility company and sublease same to such industrial concern or public utility company. In the event of use of such alternative financing procedure, such bonds shall not constitute an indebtedness of such city or county within the meaning of the Constitution of Kentucky, but shall be payable as to principal and interest solely from the revenues derived from payments, repayments, or sublease payments made by such industrial concern or public utility company to such city or county in respect of such loan, sale, or sublease.

(4) In the event that an alternate procedure authorized by this section is to be utilized in the financing of pollution control facilities, (i) the provisions of KRS 103.210 to 103.285, inclusive, shall apply, except that the proceedings and procedures therein described shall contemplate and authorize a transaction in the form of (a) a loan of the proceeds of such bonds by such city or county to an industrial concern or public utility company for the acquisition of such pollution control facilities, (b) a sale of such pollution control facilities to an industrial concern or public utility company pursuant to agreement, or (c) a lease of such pollution control facilities from an industrial concern or public utility company and sublease of same to such industrial concern or public utility company; and (ii) the loan, sale, lease and sublease and any agreement or contract with respect thereto may include such provisions as such city or county shall deem appropriate to effect the securing of the loan made in respect of such pollution control facilities, including, but not by way of limitation, (a) pledge of the general credit of any such industrial concern or public utility company, (b) the making of guaranties to indenture trustees or to such city or county in respect of amortization of such bonds by any such industrial concern or public utility company, (c) the creation of liens or security interests on any property or portion thereof of any such industrial concern or public utility company, either senior or junior to, or ranking equally with, any other lien, security interest or rights of others, including any party or parties to any agreement in connection with such loan and/or their respective security holders and indenture trustees or mortgage trustees, and (d) the pledge of direct senior securities of any such industrial concern or public utility company in respect of such bonds.

(5) In the event any city or county shall finance pollution control facilities pursuant to the express authority contained in this section, title to such pollution control facilities shall not be acquired by such city or county, and the statutory mortgage lien for which provision is made in KRS 103.250 shall not apply to any such pollution control facilities.

(6) Bonds issued by cities and counties pursuant to the authority contained in this section may be caused to mature as to principal in term or serial maturities not to exceed thirty (30) years from date of issue.
